(FROM OVER THE LAKE)

By J. W. Rogers

We are sorry to hear that Mrs. Adde Allison, Bartlesville, Oklahoma, has been visiting in Carlisle, but glad she is out again, and hope she will be able to visit us some day.

We were glad to greet, on Thursday evening, Mrs. W. H. Ayer, wife and daughter of Moorefield last week. Mrs. Ayer and her family are so far away, we are sorry to hear that she is taking a rest on the coast. This is better to be governed by officials appointed by a select few, than to be governed by a select few of the people.

Who would expect that the spirit of mortal ever leaves the body, and rest the temptation of following the crowd, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Ayer, in a safe direction, and propelled by positive motives.
