HEADQUARTERS

(J. R. Smith, Correspondent)

Classified

FOR SALE

FOR RENT

NOTICES

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE

CARD OF THANKS

FARM SALE

Nicholas Girl Receives Degree At University

Bourbon Woman And Baby Seriously Injured In Accident

TAYLOR'S STORE

Now Is Time To Plan Winter Work In Woods

PIONEER VALOR RECALLED IN CELEBRATION AT BLUE LICKS

John N. Green, Mt. Bellevue, oldest living male descendant of Daniel Boone, left, recalls 1882 celebration with Pine nic Nicholas County.

W. J. Curtis, custodian of the Blue Licks Park Museum left, and Judge James D. Ross, Carlisle members of to original park commission at the Blue Licks Monument.

THE CARLISLE MERCURY

CATALOGUES READY FOR FAIR TO BE HELD HERE SEPT. 15-18 INC.

General Manager Dillon Making Final Arrangements For Event Here

PLAN NOVEL FEATURES

Gas Tax Receipts Gain $1,646,208

CIRCUS TONIGHT TO END ACTIVITIES OF LOCAL PLAYGROUND

Enjoyable Program Planned For Last Play Night At Playgrounds

PROGRAM BEGINS AT 8

Standard Leads Softball League

Wins Two Games During Past Week To Pace Headquarters. All Games Run-wild

71 Farms Have Been Checked

Seventy Enrollees At CCC Camp Seek Work

Silver Pitcher To Be Given For Best Boar

BABY SHOW AT FAIR

Children To Be Examined On September 4

HOME IMPROVEMENT CONTEST OF FUTURE FARMERS NEAR END

Work Of Boys To Be Judged By N. R. Elliott On September 10-11

TWENTY BOYS ENTERED

Swinford To Take Oath Sept. 11

New Federal Judge To Be Inducted At Federal Building At Lexington

Smaller Counties Have Highest Tax Rates

Contract Let For Moorefield Road

Flemingsburg Firm Awarded Contract For Surfacing 2.2 Miles At Cost Of $8,125

State Ends August Pension Check Job

Flemingsburg To Have New Postoffice

R. O. T. C. Unit To Visit Carlisle

Detachment Of Field Artillery From Richmond School To Be Here Sept. 15

Former Nicholas Man Ends Life In Bourbon

ANDREW W. MELLON DIES

Estill Man Killed In Bourbon County

Paralysis Shows Decline In State

Only Four New Cases Reported In Ten Day Period. One Death Last Week

Son Of Bracken Jailer Killed Playing Softball

Buck Brings $121 At Sheep Show

882 Head Of Sheep And Lambs Sold At Special Sale; 500 In Premiums

Little Rock Man Hurt In Collision At Paris

ANNUAL METHODIST CONFERENCE TO OPEN HERE THIS MORNING

Inspirational Meeting Held Last Night. More Than 300 Delegates Here

SESSION ENDS SUNDAY

Field Trials To Be Staged Nov. 13 and 14

Local Boy Enroute To China With The Marines