VOICE OF CONSCIENCE

THE GARDEN

PLANNING IT

By John S. Gardner, Kentucky Agriculturist

Besides the items that are planned, there remains still the cultivating, irrigation, and weeding. It is well to have a plan for the garden, not only to make sure it is well planned, but also to make sure it is well executed. The plan should be made in the winter, when the soil is still in the garden. The plan should be made in the winter, when the soil is still in the garden. Influenza Reported On Increase In Kentucky

The State Health Department has reported an increase in influenza cases in Kentucky. The report is based on a survey of 100 cases in the state. The cases are reported to be more severe than in previous years. The health department is urging the public to take precautions against the disease. These include washing hands frequently, avoiding crowded places, and staying away from sick people. The health department is also distributing pamphlets on the subject of influenza.

NO SLATE FOR JOHNSON

It is believed that Johnson will not be on the slate for the next election. This is because of his record in office. He is reported to have been unpopular with the voters. He is also reported to have been in poor health. He is expected to retire from public life in the near future.
