FROM OVER THE LINE

(By J. W. Rogers)

The nation has spoken and Roosevelt has been re-elected President of the United States All is well.

One day last week we chanced to meet some good friends from Carlisle: Mr. James Henry, Mrs. Helen Jane Henry, and Mr. Leonard Cassidy. Mr. Henry is a son of the late Firman B. Henry, contacting business here and there. Miss Helen is a high school graduate ready for duty's call to higher service. Leonard Cassidy is a member of the Carlisle police force, whose height will do very well, but whose weight very few can exceed. He tells us his son A. J. Cassidy recently volunteered to enlist in the U. S. Navy, in the great movement of peace time preparation for adequate national defense.

Our grandson James Rogers, reports a delightful short trip through Myers and Stony Creek counties, Harlan county, last week, and meeting the following friends: Mrs. Jess Cameron, Mrs. Paul Cameron and son, Mr. Bud Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Fisher and daughter and C. Tedder. Knowing, remember, ing and seeing these good people, affords a pleasure not easily described in words.

The greatest happiness in this life is that which others find happy. Ever ready helping hands, cheerful smiles, kindly words, and pleasant conversations, make life worth living.

Laugh a little more, sunshine, it freshens all the day; it tips the hours and days with light, and drives the clouds away.

The soul grows glad that hears it, and grows full of courage strong.

A laugh is just like sunshine for cheering folks along.

A laugh is just like music; it links in the heart, like unto it its melody is heard, the ills of life to flee.

And happy thoughts come during its joyful notes to greet. A laugh is just like music, for making living sweet.

And all will reap a benefit.
