Advertise, not your business or profession—but yourself—your personality—your individuality! Every man makes dozens of contacts a day—business and social. In most cases the folks you meet know little about you except your appearance—as they judge by that. Therefore the clothes you wear are the most effective personal advertising you can do. Let these clothes speak for you! Let them help you put your best foot forward, let them make a favorable first impression.

Come in and let us give you some expert help on your advertising campaign.
