Ohioan May Be Selected As U. S. District Judge

Although Senators Barkley and Logan have recommended the appointment of Federal Judge H. Church Ford to fill the vacancy on the Sixth District U. S. Court of Appeals bench, well-informed persons said the appointment would probably go to a resident of Ohio. The Sixth district is composed of Michigan, Ohio, Kentucky and Tennessee.

28 Cities Reject PWA Power Projects

PWA proffers of grants and loans to municipalities for electric light and power projects have been turned down by not less than 28 cities, large and small, during 1938, according to currently published reports. Rejections in some cases was by City Council and in others by referendum vote on the question of approving bond issues. Many other PWA "allocations" of funds for power projects in this category are on a sidetrack awaiting municipal action or the outcome of purchase negotiations between the municipalities and the private utility companies now serving them.

Some Christmas Seals Still Unaccounted For

There are still some Christmas seals unaccounted for. We know that they were probably mislaid and forgotten in the rush of Christmas. Before we can complete our report, however, we must account for every seal mailed out. Those who can make a contribution for anti-tuberculosis work are urged to do so at once. Those who can not afford to keep their seals are asked to help the committee complete its work by returning at once the seals sent them.

The response to the seal sale has been very gratifying.

Retail Sales Drop 12 Per Cent In 1938

The Commerce Department reported Monday retail sales dropped about 12 per cent in 1938.

Sales, based on primary estimates, totaled $55,000,000,000 in 1938 compared with $29,000,000,000 in 1937.

The year 1938 was the first since 1933 in which total dollar volume fell under the previous year's level. During the intervening five years there was a continuous expansion from the depression low of $25,000,000,000 in 1933 to $29,000,000,000 in 1937. Sales were higher in 1937 than at any time since 1929 and were within 5 per cent of the 1929 total of $59,000,000,000.

The report said actual quantity of goods sold in 1938 more closely approximated the 1937 level than did the dollar sales this, it explained, was because the general retail price level for the year averaged below that of 1937.

Sleeping Sickness Attacks Horses In Kentucky

The sleeping sickness disease of horses has reached Kentucky, Dr. W. W. Dimock, head of the department of animal pathology at the Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station, announced last week. Dimock said tests of blood samples prove that died in Central Kentucky several weeks ago have the disease. Reports of deaths of horses from sleeping sickness have been received last year from Western Kentucky, but the presence of the virus was not established by laboratory tests.

Sleeping sickness among horses has been reported in thirty-seven states, including states bordering Kentucky, and about 10,000 horses have had the disease last year, according to the United States Department of Agriculture.

State's Tax Burden Is $294 Per Family

Taxes paid by Kentucky residents have reached a point where they now are equal to $294.32 annually for every family in the state, the National Consumers Tax Commission states in a survey report.

"Local, state and national governments drain more than $129,000,000 per year in taxes from Kentucky residents," according to the report, made public through Mrs. E. H. Heller, of Louisville, the commission's Kentucky national committee member. This total leads the drive in this state with Mrs. J. E. Warren, of Mayfield, state director for the NCTC.

"Most families, paying fees or direct levies, feel tax free," it said. "Actually, consumers carry most of the tax load. They contribute 63 per cent of all local, state and national revenues through hidden taxes that boost the price of everything they buy."

Annual Summary of Kentucky Crops Given

The annual summary of acreage and production of crops in Kentucky in 1938, by the U. S. Agricultural Economics, says, reports a larger production of hay, lespedeza seed, barley, buckwheat, soy beans, Irish potatoes compared to 1938 and tons in 1937.

Postal Service Had Deficit For Year

The United States Postal Service showed a deficit of $43,811,756.00 for the fiscal year, according to a report submitted by Postmaster-General James A. Farley. The deficit was $2,000,000 more than the $41,811,756 dollars if it had not been for the expense of its free services.

The report estimated that it would cost $1,000,000 to provide free air transportation government officials. Mr. Farley recommended that the Post Office Department be established that the annual deficit of the service.

