Burglar Alarm Firm Is Held Up For $250

New York (AP)—The General Burglar Alarm Company is a concern which protects small retail shops from robbery by a wire alarm system. Last week two men held up the company and took $250.

Actors Ordered Ready For Call To Military Duty

Hollywood, (AP)—A Hollywood studio took official notice of Europe's war-like temper.

An authoritative source said the reservists, Basil Rathbone, Don Ameche, Tyrone Power, Melville Cooper and Michael Brooke, the Earl of Warwick, were under 'secret' orders to stand by for a possible call to duty.

Rathbone and Crisp are majors in the Intelligence Service Men. Brooke and Cooper are captains in the reserve.

Batavia, Ohio (UP)—Frank H. Schwape, an 82-year-old farmer, won't let old age interfere with the pleasure he gets out of walking. Recently he walked twenty-four miles to Batavia from his farm near New Richmond, to renew his subscription to newspapers. Schwape ignored offers of a free ride "because "they spoil my walk."

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

By B. MARSHALL BUTTERFIELD, D.D.
Director of The Bible Institute of the Air, Wheaton College, Wheaton, Illinois.

Lesson for October 2

THE ONE TRUE GOD

LESSON TEXT—Exodus 20:1-3; John 4:19-24; I John 4:6.
GOLDEN TEXT—And Jesus said to him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thine heart and with all thy soul and with all thy mind.—Matthew 22:37.

Today we begin a series of studies which should be of unusual value, a consideration of the Ten Commandments in the light of the teachings of Jesus and related New Testament passages. It is appropriate to point out that, far from being outmoded, the Ten Commandments are really the basis of all moral law. They need a diligent re-study and re-emphasis in our day of disregard of moral standards. As interpreted by the Lord Jesus and applied to our daily living, the truth of these commandments should be brought home to every boy and girl and man and woman in our Bible schools.

The lessons begin at the right point, for the first commandment properly deals with our conception of God. What a man thinks about God determines his entire outlook on life. We begin right when we declare that there is but one God.

I. The Truth Stated—There Is One True God (Exod. 20:2, 3).

Jehovah means "I will be what I will be," or "I am that I am" (Exod. 3:14). His very name declares God to be the self-existent, eternal one. How infinitely gracious it is that the one of the "I Ams" in verse 2? He—the great I AM—is my God.

There are many things concerning which we do not speak dogmatically. There are certain Christian doctrines about which spiritual and earnest men may honestly differ, but regarding God we say with absolute assurance and complete equanimousness—there is but one true God. If He is what He claims to be, if God is not to be declared to be a liar, then it is beyond the realm of possibility that there could be any other God. Hear it, ye men and women of America who in an era of Enlightened land age bow down in heathenish worship "before the god of gold, the god of self, the god of wine, the god of success, the god of fame, the goddess of pleasure, the god of licentiousness." The one true God says, "I am Jehovah . . . Thou shalt have no other gods before me."

II. The Truth Explained.

1. God is our Deliverer (Exod. 20:2). He who brought Israel out of the bondage of Egypt is the one and the only one who can deliver men from the bondage of sin. If you think that a sinner is not in bondage read Titus 3:3 and Romans 6:16 and then read the verses following in both passages, which we only see but follow the way of deliverance.

2. God is our Saviour (Isa. 45:22). Again note that "there is none else" who can save. "Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved" (Acts 4:12).

It was this verse that led one of the world's greatest preachers, Charles Haddon Spurgeon, to accept Christ as his Saviour when he was just a humble lad. Perhaps some boy or girl who reads these lines may do likewise, and become a great instrument in God's hand. Teachers, perhaps the Spurgeon of the next generation will be in your class today. Win him for Christ!

3. God is Love (Mark 12:28-34). In I John 4:8 the truth is stated in all its glorious simplicity. "God is love." He not only loves us, and calls on us to love Him, and enables us to love both Him and our neighbor, but He "is love." Love is of the very essence of God's nature. He is the source of all true love. He is love.

It was for this reason that Jesus replied to the question of the scribe as He did, directing the whole life of man into love toward God and his fellow man.

It is worthy of careful note and emphasis in our teaching that the recognition and appreciation of the truth on the part of the scribe brought him near to the Kingdom of God, but not into it. He was "not far from," but he was not in it. It is terrifying to think how close men may come to entering without doing so. Reader, have you entered into eternal life through Jesus Christ?

4. God is our Father (I Cor. 8:4-6). Paul is speaking of the eating of meat offered to idols, and points out that such false gods are really nothing. This is true not only of the idols of wood and stone, but of supernatural beings, demons worshiped by primitive peoples. There are such spirit beings, active even in our day in such cults as spiritism, but they are not divine, not true gods (v. 5).

