RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

In memory of Mrs. Willie Kate Hunter, who died on January 3rd, 1938.
Once again death has summoned a member of our Chapter, and the Angel has come to guide to the eternal City has opened with a welcome to home. The work of ministering to the wants of the afflicted, in shedding light into darkened souls and in bringing joy into the places of misery is completed, and as a reward our sister has received the plaudit, "well done," from the Supreme Master.
Therefore, Be It Resolved, that Harrison Chapter No. 258 R. A. M. has lost a true and faithful member, and in testimony of our loss, we tender to the family of our deceased sister our sincere condolence in their deep affliction. May they find comfort in the darkness ahead in thoughts of her many virtues and the fine life she led while here in the flesh.
There are stars that go out in the darkness
But whose silvery light shineth on.
There are roses whose perfume still lingers
When the blossoms are faded and gone."
Resolved, that a copy of this memorial be sent to the family of our deceased sister; that the same be spread upon our Minute Book, and a copy published in the Carlisle Mercury.

Chandler And Johnson Pass Up Barkley Dinner
Federal Judge Elwood Hamilton announced Saturday night Gov. A. B. Chandler and Lieut. Gov. Keen Johnson had declined invitations to attend a dinner in honor of Senator Majority Leader Alben W. Barkley, of Paducah at Louisville Saturday night.
Judge Hamilton said the governor notified him that a previous engagement would prevent acceptance of the invitation to introduce Senator Barkley.
The jurist said the lieutenant governor told him he would not attend because it appeared to him Governor Chandler and Senator Barkley would soon be engaged in a contest for the senate seat now held by Barkley.
Judge Hamilton said Johnson asserted that because of his position as president of the state senate under the Chandler administration he thought it best not to be present.

TOBACCO MARKETS FACING LAST HEAVY SALES THIS WEEK

Drop Of $2.20 In Average Last Week Brings Season Average To $22.14

SELL 242,185,112 POUNDS

Clearing away of burley warehouse floors that have been jammed since Christmas in a growers' rush to beat the 1938 deadline was resumed Monday at Kentucky selling points.

Supplies at most of the state's twenty-one markets are ample for the week's auctions, but after this week the offerings are expected to fall considerably. Crops are back awaiting a price upturn jolted the rush to unload last week and piled up a ten days' sales supply at the markets.

The downward drift in prices carried the state-wide average off $2.20 last week. The season's average, including sales for last week now stands at $22.14 on a sale of 242,185,112 pounds, which have brought the growers payments totaling $53,647,564.

An improvement in prices, the first in two weeks, was registered Friday on sales as a whole in Kentucky. The crop closed at $16.23, up 25 cents as compared with the previous day's price of $16.35. Some grades showed a gain in the advance which was sufficient to offset an 8-cent drop in the ligion and similar losses at several other markets.

Up to January 16, last year, the markets had sold 131,320,990 pounds for $32,143,072, an average of $29.76. In the ensuing week floods loomed sales and finally halted all markets.

Sales in Kentucky on the current crop now are some 11,000,000 pounds in excess of the entire crop for the state for the whole last year, when the total poundage was 232,154,099.

Kentucky markets last year disposed of 168,168,390 pounds.

Although light receipts are in prospect this week, only one market has set a closing date. Mt. Sterling will close Thursday.

Salaries Of Teachers In Nicholas Among Highest

A recent bulletin of the Kentucky Department of Education gives some interesting statistics on schools of the state. In 1935-36 Kentucky spent from all sources for the education of each pupil in average daily attendance in her schools, $39.20. The average expenditure for the United States as a whole was $74.30. Only seven states spent less on their school students than Kentucky.

Thirty-one school districts in Kentucky will receive less than $5 per pupil from local sources for this school year. Only ten counties will receive $25 or more per pupil.

Only ten counties in Kentucky pay their teachers an average salary of more than $80 per month. These counties are Boyd, Fayette, Kenton, Boyd, Union, Harrison, Franklin, Clark, Nicholas and Jessamine. The average monthly salary paid teachers in Nicholas county last year was $88.

Eleven counties in the state pay their teachers less than $65 per month. These counties are Webster, Leslie, Cumberland, Adair, Robertson, Trigg, Owsley, Magoffin, Whitley, Caldwell and Marshall.

Mentally Ill Vets To U. S. Hospital

Patients Will Be Taken From The State Institutions When New Building Finished

All World War veterans in Kentucky state hospitals for the insane will be transferred to the United States Veterans' hospital near Lexington as soon as the $1,000,000 addition is ready for occupancy, Dr. I. E. Trent, manager of the institution, announced Saturday.

