No doubt you readers noticed in the daily papers about Lindbergh an airdale dog, who died of grief after his master left him on his Kansas farm to go to the Army, how that even a 2000-mile airplane ride to California re-uniting him with his master, and the best of medical care could not save his life. I hope that all lovers will like this poem, which is written as a tribute to Laddie.

His grief is more than saying. (Though he could not understand why)

I stand whip

A saintly, endearing pat on the head—

A kindly voice saying "good bye."

How Laddie wished he could say,

"We've spent happy days together . . .

How can you leave me this way?"

But he only tried to wag his tail.

His once eager eyes growing sad

With the realization he was losing

The best friend he had ever had.

Days passed slowly by for Laddie.

Though he tried, he could not eat.

He grieved so much, for his master,

And was gradually growing weak.

A special airplane ride, at last,

A glance of recognition fell . . .

Upon his master's lips that said, "Laddie, you don't look so well."

But it was too late, too late!

Oh, Laddie, with a heart so true,

Surely there's a route heaven

For just such dogs as you.

"Western Union? I've had an accident! Please send a form to the nearest Hartford Agent!"
. . . and that's how to find a HARTFORD agent in a hurry!
Until you have an accident, one Automobile insurance policy often looks as good as any other. But when trouble comes vast differences may show up in the ease and speed with which you can get service, and in the efficiency and satisfactory character of the aid given you.
Hartford protection is "way out ahead" in this respect. The Western Union "tie-up" that puts 17,000 Hartford Agencies at your instant call is a typical Hartford advantage . . . one of the reasons that make Hartford insurance worth more without making it cost more, and one of the reasons we recommend the Hartford policy as the "best buy" for you. Let us tell you all about it before you insure your car, elsewhere.

CAUTION

Walk lightly, Spring!
Nor brush too soon
The robin's henna breast.
Take care!—

Your hand is not unclasped
From winter's trailing shirt,
With lightly, Spring!
Tighten your shoes of purple hush—
Adjust your scarf of chartreuse grass—
Button your coat of scaling hail!
Beware!

The apple tree will weave a petaled coat for you.
The peach will don golden hair into the sun
On other holidays.
Walk lightly, Spring!
