Attends 4-H Club Camp

Cleo Cline, Moorefield 4-H Club has just returned from the Kentucky 4-H Centennial Camp for 4-H boys, which was held from July 5-7 at the Louisville Boys' Camp. Approximately thirty-five boys attended the camp from various sections of the state in charge of G. J. McKenney, field agent in 4-H club work, and Cecil W. Jones state Utopia Club leader. The camp was sponsored by the C. L. Horn, who for the past few years has been trying to interest farmers in the conservation of wild flowers, trees and wild game. Mr. Horn entertained these 4-H club members hoping to interest them in the conservation of soil and wild life, and urged them to make plans for a conservation program on their farm and encourage others to do likewise.

The boys present were shown a little time and taught much about wild life in Kentucky. They were instructed in the use of fire arms and in camping. They were also instructed for the organizing of a 4-H gun and rod club and the organization of new projects such as the raising of quail. The quail to be raised by 4-H club members under controversial methods and sold to the state Fish and Game Commission to be released in the community of each member in the state.

Tobacco Worms Numerous

Farmers from all sections of the county have reported large numbers of tobacco worms this year. Tobacco flies are very numerous and thus heavy infestation of worms can be expected in the tobacco throughout the county soon.

When tobacco worms are so numerous it is not practicable to pick them off and farmers will find it much cheaper to use poison to control them.

Dr. J. J. Davis and H. H. Mason are recommending a poison mixture made of 4 pounds of arsenate of lead and 1 pound of Paris green. This poison can either be sprayed or dusted on the tobacco. At the present time it will take about 1 pound of this mixture to the acre of tobacco and as the tobacco grows larger it will take from four to six pounds per acre at maturity. As a mixture is found to stick to the tobacco better than Paris green alone and is not washed off by rains. It has also been found to be more palatable to the worms and therefore them more efficiently than either of the poisons used alone. Farmers who are interested in further information should secure a copy of circular 230 from the County Agent's office.

300,000 OBSOLETE CARS

According to a report made last week by the American Railway Car Institute, the nation's railroads now have more than 300,000 obsolete cars in their rolling stock and an additional 80,000 cars will enter this class each year for the next five years. As this equipment must be either repaired or replaced, railroad equipment firms look forward to a long period of good business.

500 Registrants Since November

Large Number Of Voters Throng Clerk's Office Saturday, Which Was Deadline

Approximately five hundred Nicholas county voters have registered since the November election, it was estimated by County Clerk Jno. Said Monday morning. Mr. Sugg kept his office open until midnight Saturday to allow registered voters and his office was throng with voters all day and far into the night with belated registrations.

Approximately ninety per cent of the voters registered are Democrats, Mr. Sugg said. Many of them had become 21 years old since the last election, while others included older people who had never before voted.

The large registration list, many politicians believe, indicated a heavy vote in the August primary.

Three cows belonging to W. C. Fox, of the Maysdick section, have been killed, since July 8 when they developed rabies. A dog in the neighborhood was killed about a month ago and was found to have rabies. The dog is believed to have bitten a large number of animals.

All Stock Prices Slightly Lower

Lambs About One Dollar Off From A Week Before, Cattle Also Somewhat Lower

The lower trend on lambs throughout the state this week was reflected in the sales at the Farmers Stock Yards here Tuesday when top ewes and wethers brought $10.45, a decline of $1.05 per hundred from last week's sales. Medium and common grades of lambs showed about the same drop in prices.

Cattle prices were slightly off, being from 25 cents to 50 cents per hundred lower than on last Tuesday's sales.

The volume of livestock sold was almost as large as during the previous week when a record run of 2,535 head sold. On Tuesday 2,172 head of cattle, calves, hogs, sheep and lambs were sold.

Fynes generally were satisfactory and bidding was spirited. Quotations on the sales Tuesday were as follow:

Hogs—Receipts, 325; packers, $12.25; sows, $8.60 to $10.60; stock hogs $10.80 to $12.15; sows and pigs $23.00 to $41.50.