Kentucky World War veterans in the state hospitals at Hopkinsville also will be transferred to the Lexington institution, Dr. Trent said. He estimated that approximately fifty eligible veterans were inmates of the Eastern State and Western State hospitals, but added that it will require many months before Kentucky veterans might be quartered in the new $1,000,000 building. The transfers are planned to place the veterans as near their homes as possible, Dr. Trent said.

The new addition, which will more than double the capacity of the Lexington veterans' hospital has been completed and equipment is being installed. It is expected to be ready for use early in February, Dr. Trent said.

Power Program Of TVA Upheld By Federal Court

A three judge federal court at Chattanooga, Tenn., Friday upheld the TVA power program and authority's power program and ordered there was no unlawful competition between the power sold by the TVA.

The court held that there was no conspiracy between the TVA and the power company, association, and other government agency, as the complainants (18 private utility companies) charged, and that there was no unlawful competition between the power sold and electric bond and share companies, operating within 250 miles of TVA dams.

Judge Florence Allen of the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals, Cincinnati, read the decision. Sitting with Judge Allen were two district judges, John D. Martin and John J. Gore, of Tennessee.

Campaign Launched To Free Methodist Debt

A 16-day series of meetings in every section of Kentucky, designed to pave the way for a campaign to liquidate the indebtedness of Kentucky Methodism in one year's time, was announced Tuesday by Dr. Paul S. Powell, president of Kentucky Wesleyan College.

The total indebtedness of the Joint Board of Christian Education of the two conferences, as affects Wesleyan and Lindsey Wilson, stands at $156,123.09, of which $140,913.13 is a mortgage against Wesleyan. The debts have accumulated over a period of years and the college is now living within its income and discontinuing current bills, Dr. Powell said.

Bishop U. V. W. Darlington of Huntington, W. Va., and other executives of the church have stated that the debts must be cleared immediately if Methodist educational efforts in Kentucky are to progress.

The campaign will open Wednesday, Feb. 9, at the Phoenix Hotel in Lexington at a conference with Bishop Darlington. Dr. Powell and all presiding elders of the Kentucky conference will attend.

Dr. Logan Dies After Brief Illness

Native Of Nicholas County Had Practiced Profession In Carter 50 Years

Dr. George R. Logan, 82, a native of Nicholas county, died last Thursday morning at St. Joseph's hospital in Lexington after a week's illness of pneumonia.

Born in the Mt. Morish section of Nicholas county, Dr. Logan taught school in his profession in this county for several years, and about 50 years ago moved to Enterprise, Carter county, where he had since practiced. He was known by hundreds of people in both counties of the state. For more than 45 years he had taken post-graduate work, but he declared in 1929 that a few months ago she had begun to feel the weight of her years.

During his later years and after he had passed the age of 80 he would get up all night at the hospital with a patient. He never thought he needed sleep. One of the sisters of the hospital said that a few months ago she had found him sitting beside the bed of a woman who had been taken down from the mountains. She told him, she said, that a room had been prepared for him, but he declined the use of it, saying that the youth of the woman at the time and after he had made long trips over the mountains to visit the sick and back.

Dr. Logan is survived by his wife, Mrs. Bettie Herndon Logan, also a native of Nicholas county, and Mrs. Carrie Fugate, of Missouri. A nephew, Rolla Logan, of this county, also survives.

The body was brought to the Mathers-Potts Funeral Home in Carlisle and was later taken to the home of G. N. Maxey on West Main street. Funeral services were held at the grave in the Carlisle cemetery Sunday afternoon.

CHANDLER LIKELY TO OPPOSE BARKLEY FOR SENATE NOMINATION

Governor Strongly Intimates He May Run; Barkley Announces

HONORED AT DINNERS

Senator Alben W. Barkley Sunday formally announced his candidacy for re-election for the full term as United States Senator. At the same time he announced that Shakefield Miller, Jr., Louisville, chairman of the Louisville and Jefferson county Democratic executive committee, would be his campaign chairman.

The Senator's formal announcement followed a huge testimonial dinner in his honor Saturday night at which Marvin McIntyre, secretary to President Roosevelt read a letter from the President, and Governor Chandler served during 25 years in the House and Senate. The letter, in effect "was a vigorous endorsement of Barkley," the Senator's announcement said.

The dinner for Senator Barkley at the Gibson hotel was attended by 1,300 political leaders from all sections of the state. Col. P. H. Callahan, of Louisville, arranged the dinner.

On Saturday afternoon, more than 1,000 political leaders from all sections attended a luncheon at the Pendennis Club in Louisville in honor of Governor A. B. Chandler. While the governor primarily had in mind Mr. Wallis in honor of the governor's program for the rehabilitation of Kentucky's welfare institutions, Governor Chandler, in his address, strongly intimated that he would oppose Barkley for the Democratic senatorial nomination this summer.

