Quote:

"Yours is the best flock of pullets I have inspected this year and I know I have seen four thousand."

This is what a prominent hatcheryman told Mr. E. T. Caffin, one of our leading poultrymen, when he visited his farm recently.

Mr. Caffin is a consistent user of and with the combination of his knowledge of poultry and the continued use of Tuxedo, why shouldn't he have the best flock of pullets in Kentucky.

Mr. Caffin starts 'em on Tuxedo, he develops them on Tuxedo and he gets the premium eggs with Tuxedo.

Tuxedo Poultry Feeds will do for any good poultryman what it does for Mr. Caffin.

Red Comb Turkey Grower Gives Finish and Flavor

As the turkey becomes a more year 'round bird for the consumer, the plumpness of body conformation, juiciness and flavor of meat, places Red Comb finished birds at the top of the list.

Our stock of Home Grown Rye is about exhausted, but we have plenty of Michigan, clean-reaped Rosen Rye.

Gone with the wind are last year's styles!

A new season has dawned—and the new styles in men's clothes are keeping pace! For fall you'll notice new notes in cut and color; new patterns, too. Take a look at your old suit, compare it with the new styles in our windows and you'll see a difference that words can't explain.

NEW SUITS WITH THE ACCENT ON NEW!
