CARD FROM D. M. CURRY

Carlisle, Ky., May 11, 1937

To the citizens of Nicholas county:

I wish to state a few facts to the public to avoid any misunderstanding now or in the future in regard to my activities since Jan. 1, 1934, as Judge of the Nicholas county court, which I have tried to perform to the best of my ability and the powers I have had to do so.

Many problems have come before me since January 1, 1934, on which I did not approve. Early in the action was the gasoline tax question, which I thought should be divided with the various dealers who pay taxes in Nicholas county, are trying to make an honest living from the various filling stations. This business was all confined to one company. Second, in the purchase of trucks, I did not approve of buying more than two, but three were bought and at a price around $400 on the three above what three of another make could have been bought for, which I think would have given as good satisfaction, if not better, than the ones bought. Third, and most important are the poor unfortunates who need medical attention in emergency cases, an order was made in our court that no order could be given in any case unless given in open court. However, four orders were given by the County Judge for a doctor to attend four different maternity cases which were emergencies. The doctor answered three and in good faith, the claims were filed with the County Court Clerk and presented to the court for their approval, and were passed by a majority of the court, and allowed and have not as yet been paid. Fourth, touching upon the roads of Nicholas county, of which I am ashamed. As long as we do not agree to spend all of our roads instead of trying to make them highways, we are going to have some of our rural people on roads upon which they cannot get away from home and back again especially if it rains while they are gone.

My intention in the beginning of my administration and now is to cooperate with the court and the taxpayers of Nicholas county and to do the most good possible for all of them.

The intention of this is to enlighten all who might not be acquainted with the facts and place all the blame on the County Judge for not getting various bad roads repaired, for which I have no power.

Sincerely yours,

D. M. Curry

Record Burley Crop Forecast

Observers Say More Plant Beds Sown And More Land Is Prepared For Crop

State officials who watch Kentucky's tobacco yielded and tobacco prospects from year to year are confident that more burley and dark tobacco will be grown in Kentucky in 1937 than in many years.

Last year the state was set for a banner crop, but the drouth came along and cut the yield far below the average. Observers report more plant beds now than last year, and if weather conditions are favorable the largest yield of tobacco in the state's history is anticipated.

In 1935 tobacco production was held down by the restricted acreage to 172,000,000 pounds, but in 1936 the crop was increased to 197,000,000 pounds. However, that was the 1936 crop. The A. A. A. would have held the production down last year, but when the law was declared unconstitutional Kentucky farmers set in to grow all they could.

Despite their preparation, the drouth hit the crop severely and looked as if the yield would be the smallest in the state's history in the middle of July, but to-bacco, essentially a weed, respected the drouth and the corn rains and the production was about 1-3 the 1936 figure.

The same situation prevailed in the dark tobacco area where less than 40,000,000 pounds were produced last year, as compared with 48,000,000 pounds in 1936. Production would have been higher, brought the farmers twice as much as the 1935 crop. The A. A. A. paid the Kentucky farmers $80,56. The yield was $75,946, $79.29 in 1935.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE THIRTIETH SENATORIAL DISTRICT.

I am making formal announcement this week of my candidacy for State Senator from this district. I have been in active politics all my life and have been honored by the people of Nicholas and Robertson counties, who elected me as their Representative and by the people of Bracken, Robertson, Harrison and Nicholas, who later elected me to the State Senate.

I certainly have no intention of boasting when I say that I believe my record in the House and Senate was approved. At the end of my term in both house and senate I am willing to rest my honest conclusions of right in the hands of the people, believing my record will bear inspection.

In announcing for this office, I have no fear of political retribution from any source, neither have I any desire to meddle in matters of local politics in any county. My experience in the House and Senate and my life record of loyalty to the Democratic party warrant me in asking this last honor at the hands of the Democracy of this district.

Your vote and influence will be genuinely appreciated.

Respectfully,

B. F. REYNOLDS

CARD FROM WILL J. CURTIS

In announcing my candidacy for Representative from Nicholas and Robertson, I desire to state that it will be my purpose, as it has always been, to represent in the Legislature—if nominated and elected—the people of Nicholas and Robertson counties in the real meaning of the word. Further that is what a member of the house is sent to Frankfort for—to look out for the welfare of the county or counties that he represents.

Of the State as well. I have tried conscientiously and sincerely to look out for your interests in previous times that you have honored me, and pledge myself to do so in the future.

I believe my experience will stand me in hand, so that I may serve you from the very beginning of the next session.

Kentucky is making amazing progress these days, going forward along all lines and I should like to have a part—even if it be a small one—in the continued advancement of the old Commonwealth. In such spirit I respectfully solicit your vote and influence.

Will J. Curtis

33 Killed When Zeppelin Explodes In New Jersey

The German dirigible Hindenburg, carrying 97 persons aboard, suddenly caught fire and exploded as it was about to land at Lakehurst, N. J., at 6:23 o'clock Thursday night, and 33 persons were killed and more than a score of others seriously injured in the resulting crash.

Concerning the law pertaining to registration and changing party affiliations, Herd stated, "It is my opinion that when a person applies for change of registration the clerk can mark the change, and that the voter need not sign the initial or signature and that the election officers in the primary should allow this voter to vote if he has made the change since the last general election to participate in the primary of a party to which he is registered and affiliated in the last general election.
