PUBLIC SALE
OF
DESIRABLE FARM LAND
SATURDAY, SEPT. 24, 1938
At 10 O'Clock A. M.

As agents for the heirs of the estate of Mr. W. J. Hunter, deceased, the Scott-Kendall Sales Company of Carlisle, Ky. will sell on the premises of Tract No. 1 the following real estate:

Tract No. 1—This tract contains 97 acres, more or less, and is situated on Highway No. 68, 1 mile north of Blue Licks. Improvements consist of a 4-room house and outbuildings. Good fencing and plenty of water. This is a splendid location with a strong tobacco soil, all of which can be cultivated.

Tract No. 2—This tract contains 100 acres or more and will be sold subject to survey. It is situated just off the Pleasant Valley Road, 3 miles east of Blue Licks. Improvements consist of a 5-room house, 2 barns and all other necessary outbuildings. Good fencing and never failing water. This is a strong productive soil, all of which can be cultivated. A large portion of this farm is river bottom land and in a good community with excellent neighbors which makes a desirable place to live or to have an investment.

Tract No. 3—This tract contains 29 acres and is situated on Highway No. 68 at Blue Licks opposite the Blue Lick Service Station. Improvements consist of a 3-room house, stable, milkhouse and other outbuildings. We are selling our land interest in this tract subject to the life estate of Mrs. W. J. Hunter, who expires this year.

Immediate possession can be given to Tract No. 1 and 2 subject however to tenants' contracts. Immediate possession will be shown these farms by the agents, or by Mr. Hughes who resides on tract No. 1, or by Mr. Divelly who resides on Tract No. 2.

Terms: 10% of purchase price on day of sale, 25 1/3% when deed is executed, and the remainder in three equal payments due in one and twenty-four months with interest bearing 6% from time of deed until paid.

OF
Two Very Desirable Country Homes
ON THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 29
At 10:30 A. M.

Sale will be held on the premises of Tract No. 1 located 10 miles south of Carlisle on the Licking pike, and one mile off U. S. Highway 68. This sale will give the general public the opportunity to view and bid upon two of the best tracts of farmland in this section of the state.

TRACT NO. 1—Consists of 133 acres of good bluegrass land with a main improvement house, 7-room room house in excellent repair. Also a good level barn one silo. Tobacco barn and numerous other outbuildings. The farm is all in grass with the exception of 10 acres, of that four acres are sown to alfalfa. This farm is the best watered farm in the community and is practically all good tobacco land. This farm has excellent improvements and is more than capable of paying for itself in a short time under ordinary management.

FARM NO 2—Just the thing for the person looking for a smaller farm of the same good productive land of farm No. 1. This farm contains 52 acres and is also well improved. A seven-room house, tobacco barn, potato and other buildings make it very attractive. Only 9 acres are under cultivation the balance being in good bluegrass. Good water and good fence add to the value of this farm.

Oney Curtiss will show either of the above farms.

Man Finds He Ran For Wrong Office

Arkansas City, Kan. (AP)—Harry Jones, who was defeated in Cowley County, Kan., Democratic nomination for clerk of the City Court.

He doesn't wait the job he's seeking.

George won the nomination because he thought he was running for the office. He wanted to be sheriff.

The Democratic County Committee met and named Harry Hall to withdraw and his name that his friends will give him a certain vote for the committee job.

Mr. Fixit Gets Thumb Stuck In Clogged Drain

Lexington, Ky. (AP)—Principal Ben Graves went to Lafayette High School building to fix a clogged drain.

He inserted a plumber's snake in the drain and began working it around.

Suddenly the snake stopped. Graves pulled and pulled, but the snake refused to budge.

Finally he gave a mighty tug. The snake came out, but Graves' thumb remained behind.

Horse Disease In Adjoining States

Louisville, Ky. (AP)—Kentucky horses were quarantined today against glanders, which has been causing casualties in Tennessee and Missouri, according to information which the Horse Protective Association of America sent to the Kentucky College of Agriculture.

The disease is thought to be spread principally by mosquitoes, although direct and indirect biting of sores also probably carry it. Twenty-five to 30 per cent of the afflicted horses have died in states where the disease is prevalent. The chief control to date consists of protecting horses from mosquitoes and flies by keeping them in the barn and spraying the animals and their quarters.

Symptoms of the disease are lameness, shakiness and drowsiness, with the eyes tending to close. The animal also shows inability to control its legs, and stumbles about as though blind. It may try to sit down, carrying most of its weight on the hind legs.

