Salesman Kidnaped And Robbed Of Auto And Cash

Herbert Devine, 40, of Paintsville, traveling salesman for a Louisville hardware company, was released on a heavy county guard today after being kidnapped last night. Devine told Montgomery county officers that he was driving his 1935 Buick sedan from West Liberty Wednesday afternoon, thinking they were fishbaiters. Immediately after they drove to the car, forcing Devine to get in the front seat. He was taken to another car and forced to go on the four hours drive to the north.

Devine's automobile, a 1935 Buick sedan, was found in a field near the kidnapping. The car was found with the keys in the ignition. The car was found in a field near the kidnapping. The car was found with the keys in the ignition.
