I broke the devil while in my mouth and took it to town to get it fixed but I couldn't get my watch until I paid the money for it. The devil said to waste my money for drink and I've resisted it well. It's the patronage to take to Brother Sylvester about his matter. Silas all my sister. When since was ready we went to the eaten many there was no room even at the table I went used to including the plate of ham meat and gravy. We eat hog post at our house we have better meat but Samantha insists on having to look at. Every kids a ham but sells them and don't spend the money for permanent waste. If all the winnin was like Samantha the hams would have to be kloss up. Brother Skybuster will buy high priced hams and pay for the meat and for preechin which makes it hard for the few preachers for the most of our members don't pay nuthin they won't pay unless we git up a ice keerer or guitar show.

SPRING

(Charles D'Orleans 1391-1465, The year has changed his mantle cold
Of wind, or rain, of bitter air;
And he goes clad in cloth of gold,
Of laughing suns and seasons fair;
No bird or beast of wood or wold
But doth with cry or song declare
The year lays down his mantle cold.
All founts, all rivers, seaward rolled,
The pleasant summer livery wear,
With silver studs on broidered vair;
The wold puts off its raiment old,
The year lays down his mantle cold.
