

CHRISTMAS CHEER, 1941

TO ALL OUR FRIENDS

New... when echoes of the angel choir are heard throughout the land, it is time to pause and count our blessings. They are more numerous by far than we had imagined, for which we should be daily grateful.

THE MERRIEST CHRISTMAS

The same kind of a Christmas we knew when we were boys and girls, when bobbed hair plodded nervously over country roads and the brooding peace of Yuletide dived everywhere in the hearts of men.

... that is the kind of an old-fashioned Christmas we are wishing you now.

And with our wish may we extend our words of thanks and appreciation for your continued friendly aid and patronage.

With the kindest of all friends, Mrs. Young was firm, she was glad to go before today.

In the Christmas Rush

THEY had been doing their Christmas shopping and had stood with hordes of other people waiting to board a street car for the Agass and again they joined the line of would-be passengers only to see the car move off without them.

Look here, Mrs. Young, I think we're crazy to try to get home in this rush, and I suggest that we let us go to the Purple Tint room and have our hair done.
