

WORDS are but poor things to express our appreciation of your many favors during the year just past . . . May we show how grateful we are by being of greater service to you during 1936.

R. T. KIRKLAND & CO. The Store of Real Values

Remember the New Year may be the future. For your kind wishes are the best. For many families to express our appreciation and to extend our warmest regards to you and your family.

JOS. GORDON

As we move into a new year and to express our desire that we want to express our gratitude for the past year and to express our desire that we may continue and increase during the year to come.
