BALD HILL

Bald Hill has been very busy stripping tobacco the past few weeks, so there has not been much to write about, there having been no births, deaths, wedding, and the health of the community as usual. Little Frank Guthrie has had a case of scarlet fever, but has recovered, being rather unusual that no one else in the community has had it; nor has contracted it from him.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Nixon, of Carlisle, were in the community Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Nixon visiting her old home site, she having lived many years in her girlhood in this place.

G. T. Sellers and family had Mr. Cavanaugh and son and other hunting guests from Louisville the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jennings entertained at dinner Sunday at their mindistant, Robert Shuler, of Piqua.

The subject for discussion at the Church of Christ next Sunday will be "The Brief On The Cross," discussed by Leslie McVey.

We regret to hear of the sudden and unexpected decease of Amos Stamper, and express our sympathy to the many relatives and friends of this man who was once a resident of this community for many years, and who had many friends here.

EAST UNION

Mrs. Wylie, our music teacher, had charge of the musical program and played several selections on the violin. Mrs. Taylor accompanied her on the piano at the Thanksgiving program at the school on November 29th. Miss Frances Vice was beautifully dressed as a Quaker maiden and the Carlisle girls were all dressed in white. Many patrons and visitors were present. Rev. Taylor sang a Thanksgiving song and after the program all marched in a body out to the church where Mrs. Gilbert Terrell was presented with many useful gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. K. B. Trimble and daughter were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Sexton and daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Thomas and daughter were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Rogers and family Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dock Downing and daughters were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Barr and son.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest McCarty and family were called to Bourbon county Saturday by the death of Mrs. Charles McCarty. All have sympathy of the community in their bereavement.

Miss Genevieve Petitt visited Mrs. Russell Barr Saturday.

We were very proud of the showing our 4-H club boys made at the tobacco show held in Carlisle Saturday. Cleveland Curran won the blue ribbon and $5.00 for the best. Others that won were: Dessie Ray Curran, $3.50; Pauline Bussell, $3; Billy Owings, $1.50; Bronson McCarty, $1.50 and Billy Curran $1. The club had seven entries and won 6 prizes.

The sewing class met Tuesday. They are making on the second garment. Mrs. Agnes Newell is assisting Mrs. Brayfield with the sewing project. This is wonderful training for boys and girls and others should take advantage of this special training.

A program is under way for our Christmas entertainment. A Christmas pageant will be presented and Christmas carols directed by Mrs. Wylie. The special music rendered by Bro Taylor and Mrs. Taylor on the violin solo by Mrs. Wiley and vocal duet by Mrs. Curran.

A Christmas Snowstorm

By Sarah Jane Clark

THREE hours late, the snowbound train reached Cedar Bluff. Mary Lou gathered her baggage together and took the bus across to the other station, to find her connecting train had left on schedule. She looked at her watch in time to meet the train unless she could head them off.

Her message put through, Mary Lou sank down on one of the benches to collect her thoughts and make her plans until time. Five o'clock, and no train until 9:30 the next morning.

"Going out soon?" a cheery voice near her asked. She looked up to find the chief usher standing beside her. A middle-aged, friendly looking fellow. Mary Lou told him of her missed connections.

"Here, Eddie, look at this!" a red cap interrupted her story. He was holding a three-year-old, curly haired dear little girl with big blue eyes and yellow curls.

"What are you doing with the kid? Is she lost?" Eddie asked sharply, turning away from Mary Lou.

"Might as well be. She came in from Denver, in charge of the stewardess. They missed the train north, and the stewardess is celebrating Christmas by having her appendix out in a hospital near here. They told me to turn the kid over to you," the boy grinned as he handed her over to Eddie.

Eddie took her clumsily. "See if you can get anything out of her. I'll do with a kid like this!" He looked appealingly at Mary Lou.

Mary Lou's eyes filled with tears. Then she held out her arms to hold the youngster. "What's your name, dearie?" she asked.

"Annette Pollard. I am three years old and I am going from Cheyenne to Rio, Wisconsin, to my grandma Pollard. My daddy is there." It was very much to our Thanksgiving program.

Mary Lou held her close. "I had a little girl almost as old as Annette

Mary Lou heard the voice of Annette's daddy

when she died," she said brokenly to Eddie. "Let me keep the child for the night and take her to her aunt. I missed the same train she did."

Eddie looked at her, then at the boy. He saw at once that Annette's daddy was a big doll back for the child's Christmas.

"We'll let Annette say hello to Daddy herself, if she wants to," Mary Lou exclaimed. And so it was done. Mary Lou took the voice of Annette's father, tense with worry, and then joyful as he realized where Annette was and that she had only a terrible over the phone. "Her mother's parents have gone to Rio to have Christmas with me. Her mother died two years ago," he added.

The sun was shining dazzlingly bright the next morning when the train stopped at Rio. The red-haired man who was pacing expectantly on the platform had only time to thank Mary Lou, and get her address, before the train pulled out leaving him holding Annette as she ran excitedly to Mary Lou.

But the trip home was much easier. Mary Lou, the burning pain at the loss of her own little daughter's Christmas forgotten over her own husband's death, as she remembered the soft kiss of the baby lips of the motherless child she had been in her charge the night before. And the look in the face of Annette's daddy made her sure she would see Annette soon.

DEATHS

Mr. Nicholas H. Rankin, 80, died at 3 o'clock Tuesday morning at his home in Millersburg following a long illness.

