Governor Cannot Suspend Operation Ice Cream Tax

The Governor has no power to suspend operation of the ice cream tax, Attorney General B. M. Vincent held in an opinion requested by Governor Chandler Friday. The Governor promptly accepted a suggestion made by the Attorney General that either the Governor or Commissioner of Revenue James W. Martin could give relief to the public if you feel the ice cream tax is burdensome" by failing to appeal a decision of the Franklin circuit court that the tax is unconstitutional.

The case will be appealed, Governor Chandler said. "It is my duty to have it done, and it is the duty of the Attorney General to prosecute the appeal."

The action was taken after Circuit Judge William B. Ardery had held the 2 cents a gallon tax on ice cream unconstitutional. Governor Chandler requested an opinion as to whether the tax could be suspended pending action of the court of appeals.

Former Nicholas Man Is Victim In Holdup

The following clipping from a Dayton, Ohio, paper will be of interest to friends of O. H. Buchanan here. Mr. Buchanan is the son of Mrs. W. M. Buchanan, of Myers.

State road patrolmen Tuesday were searching for a bandit who held up O. H. Buchanan, 1909 E. Third St., and O. H. Wilson, 78 Oxford Ave., salesmen for the Colonial Dairy Lunch Company on Franklin St., on the Fairfield-Yellow Springs road, and escaped early with their automobile after relieving them of $800. The purchase money was recovered at Springfield. The bandit made arrangements to have the company send an auto to Osborn to pick him up for a demonstration. The arrangement was kept and the prospective purchaser ordered the salesmen to drive him out the Fairfield-Yellow Springs road, supposedly to his father's farm. This was at about 6 p. m. after the bandit previously called the company to make certain that the machine would be sent to the born.

Two miles from Osborn, the bandit ordered Buchanan and Wilson from the car at the point of a pistol and after taking their money drove away.

223 Nicholas Farmers Have Borrowed $733,600

Observing this week the 20 year anniversary of the passing of the Farm Loan Act of 1916 which marked the beginning of cooperative credit in the United States, Ellis Fiske, President of the Federal Land Bank of Louisville announced that when the Federal Land Bank Administration was organized in 1917 there were 223 borrowers in Nicholas county, increased from $145,475 in 1917 to $733,600, which was the face amount of Federal Land Bank and Bank Commissioner loans outstanding in the county on June 30. The number of farmers having Federal land bank loans has increased from 40 to 223.

This large advance in the amount of loans outstanding has been accompanied by a steady gain in the total indebtedness of Nicholas farmers, which has increased since farmers used about 9 out of every 10 dollars borrowed to buy land, equipment and livestock to binkle, insurance companies, banks, merchants, other farms and individuals.

The cooperative farm loan business is handled locally by the County National Farm Loan Association of Carlisle. Every one of 124 similar organizations serving farmers in this state has R. Caldwell, is the Secretary-Treasurer and a member of the board. Directors are R. B. Brierly, President, W. S. Atkinson, Vice-President, H. B. Brown, R. Hall and W. S. Gunnell.

Mr. Fiske said that the Federal credit funds are obtained from the sale of Federal farm loan bonds to investors and that the Federal government has invested $9,000,000 in the capital stock of the 12 cooperative short-term credit banks which serve agriculture, but that all of this money and more also is repaid to the Government with interest in 1931.

$7,957,859.44 Spent On Schools Past Year

The field of schoolhouse construction in Kentucky during the past $7,957,859.44 in either new buildings or additions to old ones, of which amount $4,145,720 was from a direct grant or gift from the federal government, Fred J. Brosseau, director of school building and district unit of the Department of Education, reported.

There were 255 school building projects during the year, and on only fourteen projects, amounting to $400,000, was there no federal aid received, either from the Public Works Administration or the Works Progress Administration.

Additions and new buildings with Public Works Administration aid, since the projects, $4,721,196.43; additions and new buildings with Works Progress Administration aid, since 238 projects $2,027,736; additions and new projects without federal aid, 255 projects $395,000.

School districts furnished $3,422,129 of the total amount included, and federal agencies the balance, Mr. Brosseau said.

Must Register Before Voting In The Primary

The last part of section 2 of the new 1936 Registration Act provides that all persons who are duly and properly registered as herein provided, shall be permitted to vote at the primary election to be held on the 1st Saturday in August, 1936, and at all primaries, general and special elections held thereafter."

In an opinion Attorney General B. M. Vincent holds "I find this language so specific and in detail I am compelled to hold that in order to be legal voter in the coming primary, the voter must be registered first."

Voters should go to the polls early and remain there until they have had an opportunity to vote.

