FROM OVER THE LINE

(J. W. Rogers)

There is nothing in our United States Constitution to prevent a third term President. Since George Washington set the example of declining a third term, other Presidents have done the same, down to the present time, and until the precedent has become a kind of unwritten law. It should be also equally as well remembered and emphasized, that the same George Washington, successfully, used his goodly, powerful influence over the framers of our Constitution in 1787 to prevent them from incorporating a clause barring a third term, lest emergencies, affecting the general welfare of the American people, might arise when should intelligent men of today quibble? No just cause can be given, against a third term. All is imagination, surmise, and guess.

Hay fever rages in all of its stages. We have tried most ments galore, and treatments some more. We know a doctor who is simply wasting in bringing about a certain cure. Misseasons of disappointment and grief, he always brings a quick relief. His name is Dr. Quinine.

History tells an awful story of a fiendish leader of the Eastern Hemisphere, named Genghis Kahn, a Mongol conqueror. After a siege of seven years, during which tribes of people, he claimed a divine call to conquer the entire world, and did, to a large degree. It. Terrible was his work of pillage, destruction of life and property, and subjugation until 1225, when his greatest final battles were fought. His tremense dominions of territory seized. He died and his tremminions were divided, and the wild scheme came to naught.

Such is the story of Adolph Hitler thus far. He, too, will soon fall in his fiendish career, and all will come to naught.

A world of people will not always permit world subjugation, methods to operate under merciless, fiendish self-chosen leaders.

SOCIAL and SOCIETY

"GOD BLESS AMERICA"
(By Irving Berlin)

While the storm clouds gather
Far across the sea,
Let us swear allegiance
To a land that's free;
Let us all be grateful
For a land so fair,
As we raise our voices
In a solemn prayer.

God bless America,
Land that I love.
Stand beside her and guide her
Thru the night with a light
from above;
From the mountains, to the prairies,
To the oceans white with foam,
God bless America
My home sweet home.

As worn by Gloria Stuart

The FASHION FROCK Of The Week

ELEGANT SIMPLICITY
As Worn in Hollywood by Gloria Stuart
A Favorite Actress of the Screen

It has been said by sages that the simplest things are the most beautiful, but that is not entirely true. Of course the beauty of that statement, for here is a dress designed with the simplicity and lack of fuss that definitely spells real smartness. The neckline is high with two horizontal tucks below to keep it from being too severe. The shoulder yoke is unusually wide and this seams to form large flap pockets are most flattering. Four dat gold buttons fasten the self-belt to the dress. The sleeves give one that fashionable smooth-shouldered look and fit snugly just below the elbow. The skirt is unusually full and therefore important in order to carry out the simplicity keynote. Miss Stuart has here in a soft wool, heavy crepe in a lovebird blue shade. It is also very pretty in a leather-tan shade.

She was moved home after the operation.

Miss Hopkins Entertains

Miss Marjorie Hopkins has issued invitations to twenty friends for a one o'clock luncheon Saturday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Hopkins on Sycamore street, honoring her friend, Miss Mary Ann Tharp, bride-elect of Lexington, whose engagement to Mr. Bruce McIntire, of Danville, Mich., has been announced. Invitations include former study companions at Transylvania College.

Hospital Notes
