What He Says "Went"

This man remembers the day when business was easy. All he had to do was to set up shop and wait for the customers to come in.

Business men of today know that the Business men of today know that the thing that makes business "go"..... is hard salesmanship combined with customer-service, They go out for new business. They see that their printed solicitations are high class. They come in and order their print-ing from our pur-fo-date, reliable printing from our up-to-date, reliable print-ers. They phone 98 for information.