The Governor told the gathering that his state program is in such shape that it would be continued "regardless of who may be by any chance you people wanted me to represent you in any other capacity it would be made easier by the fact that Lieutenant Governor Keen Johnson would carry on the program."

Blake Asks Probe Of Manufacturers

Local Senator Introduces Resolution Asking Congress To Investigate Firms

Senator S. H. Blake of Carlisle introduced in the Senate Monday a resolution asking Congress to investigate tobacco companies doing business in the state as to why they sharply reduced prices recently.

The same resolution asked Congress to re-enact legislation similar to the old Agricultural Adjustment act, which paid tobacco farmers to receive a fair and reasonable price for their tobacco."

Senator Blake also wants Congress and the secretary of agriculture to take such action as is needed to relieve the "distress" of farmers of Kentucky and adjoining states caused by the recent sharp declines in prices.

Senator Blake's resolution set out prices were fair and reasonable when the market first opened around Dec. 1, 1937, but that when sales were resumed after the Christmas holidays, prices declined sharply. He said no necessity was apparent for the decline.

A second measure designed to help the agricultural interests of the state was introduced in the Senate by O. C. Stanley, Mayo-kins county. Whitfield's bill would provide for Kentucky complying with the uniform warehouse receipts act. Georgia and South Carolina are the only other states that have not adopted such a measure.

The purpose of the bill, Senator Whitfield explained, is to make warehouse receipts issued in the commonwealth readily acceptable by lending agencies operating in other states. Such receipts would be issued by bonded warehouses stored in warehouses for the purpose of using them as security for loans.

Senator Whitfield said the chief advantage of the bill would be to allow Kentucky farmers to obtain loans on their commodities under the provisions of the proposed federal farm bill.

Chandler Reviews State Conditions

At Enthusiastic Luncheon Held At Louisville In His Honor Saturday

The luncheon at the Pendennis Club in Louisville Saturday in honor of Governor A. B. Chandler has been called one of the largest and most enthusiastic meetings of Democrats ever held in Kentucky. More than 1200 party leaders from all section of the state attended the luncheon.

The meeting was arranged by Wallis Wilson, Democratic leader in Louisville. Wallis was asserted in a brief introductory talk that the lunch soon "had no political significance whatsoever."

The Governor devoted the greater part of his talk to a review of the activities of the state prisons and hospitals and outlinde plans for improvements in Kentucky's penal and charitable institutions.

Governor Chandler told of the progress being done at LaGrange, Central and Eddyville prisons, the better care of state prisoners. The new prison at Eddyville, he said, is a women's prison at Pine Bluff are being planned without curtailing the present facilities of the institutions.

Greetings from the general assembly were extended by Johnson and John Kirtley, speaker of the House.

Both the lieutenant governor and Kirtley praised Governor Chandler for his "matchless leadership" and pledged their cooperation in carrying out his program.

Tom R. Underwood, editor of The Lexington Herald, declared the people of the state are "now ready" to the need of adequate care of the "mental and morally sick" and praised the governor for taking rid of the state debt "and putting the state on a cash basis."

A brief review of the state's needs in the way of caring for the mentally sick was given by Dr. William A. Gardner, former superintendent of Lakeland Sanitarium and now president-elect of the State Medical Association.

Governor Chandler in closing asked the people of Kentucky "to join with men in this fight to replace our old inadequate system" and to give the inmates of "our institutions a decent place to live to which they are entitled."

Local Chapter Joins In Campaign To Raise Million Dollars For Sufferers

An appeal for funds to be used for the relief of millions of suffering women, women and children in China was made yesterday by Mrs. Hal Bruce, chairman of the Nicholas county Red Cross chapter, who stated that at the suggestion of President Roosevelt chapters throughout the country were joining in the appeal.

The National Red Cross has already raised one million dollars, thanks to keep millions of Chinese from starving and dying of sickness and injuries caused by the Japanese invasion of the country.

Contributions to this fund must be left at the office of Mr. Ross. An organized collection of funds will not be made, Mr. Ross said, all contributions to be strictly voluntary. Because of the urgent emergency, Mr. Ross asks that contributions be made immediately.

Public Hearing Ordered On Liquor Control Bill

Overruling a decision of a joint alcoholic liquor control committee, the senate Friday ordered public hearings on the pending white liquor and beer control bill.

Representative Rodes K. Myers, of Bowling Green, secretary of the committee, suggested several changes in the proposed liquor bill must be made in writing the bill committee not later than Friday, and no oral hearings would be held. All meetings of the committee, he announced, would be executive.

Representative Tyler Munford of Morganfield, said it would be "an unusual precedent" to exclude the press, and administration floor leader, John Hunnicutt shouted "I object to the way bill and I want to know what's being done to it."
