

IMPROVED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Lesson for January 22. Peter denies his Lord. Luke 22:54-62.

One of the most heartbreaking experiences we have as Christians is to find that one in whom we have had every confidence as a true and faithful follower of the Lord, has denied Him by going out into the world and telling others that those who, like Peter, have had the highest and most beautiful love for the Lord, and who speak with the greatest ease about His love and grace, turn to the most reprehensible of men.

Let any unbeliever who reads this begin to think over the failure of Christians. Let him be reminded now of his own, which needs his attention, and of the fact that though Peter fell, he arose victorious, and was again a true and faithful follower of the Lord. It is not too late for any of us to do this. Let us not be like Peter, who had the highest and most beautiful love for the Lord, and who spoke with the greatest ease about His love and grace, turn to the most reprehensible of men.