Horse owners are advised to call a veterinarian if those symptoms are observed. Until the veterinarian arrives give the the animal cool, fresh water. Get the horse in shade, in a stall or pen where it cannot hurt itself after it gets down. Feed little grain, but instead green corn stalks, cut fresh at each feeding with the ears removed.

Since paralysis of the throat often follows in 24 to 36 hours, it is important to have the animal

Man Had To Build 'Some Sort Of Town'

Linden, Texas (AP)—The "city that necessity built" soon will celebrate its eighteenth anniversary.

In May, 1852, members of the Texas Legislature glanced at the crude wall map which announced when a colleague pointed out to them that there was no county on the border of Arkansas and Louisiana, without a town.

Forthwith young Tom Foster was sent to the heart of the East Texas pine groves to "build some sort of a town." He cleared a patch in the forest and erected a sawmill, and stacked the logs for construction of a Court House. The town was built around the Court House.

MUSKETEERS DEFEAT GEORGETOWN TEAM BY SCORE OF 25-0

Goins Displays Feat Of Running By Scoring All Four Of Green's Touchdowns

MT. STERLING NEXT FOE

Carlisle high school's Musketeers opened their season last night on their own home field and playing a majority of the time on the Forker night outplayed on the breaks of the game and walked over the Georgetown high school Bulldogs by a score of 25-0.

Goins was the star of the game as he crossed the goal line for all four of the Musketeer touchdowns. Goins, who is the only letter man left from last year's team, showed the fans that he is a triple threat man as he passed, punted and ran with the ball with a 20 yard run also scoring twelve after Stephenson had intercepted a Georgetown pass. Goins also added the extra point after each touchdown.

The Musketeers showed the fans that they will be a hard team to defeat as they completely outplayed the Georgetown team in every department of the game. The Musketeers made 14 first downs to Georgetown's 3. Carlisle completed 5 passes out of 11 attempts for 75 yards while Georgetown completed 1 out of 5 passes for 15 yards. Carlisle also outpunted Georgetown by an average of 10 yards per punt.

Carlisle kicked off to Georgetown to start the game and Georgetown took the ball to their own 40 yard line on a return. On the second play Georgetown threw a pass over the goal line and it was ruled incomplete. Carlisle took the ball on their own 20 yard line and after two plays were stopped the ball went over to Georgetown on downs.

Georgetown in the third quarter fumbled a punt on their own 30 yard line and Carlisle recovered. Goins then made 12 yards around right end. A pass from Shrout to Crawford was good for 20 yards. Goins then made 8 yards through the line. Goins got it over the goal line after which Goins took it over left guard for the final score. The try for extra point was no good.

Starting in the last quarter Georgetown took the ball to the goal line after a series of first down plays through the line for their best gain a sweep around their own right end for 15 yards.

An exhausted Goins punted as it ended the game.

Starting line-up for Carlisle was: Crawford and Kendall, ends; Bradley and Stephenson, tackles; Sweeney and Conley, guards; Vaughn, center; Shrout, Hamm and Stephenson, backfield.

Substitutions for Carlisle were as follows: Butterly, Hamm, Goins, all Crouch, Cox, Stephenson, and Burton, who played only the last few minutes of the game with an injured hand.

Carlisle gained five first downs during the game.

And with this victory under their belt the green team will not be able to sit back and take it easy because Mt. Sterling will be one of the best teams in the county, in the district and in the state. Mt. Sterling defeated Maysville last night at the same hour, 7:30 p. m.

If the local boys are able to do half as well against the Mt. Sterlingites as they did against the Hoffaloes, the whole town can turn out and rejoice, as the coming conflict is probably one of the hardest games they will have, even though it is early in the season.

Blocking, tackling, going down the field under punts and pure and simple fundamentals—mixed with a little aerial practice for a few members who couldn't get their signals straight last Friday—comprises the order of the week according to Coach May because the Musketeers demonstrated obviously against Georgetown that these departments are where they lack the necessary polish.

J. C. Cartmill Is Hurt In Fall

Former Musketeer Center Striken Head In Shower Room Fall; Unconscious Four Hours

J. C. "Chicken" Cartmill, Carlisle former center on the Musketeers, All-State center, and now a member of the Union College squad at Barbourville, was seriously injured last week in a fall in the shower room of his fraternity house at Barbourville, and is confined to the hospital for approximately four weeks.

Until time will tell whether or not Cartmill will be able to finish the team that started Friday night against Georgetown, but it is believed that he will have fractured, although a more detailed examination is necessary.

