PHILIP'S MISSIONARY LABORS

LESSON TEXT—Acts 8:5-40.
GOLDEN TEXT—Therefore they that were scattered abroad went everywhere preaching the word.—Acts 8:4.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Philip Tells the Glad News.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Philip Tells the Glad News.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Christian Witnessing.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Gospel Crosses the Frontier.

Evangelism is the work of every follower of Christ, and primarily the work of the layman. This duty cannot be delegated to the church as an organized body or to its official servants.

Philip was a layman, a deacon in the church by office, but an evangelist by the gift and calling of the Holy Spirit. His experience in leading the Ethiopian eunuch to Christ demonstrates that one who is yielded to the Spirit—

I. Will Find Opportunity for Soul Winning (v. 26). Most unexpected places will afford opportunities. Philip was in the midst of a great revival in Samaria when the angel of the Lord sent him to Gaza—a desert place. Who would be meet here? Remember that the great world-evangelist, Dwight L. Moody, was converted in a Bible class teacher.

II. Will Respond Immediately to the Spirit's Leading (vv. 29, 30). The Spirit said to Philip: "Go near." The fundamental of fundamentals in God's children is obedience. At opportunity, the inquiring soul, the equipped personal worker, all were prepared by God for just that moment. All would have been lost had Philip failed to obey.

III. Will Find That Men and Women Are Ready to Receive the Truth (vv. 28, 31-34).

God prepares souls, and more are willing to be saved than we think. Whether it was through his experience at Jerusalem, his spiritual hunger before he came up to the reading of the Word, or all these together, the eunuch was ready.

Neighbors, schoolmates, traders, people before whom we may be present God's opportunity for us.

IV. Will Find Their God Honors Men by Using Them to Win Others. He could have gone on alone on the top of the Alps," but he doesn't understand. He determined it was "the sweet of the Lord and of God's" that he should go a factory. The eunuch needed an interpreter of the truth. Philip is on God's team. Layman heavier rails—a third of a billion dollars spent during the same period in new track construction, and more than three billions put into right-of-way maintenance—all of which makes faster schedules possible with safety.

And the L & N has shared in these giant forward strides. Never before could this railway give you such superb service—take you on your journey with such speed, economy, comfort and safety.

"SAME DEPARTMENT STORES"

CLEAR TRACK AHEAD!

With "Go" signals showing all along the line, the American railroads are driving ahead to new triumphs in service and efficiency —going after business, now pulling it, in a way to make any railroad man justly proud.

Of course the recent years have not been easy. But in face of tough times, these dependable carriers have made their bid for increased business by stepping up freight train speed by 45%, by coming forth with fleamy and passenger trains, and by increasing their comfort by air conditioning, providing greater cleanliness, restful quiet, safe, agreeable travel at its best.

At the same time there has steadily gone forward a vast program of improvement—$472,000,000 invested in the past six years in laying heavier rails—a third of a

Vinson Not Indorsed

R. T. KENNARD
Attorney at Law,
Olive Hill, Ky.

Mr. W. C. Clay,
Mt. Sterling, Ky.
Dear Sir:—

I have your letter of July 23rd in reply to my letter of July 20th published in the Sentinel Democrat and your reply thereto published in the Advocate on July 23rd, also an article which purports to be a copy of the alleged indorsement of Mr. Vinson, signed by Hon. Keen Johnson.

In further reply to your contention that the 8th District meeting of delegates at the 1936 State Convention held at Louisville indorsed Fred M. Vinson for Congress, I reiterate and reaffirm my previous statement that the 8th District meeting did not indorse Mr. Vinson for re-election, and I give as additional reference for the verification of my statement every delegate from the 8th Congressional District who attended the 8th District meeting.

But to the contrary, delegates from fourteen of the twenty counties of the 8th District met in rooms 816-18 of the Seelbach Hotel and voted unanimously to give Mr. Vinson opposition. A resolution to indorse Mr. Vinson was never presented at the 8th District meeting, and would not have been adopted had it been presented.

Referring to the paper which you inclose, which purports to be an indorsement of Mr. Vinson signed by Hon. Keen Johnson, Secretary of the State Central and Executive Committee, in my opinion Mr. Johnson was deceived and imposed upon by some Vinson supporter, who represented to him that said paper had been adopted by the 8th District meeting when in fact it had not been adopted or even presented. In brief, the paper, in my opinion, is a willful forgery for which Mr. Johnson is not responsible.

I WILL FURTHER SAY FOR YOUR INFORMATION THAT each of the Louisville papers carried the proceedings of the several Congressional District meetings at the State Convention, and neither of them made any mention of the 8th District meeting having indorsed Mr. Vinson.

I trust that you will have this letter published in each paper that carried your letter.

Yours very truly,

Signed, R. T. KENNARD,
Chairman Resolutions Committee,
8th District Convention.