Reports of deaths of horses from sleeping sickness have been received last year from Western Kentucky, but the presence of the virus was not established by laboratory tests.

1939 Will Be Another Big Election Year

Scarcely have Kentuckians recovered from the strain of one campaign until they are faced with another.

The Democratic gubernatorial primary will be followed by a spirited rival and may surpass in intensive-ness and bitterness the Chandler-Barkley campaign of last summer.

In addition to the Governor and Senator, Congressmen, a Circuit Judge and Commonwealth's Attorney will be elected in the Fifteenth Judicial district, a representative from the Nicholas-Harrison district will be chosen, and a Circuit Court Clerk will be elected in every county. As this is Nicholas county's year to furnish the Democratic nominee, practical interest in this race will doubtless center in this county.

Democratic party primaries are expected to be quiet as usual, with the Democrats furnishing all of the "fireworks."

Farm Income Is Down Eleven Per Cent In 1938

With the close of 1938 came two realizations with respect to the farm problems, first, a further strengthening of the community of interest between agriculture and industry, and second, that no experiment yet tried to help the farmer has been entirely successful. Nevertheless, the Bureau of Agricultural Economics has estimated that cash farm income in 1938 reached a total of $7,000,000,000, only 11 per cent under that of 1937. In spite of large surpluses, agriculture fared no worse than industry.

Surplus problems this year are largely confined to wheat, cotton, corn and some small crops. The livestock cycle is on an upturn, but the supply is still small and prices satisfactory. Dairy products continued on an even keel throughout 1938, and demand for eggs was well maintained despite smaller consumer incomes.

Continued control of prices, acreage restrictions, and land conservation practices, with variations of recent procedure will undoubtedly continue for several years. The reciprocal trade agreements are designed in part to relieve the pressure on the farmer and they have had a measure of success but the avenue of export trade will remain narrow and tortuous as long as the world is unsettled as at present. Economic self-sufficiency is still the watchword of practically every nation even at the cost of a lower standard of living.

Successful Hunting Season In State Closed Monday

One of the most successful quail and rabbit hunting seasons in Kentucky history is reported by reports received by the Division of Game and Fish. Reports are coming in from every section of the state, and come to a close on January 9.

The quail season was closed on November 21, which, the division says, has been a good thing. Every person who was able to find any quail during the season had to take to the fields at every opportunity to do so, the division says. Mother Nature stepped in and blanketed the fields and forests with snow during the latter part of January, the majority of hunters indoors. As a result the quail population is large and rabbits were spared.

Major Arthur Dunn, Director of the Division of Game and Fish, announced plans are being made to liberate 1,000 quail in each of twenty thousand Bob White Quail Refuges proposed by the Division in Kentucky during the spring months. With the protection throughout the summer months, Major Dunn said, these refuges should be even better next season than in 1938, and 1939 was one.

The hunters cooperated with the farmers and landowners and obeyed the request for a greater effort than has been done in the past and this cooperation and assistance has helped to conserve the quail and rabbits, as well as bringing a better feeling between the sportsmen and the farmers.

The division will appreciate any confidential report of game violations during the open season on January 9.

$150,000 Additional Sought For Harrison REA Project

The Rural Electrification Administration has given preliminary approval to the application of the Harrison County Rural Electric Cooperative Corporation, Cynthiana, Kentucky, for an additional loan of $150,000 to build 176 miles of line to serve 650 farms in Harrison, Nicholas, Bourbon, Scott and Nicholas counties, and has outlined steps which must be taken and completed before an allotment of funds can be made.

The loan application covered 161 miles to serve 758 members, of which $10,000 already allotted $201,500 for this project.

It will be necessary for the project to secure a certain number of signed applications for members-hip in the cooperative as well as applications for electrical service from 51 per cent of the farmers in the proposed extension.