Cartmill was found unconscious in the shower room of his fraternity house by fellow students and was rushed to the hospital where he remained unconscious for four hours. Physicians were called and worked over the injured boy for that length of time before he regained consciousness.

Cartmill's parents were notified by telephone and left immediately for Barbourville. They arrived at the hospital at noon Monday.

Cartmill was a member of the Musketeer team for three years and was considered one of the best centers in the district. He was also a member of the Union College team last year.

R. L. NORTON'S CAFE IS SWEPT BY BLAZE MONDAY MORNING

Origin Undetermined; Fire Breaks Out In Frame Building In Rear Of Structure

$6,000 DAMAGE IS DONE

Spreading quickly throughout the combustible half of the building, fire which originated from an overheated flue in the kitchen did an estimated $6,000 damage to the restaurant and lunch room owned and operated by R. L. Norton on East Main street Monday morning at 4:30 o'clock.

The fire was discovered by Mrs. Norton and Mrs. Mozart Mullins, who lives in the building directly above the restaurant.

Mrs. Norton, in her nightgown, ran down the stairs and notified the fire department by telephone.

Mrs. Mullins, who was awakened by the smoke, ran to the front door and began pounding on it. Mozart Mullins, who was sleeping in the front room, was awakened and notified his wife that the building was on fire.

Mr. Mullins then ran to the rear of the building and found that the fire had originated in the kitchen.

The fire was discovered by the Norton and Mullins families at 4:30 o'clock and the fire department was notified at 4:35 o'clock.

The fire was under control at 5:30 o'clock.

The flames broke out unexpectedly in the kitchen and spread rapidly to the rear of the store room. Mrs. Norton said that she noticed smoke coming from the flue in the kitchen and that when she opened the door the whole part of the building was in flames. A closed door between the restaurant and the restaurant proper had concealed the fire until it was discovered.

The building was undermined.

At the same time approximately that Mrs. Norton discovered the blaze, employees of the Square Deal grocery next door had noticed it and started out to notify them.

The Carlisle fire department was called and in a few minutes the flames were under control.

Nothing was said as to whether or not the fire was of incendiary origin.

The building and the restaurant equipment was covered by insurance.

Mr. Norton said that he will have their shop as near the farm as possible on Tuesday and Wednesday mornings so as to prevent any killing by the dogs. Last year the association had to pay for several sheep lost through this way and this year they desire to avoid such a repetition.

The program of the five-day affair includes entering and marking derby hounds Monday afternoon; Saturday morning entering and marking all-age hounds. Wednesday afternoon, dinner at National Guard Armory, Wednesday evening first cast of all-age hounds, Thursday morning, horse show at school's playgrounds. Thursday afternoon, continuation of all-age hounds. Friday morning, guinea-egg hunt, Friday afternoon, and finally, third and final cast of all-age hounds. Saturday morning.

Farmers Stock Yards To Hold Baby Beef Show

Directors of the Farmers Stock Yards Co. have announced that they will hold their 1st Baby Beef Sale and Show on the farm on the week of October 3rd and 4th. Entries have been coming in steadily for the past few days and the sale will be staged at the Farmers Stock Yards on Monday and Tuesday, October 3rd and 4th.

The show will be started noticed smoke coming from the roof of the establishment and that when she opened the window the whole part of the building was in flames.

Three liberal premiums higher than those given at the last show, have been awarded as prizes. S. B. Vaughn, in charge of publicity. All farmers of this section are urged to make their entries as quickly as possible.

On the market, veal calves and lambs were reported to be very strong, but cattle was slightly weaker, while the quality of the lambs offered for sale proved to be of fair to pale this year.

Business Club Dinner Date Changed To Monday, Oct. 3

A change in plans for the organizational banquet of the Carlisle Business and Professional Men's Club has been made, it was announced Monday.

Instead of being held Tuesday, October 4th, the dinner will be staged at 6:30 o'clock Monday night, at the Masonic Hall, with the local chapter of the Eastern Star furnishing the supper.

E. H. Kendall, temporary chairman, has announced that definite organization plans of the group will be drawn up at the meeting. Committees on membership, by-laws, and organization already have been appointed and have been working.

To date, an estimated 70 persons have signified their desire to join the club. Dues at present are two dollars which will cover all membership expenses until February 1.

County men interested in joining are asked to contact Mr. Kendall.