THE CARLISLE MERCURY

VOLUME LXX. ESTABLISHED 1867 CARLISLE, NICHOLAS COUNTY, KY., THURSDAY, JULY 30, 1936 PUBLISHED WEEKLY NUMBER 31

BOTH PARTIES WILL SELECT NOMINEES IN ELECTION SATURDAY

Registration Is Expected To Bring Out Heavy Vote In Kentucky

BEGIN COUNT AT ONCE

Democratic and Republicans will go to the polls Saturday to nominate candidates for United States Senator and Congressmen at the various districts, and in some counties and districts other offices will be nominated. In this county the Democratic will nominate a candidate for Tax Commissioner.

The vote Saturday will probably be the largest ever polled in a primary election in Kentucky. The new state registration law, it is expected, will bring many persons to the polls who otherwise would not have voted.

Voters who register as Independent may register Saturday but will not be allowed to vote. A voter must register as a member of some party or as an Independent and can only vote for a candidate of the party in which he affiliates when he goes to vote.

The campaign, as a whole, has been quiet and without the usual stumping on both sides.

The Tax Commissioner election in this county is expected to bring out a large vote. There are four of the candidates have large followings. The Democratic nominee will be the choice of the voters at the general election next November.

A new feature of the election this year will be the early counting of the votes. The votes will be brought to the court house immediately after the polls close and the election commissioners will begin the count at 5 o'clock. In this election the county should be finished by midnight.

Convention Did Indorse Vinson

Copy Of Certified Resolution Signed By Keen Johnson Proves

Inasmuch as the opposition to Hon. Fred M. Vinson, who is up for Congress in this district is publishing that the convention of 1935 did not indorse the district administration, a statement to the effect that the Eighth District Democratic Convention held at the Seelbach Hotel in Louisville, April 24, 1935, did indorse Mr. Vinson for re-election, the following resolution, signed by Keen Johnson, secretary of the Democratic State Committee, and Governor Chandler, was found:

Resolution Of Eighth District Democratic Convention, Seelbach Hotel, Louisville, Kentucky, April 24, 1935.

Whereas Honorable Fred M. Vinson, our Congressman, has faithfully represented the best interest of the people of the Eighth District and the Democratic party and of the United States and in the United States House of Representatives

Be It Resolved that the Eighth District Democratic Convention heartily indorses Fred M. Vinson for re-election, we especially indorse his stand in favor of the executive veto as represented by the bill providing for immediate payment of the bonus, of which he was an author; that we indorse his stand in favor of the Vinson-Guffey bill in the interest of the coal mining industry and mine labor in this state, as represented in the bill which also bears his name; that we indorse his action for the protection of the farmers and especially the tobacco growers of our district and the State of Kentucky and his continued interest in agriculture and labor; that we indorse his active, loyal and intelligent support of President Roosevelt's progressive and humanitarian program; that we commend his leadership in the National House of Representatives, where he has been selected by his fellow Democratic colleagues on the Ways and Means Committee, the great policy-making committee of the Congress, and that we pledge our support to his reelection with a view to continuing his great service to our people.

The above is a true copy of a resolution adopted by the Democratic Convention of the 8th Congressional District at Louisville, Kentucky, June 9, 1936.

(Sgd) Keen Johnson, Secretary Democratic State Central Executive Committee.

Cost Of Holding Courts Is Low

Jurors And Witness In Circuit Court Paid Only $1,463 During Past Year

Miss Jeanette Cox, Circuit Court Clerk, filed this week with the Kentucky Judicial Council a report of the activities of the Nicholas Circuit Court for the year beginning July 1, 1935, and ending July 1, 1936.

The report shows that during the past 13 ordinary cases were filed and 13 were disposed of. Forty equity cases were filed and 34 were disposed of. Seventy-six criminal cases were on the docket during the year.

A total of 19 days were consumed in holding courts during the three terms of the year, and twenty jury trials were held.

The total cost of grand jurors for the year was $370, and the cost of petit jurors was $765. Witness claims paid totaled $27, and bailiffs and officers fund received fees totaling $17.02.

The cost of operating the circuit court, as shown above, was probably as low as any in the state, and Miss Cox, Circuit Court Clerk, and J. C. Dolman's district will share the credit for operating out of any district in the state.

Local Unit To Leave Saturday

Hembitzer Company To Be Among 20,000 Troops At Fort Knox Aug. 1-11

Approximately fifty members of Hembitzer Company 105th Infantry will leave here Saturday night for Fort Knox to participate in the annual fifteen days field training encampment. This will be the thirteenth annual field training period which the local organization has participated.

The principal event of the training this year will be a Field Army maneuver which will last four three days during which the greatest number of troops ever assembled since the World War will participate. The maneuver will begin on August 6 and end August 8 when the troops will entrain the troops will live, eat and sleep in the field.