The same retail rate which has already been suggested for the first section of the project would probably apply on this new section. Under this rate, residential consumers would pay a minimum bill of $2.75 a month, for which they may receive 40 k.w.h. enough electricity to light the average home adequately and operate several appliances such as a washing machine, iron, radio, and a water pump and $5.00 would pay for 100 kwh, enough for all these and one major appliance such as a refrigerator.

Speed in the development of this project depends in large measure upon a continuance of the community organization which is principally responsible for the success of the project so far. If the information about this pro-

Almost Thirty Million Dollars Paid Growers During Season. Most Crops Sold

SEASON AGERAGE $20.61

Reports from warehousemen Saturday indicated the closing of the Lexington tobacco market about February 1, with most of the other markets closing before that time.

Almost thirty million dollars has been distributed to Central Kentucky tobacco growers by the ten leading loose leaf sales markets in Central Kentucky since the opening of the auction season in November, according to figures compiled Saturday by the Lexington Herald Leader.

Statistics from the ten markets showed Saturday that 114,801,528 pounds of burley had been sold for $29,819,033.34, an average of $20.61 per hundred pounds, according to the Lexington newspaper. During the past week a total of 31,971,419 pounds was sold for $6,849,158.09, an average of $20.21.

The Lexington market continued to lead in the sale of burley, a total of 23,111 Paris ranked second with an average of $21.86 for the week and Cynthiana was third with an average of $21.10.

Receipts fell off at all of the markets during the week and reduced sales to the point where the remainder of the selling season will be brief.

The total amount sold and average for each market for the season follows:

Market	Pounds	Avg.
Lexington	58,569	$21.81

Logan Asks New Federal Court District For State

Kentucky's Congressional delegation last week faced its first controversy of the 76th Congress over a bill introduced by Senator M. M. Logan to divide the state to create a new federal judicial district in Kentucky.

The proposed district, to be known as the middle district, would be composed of eighteen counties now in the Western district and fifteen now in the Eastern district. Several Western Kentucky Congressmen opposed the create district for their section of the state and they would not support the bill.

Under the bill of Senator Logan, Nicholas would remain in the Eastern district.

Unemployed Benefits Not Charity Barnes Declares

Although 11,032 applications for benefits were accepted by the State Unemployment Commission in its first week, some Kentucky jobless would be disappointed in making application because they consider the benefits received charity, according to Director V. R. Barnes.

"Unemployment insurance is not charity or relief, but just what the name implies," he said. "Part of the money in the insurance fund is paid by the workers and their employers and any person entitled to receive compensation should feel no hesitancy in filing a claim for it. The fund was created to pay benefits to persons when they become unemployed through no fault of their own."

Cities, Counties Must Live Within Income

Counties, cities and other subdivisions of Kentucky must in the future live within their income and may not issue obligations except that can be converted into bonded obligations, without a vote of the people, the court of appeals ruled Tuesday.

In a history-making opinion, the high court set aside as "erroneous" its former divided court opinions upholding debt making practice that had grown up in the state. This time there was no division in the court, the opinion rendered being by the whole court with no dissent.

Charity Game On Schedule Saturday

Louisville Girls Team To Engage Musketeers For Benefit Of Paralysis Fund

"The Twenty Grand Girls," Louisville basket ball team, who will play the Carlisle high school boys in a charity game here Saturday night, have averaged 39.230 stock, have not lost a game in 1938, and have defeated one of the Indianapolis R. C. A. sensations by a score of 21 to 16. They have scored 213 points to their opponents' 127.

The team is usually attired in white satin shirts, orange shorts, orange stockings and white leather shoes.

Proceeds from the game Saturday night will go to "mile at a dime" campaign to help stamp out the nation to fight infantile paralysis.

In admission of 50 cents for adults will be charged at the high school gate, and 25 cents for children.

Hilman Bye, chairman, has placed buttons in the various business houses which will be sold to raise funds for the infantile paralysis fund. These buttons are 10 cents each.

The benefit basket ball game here Saturday night will take the place of a President's Birthday Ball, which is held in a number of communities.