Mr. Rankin was a native of Nicholas county, the son of the late James and Tabitha Simms Rankin. He is survived by five daughters, Mrs. H. T. Murray, Mrs. Charlie Parker, Mrs. R. J. Nixon and Mrs. George Gaunce, Jr., of Carlisle, and Mrs. Jennie Rankin, of Millersburg; five sons, Floyd, James A., Ora A., William H. and Ira C. Rankin, all of Paris, and one sister, Mrs. R. L. Curtis, of Carlisle.

Funeral services will be held at the home in Millersburg at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Fred Hunter, pastor of the Paris Baptist church, and Rev. A. A. Arnsparger, pastor of the Millersburg Christian church. Burial will follow in the Millersburg cemetery.

KERNS

Mr. Allie F. Kerns, 83, died at noon Monday at his home on Main street following a long illness.

Mr. Kerns was a native of Nicholas county, the son of James and Margaret K. Kerns. Mr. Kerns had been in poor health for several years. He was an extensive livestock dealer and farmer and was one of the best known men in the county. He was a member of the Christian church.

Mr. Kerns is survived by his wife, Mrs. Carrie Ramm Kerns; six children, Mrs. Robert Alexander, of the county; Mrs. James Hammonds, Carlisle; Stanley W. Kerns, Sterling; Mrs. R. T. Knueffer, Milwaukee, Wis; Sterling R. Kerns, Canton, Ohio, and Raymond Kerns, Carlisle; four grandchildren, three brothers, V. P. Kerns, Walton; W. G. Kerns, Cincinnati, and Sam D. Kerns, Mt. Sterling, and one sister, Mrs. Lula B. Slosps, Lexington.

Funeral services were held at the home Wednesday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Estal Taylor, and burial followed in the family lot in the Carlisle cemetery.

HERD

Mrs. Margie Crouch Reed, 64, wife of Mr. Henry Reed, of Carlisle, died at noon Saturday in St. Joseph's hospital in Lexington, where she had been a patient for two weeks. She had been ill at her home for several weeks.

Several days before her death Mrs. Reed underwent the new "hibernation" treatment for cancer. Suffering from an advanced form of the disease, Mrs. Reed voluntarily submitted to the treatment on the chance that it might lessen the pain and possibly prolong her life. No hope was held for her at the time by attending physicians. She was the first patient ever given the treatment in the Lexington hospital.

She was the daughter of the late Thomas and Mariah Templin Crouch and spent her entire life in this county. She was a lifelong member of the Carlisle Christian church.

Mrs. Reed is survived by her husband; three daughters, Mrs. Fisher Henry, Lexington; Miss Mabel Reed, teacher in the Millsburg, Tenn., public schools, and Mrs. Glenn Roberts, of Dayton, Ky.; a grandson, Glenn Roberts, Jr.; a half-sister, Mrs. N. F. Potts, of Lexington, and a half-brother, Thomas J. Crouch, of Sharpsburg.

Funeral services were held at the home Monday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Estal Taylor, and burial followed in the Carlisle cemetery.

STAMPER

Mr. Amos W. Stamper, 65, died suddenly of a heart attack at his home on Broadway about 5:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Mr. Stamper had spent the day at his farm in the county. When he returned to his home a short time before his death he ate supper and complain of being ill. He had gone into the bath room when his wife heard him fall and found him slumped on the floor. He was dead when they came to the house.

The son of the late John and Rachel Mann Stamper, Mr. stamper had spent all of his life in this county except two years when he lived in Fayette county. He was a life-long member of the Christian church and was a member of the Dougherty Lodge No. 65, F. & A. M.

He served one term as Representative in the Legislature from Nicholas and Robrtson counties and four years as Deputy Sheriff.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Edna Thompson Stamper; one son, Vernon Stamper, of Lexington; a grandson, Lawrence Stamper, of Lexington; four brothers, James L. Stamper, Carlisle; Oney Stamper, of California; Rev. A. L. Stamper, of Springport, Ind., and D. M. Stamper, of Greensburg, Ind., and one sister, Mrs. Ella Cannon, of Carlisle.

Funeral services were held at the home Tuesday morning, conducted by Rev. Estal Taylor, and burial followed in the Paris cemetery.

There has never been a time so many people are telling us "how good" is

White Rose Flour

We do not understand this sudden wave of popularity. We know White Rose has always been good. It is more uniform, has more flavor and better baking qualities than any flour we know. We believe more people are beginning to realize this, they are talking about it, the good news spreads, and finally gets back to us.

Well, we certainly appreciate it, and will go right on making White Rose just as good as ever.

"GOD BLESS US EVERY ONE"

(James Whitcomb Riley)

"God bless us every one!" prayed Tiny Tim,

crippled, and dwarfed of body, yet so tall

Of soul, we tiptoe earth to look on him.

High towering over all.

He loved the loveless world, nor yearned indeed,

That it, at best, could give to him,

But pitying glances, when his only need

Was but a cheery smile,

And thus he prayed, "God bless us every one!"

And straightway all the creeds within the span

Of his child-heart; and so, despising none,

Was nearer saint than man.

I like to fancy God, in Paradise,

Lifting a finger over the rhythmic swing

Of chiming harp and song, with eager eyes

Turned earthward, listening—

The Anthem stilled—the angels leaning there

Above the golden walls—the morning stars

Of Christmas bursting flower-like in prayer,

"God bless us Every One!"