225 In Nicholas Given Assistance

$2,035 Paid To Dependent Old Persons In County During Month Of June

According to the report from the office of Dr. A. Y. Lloyd, District Public Assistance Officer, recipients in Nicholas county received $2,035.00 during the month of June.

Over the entire state 5,508 pend ing applications were received by the Division of Public Assistance during June. Of this number 4,396 were approved for new grants, 1,112 were denied as ineligible under the law, and 282 were disposed of for other reasons. Kentuckians received $764,722.35 in actual assistance during the month.

The Division of Public Assistance is exerting every effort to clear all pending applications by carefully documenting proof of age, citizenship, and residence of applicants in order to prove legal eligibility in accordance to both state and federal laws. All the applicants that have not yet been investigated would collect surplus commodities, such as flour, bedding, mattresses, clothing, insurance policies, licenses or any financial certificates it would facilitate the final business of closing. Every home visit is made by the Field Worker. The Division appreciates very much the cooperation that workers have received from the many thousands of people that have been given as references, postmasters, bankers, merchants and other respected citizens of the various communities."

A noteworthy development in the program of Old Age Assistance in Kentucky during the past few months has been the tremendous increase in the number of denials. This has been due to the fact that the most needy cases were selected and given preference, during the early months of this program, thereby preventing actual starvation in many instances. The proportion of denials is expected to increase during the next few months. It is the policy of the Division to investigate all applications thoroughly and to make grants only to those persons legally eligible for such assistance, thereby preventing an unfair burden on the tax payers of the state. The money appropriated is only sufficient for the most needy, and it would be unfair to the taxpayers to grant assistance without regard to their eligibility.

Falcons live to a great age. It is said that one was found in France about 1700 with a collar of gold dated 1610, showing it to have belonged to James I of England.

WOMEN WILL DIRECT GIRLS' ACTIVITIES AT LOCAL PLAYGROUND

Dramatics, Pageant, Folk Dancing And Outdoor Games Planned

PLAN BUSY SCHEDULE

A program including dramatics, pageantry, story telling, folk dancing and other outdoor games is planned to start immediately on the Carlisle playground. Miss Alberta Murphy and Miss Virginia Nesler, of the Lexington WPA recreation project, are here to plan and organize activities for girls.

Girls of all ages were invited to come to the playground and enroll in the various activities Wednesday, July 14, from 9 to 12 and from 2 to 5. Activities are planned for every day.

WPA officials say that Carlisle is one of the few communities of any community of comparable size that has not had a ball park provided through funds advanced by the softball games on Friday night for the purchase of baseball equipment for the younger children and with Coach May in charge of boys' activities for the present. Parents and young people will probably determine the time when the supervisors will be assigned to Carlisle. Much work has been done preliminary to the action, it is also such a program of activities for young people and children the citizens will determine its success.

WEATHERIME

221 In nation die from heat

Deaths attributed to the National five-day heat wave rose to at least 221 Sunday while weather observers said they could predict no immediate relief.

The Middle West and Atlantic Seaboard continued to sweltter in 90 to 100 degree temperatures. The Western plains and Rocky Mountains area enjoyed slightly cooler weather and scattered showers.

North Central Kansas experienced its heaviest rain of the season. The fall totaled four and one-half inches at Clay Center.

Despite the rains, forecasters said high temperatures were expected to continue in most sections.

The drooping toll mounted as deaths flocked to beaches in cities and towns in the "sweltter belt." In the larger cities hundreds spent the night in parks and slept on Sunday streets before the cool doors of air conditioned theaters.

Deaths attributed to the heat included:

Michigan, 27, New York 41, Massachusetts, 15, Pennsylvania, 24, Illinois, 18, Connecticut 27, New Jersey 18, Rhode Island 6, Minnesota 6, Maine 3, Iowa 3, Nebraska 3, Indiana 7, West Virginia 4, District of Columbia 11, Ohio 4, Maryland 2, Wisconsin 10, and Missouri 1.