Cow Stolen In Menifee County Sold Local Man

A few hours after Keller Hughes had purchased a cow from a man by the name of Jones, he was arrested and driving a truck with Ohio license plates Tuesday morning. The cow was identified by Hughes and arrested in Carlisle and identified by Jones, who was held in the county Monday night.

Hughes made a search for the cow Tuesday morning after Jones reported that the cow had been stolen. Supposing that the thief would come to Carlisle because of stock sales here, Hughes went in search of the animal.

Formerly Mr. Hughes obtained the license number of the truck driven by Jones, and when the owner, the license having been traced, is a resident of Germantown, Ohio.

Carlisle Defeats Stanford With Two Regulars Out

Playing without the services of two regulars, Crouch and Conley, who were ill, the Carlisle high school Musketeers last Friday night swamped Stanford high school 23 to 9. After jumping to a 6-0 lead in the first quarter, the local team was never threatened. Goins and Lynam, with six points each, were high scorers.

In a preliminary game, the Boxing Independents defeated the local National Guard team 35 to 28.

The Musketeers have won their last two Central Kentucky Conference games, and have a chance to win in their first games with Conference teams.

Harrison Tobacco Growers Urge Changes In AAA Laws

Harrison county tobacco growers, meeting at the court house in Cynthiana Saturday afternoon, adopted resolutions asking for the repeal of that section of the AAA and urging the formation of Central Kentucky of an association to look after the affairs of burley growers in Washington.

Frank Duffy, J. E. Terry and Albert Camden named on a committee to confer with growers in other counties in an effort to form an association of growers which would maintain a representative in Washington as well as an office in the burley area.

Arthur "Doc" Barker, 40, gang leader, lost his life when he attempted to escape from Alcatraz Friday with five other convicts. All were captured.

ELECTRIC SERVICE PROMISED PART OF COUNTY BY APRIL 1

Harrison County Cooperative Expects Service Soon For Headquarters

SERVE MANY SECTIONS

With 126 consumers already under contract, the Harrison County Rural Electrification Project plans to serve a large section of Nicholas county, extending from the Harrison county line on the west to Hinkston bridge on the eastern boundary of the county.

Communities which will be served by the Harrison REA include Hookstown, Sellersburg, Harrisville, Rose Hill, Headquarters, Maysville and Lexington road, Mills-Judy, Lower Jacksotown road, Wyoming, Hinkston Bridge and Hinkston Ridge. It is probable that sufficient contracts will be obtained to permit construction of lines and service in the East Union and other sections.

Following failure of a sufficient number of farmers in Harrison county to sign applications, the project was divided, one part to be served by the Harrison county group and the other part by the Fleming county group.

A representative of the Harrison Cooperative, now in the office of County Agent R. J. Matthews Saturday, said it was planned to have some of the lines in this section completed and energized by April.

Farmers interested in obtaining service may secure full information at the County Agent's office.

House Reduces WPA Allotment

$150,000,000 Slash Made In The Amount Asked By President Roosevelt

The House, rebelling against President Roosevelt's spending policies, passed Friday night a $725,000,000 emergency relief appropriation—$150,000,000 less than requested by the Chief Executive.

Speaker Bankhead announced that the vote was 200 to 186.

Republicans, their ranks augmented by the November election, voted with conservative Democrats in the coalition that rejected the full amount. Before the final vote was taken, however, the slash was 226 to 132.

The chamber inserted restrictions designed to eliminate politics from relief and, contrary to the wishes of the administration, it adopted an amendment to limit WPA pay rates to what private work should not vary by more than 30 per cent throughout the country. Southern Democrats were solidly behind the amendment.

The day's development brought a flood of criticism of the relief bill. Democratic and Republican members of the House and Senate alike declared that the bill would see the emergency appropriations of conservatives of both parties sufficient reason to talk the President on many points of his program.

The issue of appropriating $725,000,000 instead of $575,000,000 as presented under parliamentary circumstances which prevented a roll call vote on the size of the appropriation.