Medical Lectures Given At Association Meeting

Two talks on various phases of technical medicine were given at the annual meeting of the Licking Valley Medical Association last Friday in Carlisle.

Approximately 50 representatives of the association, from Campbell, Kenton, Boone, Grant, Pendleton, Harrison, Robertson, Bracken, Mason, Fleming and Nicholas attended.

Dr. Luther Bach, of Bellevue, president of the association, presided. Mrs. Stratton, of Alexandria, president of the Women's Auxiliary, had charge of that group's sessions. Dinner was served at the Feeback hotel.

FOXHUNTING GROUP EXTENDS INVITATION TO NICHOLAS FOLK

Farmers Asked To Confine Sheep On Hunt Days; Many Persons Are Expected

AFFAIR OPENS OCT. 10

Because it was impossible to mail invitations to every person in Nicholas county to attend the annual hunt of the Central Kentucky Foxhunter's Association on October 10-11, officials in charge of the program have asked the Intelligencer to extend through its news columns a cordial invitation to attend to all persons interested in such affairs.

With the date for the first hunt only a little less than two weeks away preparations already are being made to handle a capacity crowd when the Master of Hounds will call the roll Tuesday morning at the Henry brothers farm on the new Concord church, inaugurating the hunting program proper.

Business and professional men of the city and county and various organizations of the section are busy arranging special affairs for the entertainment and accommodation of the numerous prominent sportsmen of the state expected to attend.

Many windows of various merchants are being decorated in honor of the affair and already the street committee is at work on the erection of hunting and other Foxhunter decorations to bring out the theme of the meeting.

According to Robert Elliott, secretary of the association, all farmers of the section where the hunts will be staged are asked to have their sheep as near the barn as possible on Tuesday and Wednesday mornings so as to prevent any killing by the dogs. Last year, the association had to pay for several sheep lost through this way and this year they desire to avoid such a repetition.

The program of the five-day affair includes entering and marking derby hounds Monday afternoon; Saturday morning entering and marking all-age hounds. Wednesday afternoon, dinner at National Guard Armory, Wednesday evening first cast of all-age hounds, Thursday morning, horse show at school's playgrounds. Thursday afternoon, continuation of all-age hounds. Friday morning guinea-egg hunt, Friday afternoon, and finally, third and final cast of all-age hounds. Saturday morning.

Tobacco Men To Vote On Inspection, Grading

More than 35,000 tobacco growers in Kentucky and approximately as many in three other states will vote October 3 to 18, on whether or not they want Government inspection and grading. Announcement of the referendum was announced Monday through the tobacco inspection service of the U. S. Bureau of Agricultural Economics.

Growers in the districts around Springfield, Paris and Maysville will obtain ballots. Ballots issued by ballots will be taken at the sessions around Arlington, Va., Knoxville, Tenn., and Huntington, W. Va.

If two-thirds of the growers voting approve of the plan, it will be carried out. The grower will receive a daily news bulletin informing him of the price for grade each day so that he will know approximately what his grade of tobacco will bring on the market. The news service covers four states.

Growers who do not receive ballots by mail may obtain them from their County Agents. The service is already serving eight markets in the east tobacco section of Western Kentucky. The Louisville service was started two years ago at Bowling Green, Cynthiana, Horse Cave and Mt. Sterling markets. Last year Danville was added.

Farmers needing assistance in voting properly should apply at the County Agent Ralph J. Matson's office where they may also file their ballots, it was stated.

War In Europe Seen For Soon

Many Countries Mobilize Their Armies As Moment Hitler Upsets Peace Plans

So close to actual warfare because of German Chancellor Adolf Hitler's insistence upon war for the Sudeten region of Czechoslovakia that five or six million men stood mobilized in various countries, the world took its course this week to determine whether or not the conflagration would actually start October 1.

Hitler last week gave the Czechs a week to clear out of the disputed regions, and promised, in a midnight, radio-rousing speech Monday that the Sudeten would go to war immediately if the deadline were not complied with.

By Tuesday, as hopes began beating, Englaind, France and Russia developed their plans of participation in the case of his invasion somebody's country would invade also.

Englaind at the "eleventh hour" in getting his premier, Hitler had promised by march Wednesday to meet Chamberlain and be satisfied after that date. The Czechs, however, refused to give in terms, fully mobilized and ready for the fight when it comes.

In a speech Monday before the world Tuesday, England's Prime Minister Chamberlain said he would exhaust every possibility for peace before stooping his efforts, but admitted by Wednesday, he was pretty hopeless in view of Hitler's unreasonable demands.

