To Destroy The Administration.

(Lexington Herald)

The political history of Kentucky for many years has been written by the hands of four down voters and state administrations. The same efforts are now under way and they are following along exactly the same path as in the past years. Yet Governor Johnson has been elected for three years. It is a fact.

This is evidenced during the past week by the resignation of Judge Richard C. Stoll, Lexington, chief justice of a special court named by Governor Johnson. Judge Stoll is a member of a committee of the House of Commons, one of the best known political bodies in the Commonwealth.

When the question of pensions for justices of the Court of Appeals arose the members of the committee themselves, as judges, were interested. The governor appointed a special court on which Judge Stoll and Mr. Boyd were members. There could be nothing political about the appointment inasmuch as Judge Stoll is a Republican.

Although no protest was made at the time of their appointment, Attorney General Meredith later objected to both appointees on the ground that as members of a committee of the Kentucky Bar Association some year back they had approved resolutions favoring pensions for judges.

The thing that happens is what will happen throughout Kentucky. If this committee and bonding of all who accept public responsibility