16 Candidates Seek Coroner's Post In Bath

It looked as if Ernest Hyatt, former candidate for Coroner of Bath county, would have no opposition until shortly before the midnight deadline for filing, when fifteen other candidates rushed into the County Clerk's office and filed their notification papers.

Older residents said it was the first time in Bath county history that any sort of contest had developed for the office, and ascribed it to "political bonespicy."

All the candidates are Democrats. Besides Hyatt, they are Lee Dailey, Alva Crowe, Earl Mann, Oscar Culver, Roy Sorrell, Millard Ledford, John Williams, Earl Jones, Sherman Cline, Arthur Dailey, Chester Bowles, John Mann, Clyde Hawkins, Roe Bussell, John Riddle, Oscar Roberts.

Senator Robinson Expires Suddenly

Democratic Floor Leader Was Candidate For Vice President In 1928

United States Senator Joseph T. Robinson, of Arkansas, Democratic floor leader in the Senate, staunch Roosevelt supporter and 1928 vice presidential candidate, was found dead on the floor of the bathroom of his home in Washington Wednesday morning, according to radio announcements. Death was due to apoplexy.

Senator Robinson was the Democratic nominee for Vice President with Al Smith in 1928. He was considered one of the most likely appointees of President Roosevelt as a member of the United States Supreme Court to fill the vacancy caused by the retirement of Justice Vandeventer.

Senator Robinson was one of the most popular members of the Senate and one of the oldest in point of service.

Foes Say Court Bill Is Killed

Chief Of House Judiciary Committee Breaks With President Over Measure

Revolt against the President's court reform bill spread from the Senate to the House Tuesday when Representative Sumners of Texas, Democratic chieftain and floor leader of the powerful judiciary committee, advocated a "sit-down" on the issue. The speech of Chairman Sumners was taken on all sides as meaning that his committee will never let the bill out on the House floor for a vote unless the House itself takes it away from the group by drastic action.

To get the bill out of committee, a petition bearing the names of 218 of the 435 House members is necessary. Opponents of the bill declared the necessary number of signatures would never be obtained and joyfully declared the measure is dead.

Sumners had never before publicly commented on the bill and his action cast a bombshell into the Roosevelt forces.

70,000 Homeless In California Valley Report

Harold H. Robertson, a social worker, estimated Friday that 70,000 homeless persons are wandering in California's rich San Joaquin Valley.

Robertson said he based his estimate on "figures supplied by county health officers, city police chiefs and mayors."

Robertson declared most of the people, largely family groups, had moved to the valley from drouth areas.

"Many of them are starving," he said. "There is official evidence showing deaths from malnutrition and exposure."

He declared communicable diseases "are prevalent."

Relief costs in Los Angeles county, it was estimated, mounted from 32 cents per capita in 1925 to $14.52 in 1936, or $97.51 per capita.

CANDIDATES DRAW FOR POSITIONS ON PRIMARY BALLOTS

Smallest Number Of Candidates In Years Before Democrats In August

REPUBLICAN PRIMARY

Candidates for the various offices to be voted upon at the August primary met at the court house Tuesday afternoon and drew for positions on the ballots. The candidates for state and district offices drew for positions at Frankfort. The order in which the names of the candidates will appear is contained in an official notice of County Judge John B. Sugg, published elsewhere in this issue.

The Democratic ballot this year will be one of the shortest in many years. There is no opposition for three major offices, County Attorney Guerry Clark and Tax Commissioner, and the names of the candidates for these offices will not appear upon the ballot.

Not more than two names will appear upon any ballot, depending upon the number of candidates for Magistrate in the district. Three districts have two Magistrates and seven districts have three candidates.

The present campaign, so far as The Mercury has heard, has been free of bitterness or "mudslinging" upon the part of any of the candidates.

The fact that there are two candidates for the Republican nomination for Sheriff will necessitate a Republican ballot, upon which only the names of the two candidates for sheriff will appear. There is one candidate for Jailer, whose name will not appear upon the ballot. This is the fewest number of Republican candidates in many years.
