The K. P. A. Meeting.

Attending the mid-winter meeting of the Kentucky Press Association at the Brown Hotel in Louisville...

Dr. W. H. Martin.

Twice within the past month the name of Dr. W. H. Martin has been mentioned in the columns of this paper...

Rights And Duties.

There is a right to freedom of speech, but there is also a duty to exercise that right responsibly...

Smile, Ladies, Smile!

A New York public opinion poll has shown that the majority of women who refrain from smoking...

Leaf Growers Give Up
Hope For New Referenda

At Washington last week a group of leaf growers, who have been fighting for years for a referendum on the subject...

Tail End of Winter.

Every day the climate here reminds us of the tail end of winter. The North wind blows and the thermometer shows...

"In Kentucky."

It brings innumerable pleasant recollections to mind when I think of the many happy gatherings we have had...

GENS FOR YOUR SCRAPBOOK.

Power acquired by gulf has been used by the state to control the power industry...

For some, of course, Fate is unkindly at her best.

Discipline.

This seems to be almost a universal experience that there are thousands of people who are not disciplined...

Boy Scouts Anniversary.

The Scouts are celebrating their anniversary with a message that "Scoutism is the best of all things for the young man..."

According to James H. Clifton, in his book, "The Shambles," the first state of Kentucky was organized in 1776...