Approximately 20,000 troops will be concentrated at Fort Knox during the fifteen days the greatest number of troops at the camp since the World War. The entire nations will comprise all Regular Army, National Guard and reserve units in Kentucky, Indiana, Ohio and West Virginia, and units from many other states will also be in camp.

Local organizations will be quartered in tents. An advance detail of Hembitzer Company left Monday night to arrange for the arrival of the local unit.

First Pension Checks August 3

Commissioner Announces Investigation Will Be Made As Rapidly As Possible

By direction of Gov. A. B. Chandler, Commissioner of Welfare Frederick A. Wallis said in a statement Monday night, the first installment of the old age assistance (pension) checks will begin to go out during the week of Monday, August 3.

Commissioner Wallis said that although federal approval of the Kentucky Social Security set-up has not been made formally, this approval was assured. The program is $5,000,000 a year, half of this sum a state appropriation, half to be paid by the federal government.

After next week, Commissioner Wallis said, "old age assistance grants will be made regularly as the official field workers of the public welfare division can make investigations in harmony with both state and federal requirements."

Mr. Wallis said the department is forwarding applications in duplicate to all eligible persons whose names have been furnished by friends, county and state officials and others. Applications in alphabetical sequence are being sent into each county and will be followed up by investigation by field workers as rapidly as possible.

Work On Field To Be Resumed

WPA To Complete Athletic Field Most Of Project Has Been Completed

The Carlisle city school board Saturday received notice from the district WPA office at Lexington that work would probably be resumed in a few days on the athletic field on the East Union road, just outside the city limits.

Work on the project was stopped last week when the allotment of funds for the project was exhausted. An official of the WPA office was here and made another estimate for completing the work. Most of the project has been completed. All of the frame work has been constructed for the grandstand, needing only the seats and backs for completion. A little more grading remains to be done, a part of the stone will be uncompleted, and the board fence around the lot has not been completed.

It is believed that the project can be completed within two weeks of working weather.

New Licenses For Drivers On Sale

New Law Goes Into Effect, 2,116 Old Licenses Issued In Nicholas County

Automobile drivers' licenses, required under an act of the 1936 General Assembly, have been placed on sale by Miss Jeanette Cox, Circuit Court Clerk. A shipment of 2,300 licenses arrived Friday. Sales of the licenses have been slow, Miss Cox said.

A total of 2,116 licenses were issued under the old law, and it will be impossible for all of these drivers to obtain licenses by Saturday.

The law requires that every driver of an automobile have a drivers license, which must be purchased annually. The cost of the license is $1.

It is expected that it will take a month to issue the licenses throughout the state, although the driver without a license will be subject to arrest and fine after Saturday.

Farm Reservoirs To Be Constructed In Nicholas

The Works Progress Administration has announced the allotment appropriation of $75,000 to Ken tucky for the purpose of building farm reservoirs. The work in Nicholas county will be in charge of the WPA, it is said, by the local CCC camp. Mr. Bryson Mills, WPA engineer, has charge of the reservoirs in six counties in this area.

Work on the first reservoir in the county will be started on the farm of Mrs. Bettie Hood Hall, it is reported this morning. County Agent R. J. Matson said twelve farmers have offered land for the building of the dams and reservoirs.

The reservoirs will cover approximately one acre of ground with five feet of water. They will be for the general use of the community. Approximately twenty men will be employed on each project.

Old Concord Meeting House Being Repaired

In preparation for the great home coming week, the old Concord Meeting House is undergoing repairs. New paper is being hung and all parts of the building being renovated. The Concord church has played an important part in the history of Nicholas county. The first building was erected in 1793. The present building was erected in 1860. It is one of the most commodious buildings in the county, being 40 by 60 feet. For many years, under the leadership of Taylor Pettis, the Concord Bible school, was the banner school of the county. All the Christian churches in Nicholas county are cooperating in a week of special services, Aug. 23-30. Many who have moved away from the county are looking for this occasion. The ministers of the county will be in charge of the services. Jim Alexander and Kimbrough Hamilton are in charge of the repairs.

Chance For Work Is Slim In Louisville Area

Large numbers of unskilled workers from Kentucky counties are migrating into Louisville, seeking employment through the National Reemployment Service, according to Myer Freyman, state director of the service. The people's opportunities for jobs in Jefferson county are very slight since the amount of this type work is not sufficient to supply a bona fide residents who are registered with the Louisville district office of the Service. The possibility of obtaining a job is far greater for the unskilled worker in his home county than in Louisville, Mr. Freyman said.

The Travelers Aid Society also says more than 40,000 persons a year
