

Governor Calls Attention To Lepus Week

In a letter addressed to the Kentucky Lepus Governors Association, Governor A. B. Chandler emphasizes the importance of Lepus Week in Kentucky. Mr. H. H. Gilmer, Secy., Kentucky Lepus Governors' Assn., Kentucky.

My dear Mr. Gilmer: The importance of Lepus Week and other building up of the Lepus Week. I am informed that you are planning to call the attention of the farm people of Kentucky to Lepus Week, March 25-29, 1936.

The type of cover is proving of inestimable value to Kentucky Lepus Week. The Lepus Week is a most valuable asset to the Lepus Week. The Lepus Week is a most valuable asset to the Lepus Week. The Lepus Week is a most valuable asset to the Lepus Week.

The next step in producing a crop of potatoes is in planting. It is not out of place to mention that the seed potatoes should be planted in a row 12 to 15 inches apart, and the soil should be worked to a depth of 4 to 6 inches. Half Our Hawks Do More Good Than Horn On Farm

Contrary to common opinion all hawks are chicken thieves. Six of the seventeen most common species are good friends of the farmer. At least half do more good than harm, says the Bureau of Biological Services, United States Department of Agriculture, in a new circular, Food Conservation and Inspection Service.

WHY I WANT MY BOY To Be A Farmer

I have a son now 5 years old, and I hope when he grows up he will be a farmer. I have seen so many boys who are being trained for other professions, and I think farmers and farm women are the best people in the world to raise.

DEATH ON THE HIGHWAY

The Travelers Insurance Company has issued a book on "Live and Let Live." It deals with the causes of accidents on the highway, and the ways in which they can be avoided.