Growers Form Burley Pool

Three States Join In Effort To Market Surplus Of This Year's Crop

A group of Kentucky, Indiana and West Virginia farmers, faced with a possible surplus of 40,000,000 pounds of burley, met at the Phoenix hotel in Lexington last Saturday and drew up a tentative agreement to market their tobacco cooperatively by months of an association.

The association, it was stated, will handle, store and market the tobacco.

Although a contract was adopted and, an executive committee selected, the participants will not be asked to sign a contract until the charter of the group is drawn up.

Farmers complying with the acreage allotment and who have a little less than two acres or their surplus to the association will receive an advance payment. Those exceeding their acreage and possessing quotas will turn in their surplus, but will not receive an advance payment.

City To Start Drive On Speeding Motorists

A drive to eliminate speeding automobiles from the Carlisle city streets will be inaugurated during the next few days, according to an announcement from City Marshal Malcolm Armstrong.

Marshal Armstrong, on the city council, the rate of speed is only 20 miles per hour in the city, Chief Armstrong said, but at present visitors have, for the last month or so consistently broken the regulation, and the danger of many pedestrians and other motorists.

A motion will be put before the City Council by him, Chief Armstrong said, to secure the services of an extra officer who can take care of speeders in the farther ends of Carlisle, while he is supervising the business district.

Motorists who are equipped with faulty mufflers, or both, will be arrested, also, it was stated on the drive, as will those persons caught passing signal lights or ignoring warning signs at intersections.

Those apprehended, violators are hailed into police court and fined in varying degrees if convicted.

Trophies For Moorefield And Guards Are Received

In the hands of M. C. Shearer, Carlisle softball league president, are the individual trophies for the Moorefield and Guards softball team which won the league championship over the National Guard team.

The trophies for the winners consist of gold-filled miniature softballs, engraved with the words "Champions." For the runners-up, the Guards team, there are silver-plated softballs without the engraving.

The trophies, if accepted by the league, will be distributed soon.

Nicholas Hunters Warned Concerning Season Ending

Nicholas Nimrods this week were warned by the county clerk's office that the squirrel-hunting season closes on September 31, instead of October 31, which is recently enacted law of state legislature.

Many hunters will be confused because on the back of their present hunting permits, it was stated, a printed paragraph states October 31 is the last day of hunting.

Approximately 105 permits were issued this year in Nicholas county by the clerk's office.

HOME IMPROVEMENT CONTEST PREMIUMS GIVEN TO WINNERS

William Hostetler Gets First Prize Of $100 For Making Most Home Improvements

3 OTHERS REWARDED

Four Nicholas county youths, members of the Future Farmers of America, this week will share $172.50 in prize money split four ways as premiums in the F. F. A.'s three annual home improvement contest.

First prize, of $100, goes to William Hostetler, senior in the Carlisle high school, of the Miranda section, second prize of $45 goes to Henry C. Caswell, junior at Carlisle high school, of Elisha section, and fourth prize, of $20 goes to Tom Stephenson, junior at Carlisle high school, of East Union, and Frank Wilson, a sophomore of Carlisle high school, of the Parks section.

Officially the contest was judged and closed last Saturday, but the prizes were awarded Tuesday.

Each of the prize winners was judged on his work around the farm, such as internal and external improvements, building, tree pruning, weed cutting, terracing, new fences, new building and hanging of gates, whitewashing, and other activities that improved the home and farm's appearance considerably.

The contest is staged mainly to teach the participants that a great variety of capital is not necessary to effect improvements on farms, to stimulate his pride in the looks of his land and buildings and to show him that the farmer of the home will concentrate on the physical appearance of his quarters as much as the agricultural end.

Practically every dollar of the $172.50 in prizes money for the improvement was spent in further building.

The first prize was given to the Hostetler youth on the basis of 944 hours of work, which labor was spent in whitewashing two houses, painting a fence, building fencing around the farm home, painting the house with one coat of paint, cleaning up of the yard, sawing ten loads of trash, building six new gates, building an enclosed back porch, erecting forty rods of new fence and repairing forty rods of old fence, setting out ten acres of pasture, repairing the road from the farm into the highway for a quarter of a mile, removing trash and debris to fill the gullies and ravines in a 25-acre field, planting ten acres in corn, painting a tobacco barn and painting a 10 by 12 brooder house, papering one room inside the house and building an enclosed work bench, erecting forty rods of new fence, repairing and painting the farm's front gate and erecting painted Future Farmer signs.