The true God is a Father, yes "the Father," of whom are all things and we in Him (v. 6). As there is but one God, there is also but one Lord, Jesus Christ through whom the one God has wrought all things, and through whom we have come to God. If we have Christ we have all; if we have not Him we have nothing. Is He your Saviour?

Paducah, Ky. (AP)—Semi-skilled workers applying for jobs on the Tennessee Valley Authority construction project were given an examination which included questions like: "Does a carpenter drive a nail with 1, key; 2, hammer, 3, age or screw, 3, hammer."

A total of 3,816 have been given the examination to date and 1,000 will be given next Saturday.

New England Pair Fail To Recognize Capitol Of U. S.

Washington (AP)—A well-dressed middle-aged couple stepped from an automobile bearing New Hampshire plates.

They stood gazing in admiration at a big white building and then hailed a passerby and asked:

"Pardon me, could you tell us what building that is?"

The passerby stared in astonishment.

"That building"

"Yes, please."

"That is the Capitol of the United States."

Youths Convert Stills Into Ash Tray Project

Raleigh, N. C. (AP)—Four-to-term club members are finding a use for confiscated "moonshine" liquor stills.

During a summer short courses at State College club members were given copper portions of old stills law-enforcement officers had seized.

Today these they fashioned ash trays, match box holders and many other handy articles from the material, inscribing the 4-H emblem on each.

50,000-Acre Game Refuge Is Given State

Washington (AP)—A 50,000-acre tract in Teton and Lyon counties, Idaka, was set aside today as a new different Government safety and game refuge.

The tract, to be known as the Teton Basin Federal Game Refuge, was formed from property in the Kaniksu and Targhee National Forests.

Secretary Ickes ordered the area established to protect Idaho's Rocky Mountain elk herds.

Supervision of the refuge will be by the Bureau of Biological Survey. It will provide sanctuary for deer, waterfowl, small wild turkey and small game.

The petitions in the form of memorials, included one sent to President Andrew Johnson which listed depredations suffered by residents of the territory following Indian raids. They included 128 settlers killed, thirty-two persons wounded, twenty-one persons captured, 3,259 horses, mules and asses stolen, 13,473 head of cattle and cf. 22,730 head of sheep and goats taken.

Mrs. Conway's Cooking Aroma O.K.'d By Law

Chicago, (AP)—The aroma of cooking does not constitute a public nuisance—in the nose of the law, at least.

Judge Francis Borelli has so ruled.

Mrs. May Goodstein brought the charge of maintaining a public nuisance against her next door neighbor, Daniel Conway, whose cooking, she said, offended various vitals on the Conway stove penetrated the Goodstein home.

The Judge did a little personal sniffing between the houses last Sunday. The air was redolent of roasting chicken. His pronouncement:

"The odors of Mrs. Conway's cooking could never be detrimental to health. The defendant is discharged."

"Do's And Don'ts" Given By Game-Fish Group

Frankfort, Ky.—The Division of Game and Fish passes on some "Do's and Don'ts" which pertains to the fishermen.

1. Do wet your hands carefully before handling undersized fish that are to be returned to the water. A dry hand will remove protective covering of lubricant, making the fish susceptible to attacks by bacteria.

2. Do handle undersized fish gently and return them to the water carefully, so they will survive uninjured and provide better sport and more food for some other angler—even if it isn't you.

3. Do use barbless hooks whenever you can. Such hooks provide better sport and make it possible to return undersized fish to the water with their mouths uninjured.

4. Do observe creel and size limits.

5. Do watch your footing while wading. Even the best of swimmers are sometimes at a loss when hampered by heavy boots and clothing in swift streams.

6. Do study fishing streams and their improvements.

7. Do take a militant part in the fight against pollution.

8. Do cooperate with your local game and fish club in every way possible.

9. Don't venture into the woods without a first aid kit and a knowledge of first aid in the outdoors.

10. Don't be careless with fire or cigarettes. More than 90 per cent of all forest fires in the United States are man-caused and therefore, preventable.

HEALTH NOTES

ABOUT TUBERCULOSIS

1. Tuberculosis is not inherited. It is caused by a tiny germ. The germ is passed from the sick to the well, through ignorance, carelessness or indifference.

2. Tuberculosis is preventable. No one need have tuberculosis. Cleanliness, health habits, good food and right living will help prevent tuberculosis.

3. Tuberculosis is curable. When found in the early stages before the damage is done, recoveries from tuberculosis can be cured.

4. There is no drug cure for tuberculosis. Rest, good food, fresh air and expert guidance are the only reliable aids in the cure of tuberculosis. They assist nature in overcoming the disease.

5. Since 1911 82,234 Kentuckians have died from tuberculosis. 301 of these have come from Nicholas county. For more than fifty years we have known how to prevent and how to cure it but tuberculosis is still the leading cause of death in the active period of life.
