THURSDAY, MAY 19, 1938
To The Graduates.

We extend congratulations to the three thousand young men and young women who tonight will receive their diplomas from the Carlisle High School. We wish you all the best in your future careers.

While commencement time is a joyous occasion, it has more or less become a routine affair. The graduates of the Carlisle High School are to be congratulated for their achievements.

Education is far from a matter of rote learning. It is a process of growth and development. The graduates of Carlisle High School are to be congratulated for their achievements.

With mail week officially on, we wish to extend our congratulations to the graduates of Carlisle High School. We wish you all the best in your future careers.

Officially on census report and tax return, the lady of the house is faced with a host of duties. We wish to extend our congratulations to the graduates of Carlisle High School.

Dispelling The Fog

By Charles Michelson, Director of Publicity, Democratic National Committee.
The date that bested the Republic was not a date that bested the American people.

There is a fog in the air. It is a fog of confusion and uncertainty. We wish to dispel this fog and bring clarity to the American people.
