FROM OVER THE LINE

(By Z. W. Rogers)

We believe in the domination of reason, and the ideals of justice, between man and man, and between nation and nation. A spirit of conquest, hunger for territory, and disregard for human rights, is let loose in the world. Our country should be prepared for every contingency. We do not know how much preparedness is to be enough. Those matters should be left to Congress, and to our civil experts and leaders, who can better determine than we. Our people are divided into two classes; still earlier, and pacifists, the military believe in armed preparedness, the pacifists, in unarmed preparedness. We think armed preparedness for defense and maintenance of the rights of law and justice in the world, is our only safe policy.

We venture to say Mrs. Fannie Toadvine will make an efficient, telephone operator in Carlisle. She has done it here and can do it there. She and husband Earnest Toadvine Jr., have built a fine home in Carlisle soon.

This is the time in the year to enjoy eating hoosh-nuts, shaws, coosh-aws or kershaws. We do not know how to spell them but we do know how to eat them. On looking up the words in our dictionaries, and we could find them, we just said "Oh, Pshaw."

We are closing a WPA research project, of all engineers who have been admitted to the engineering profession in Harrison county, from the beginning of the county seat fight, and of final declaration of intention, and oaths occurred in 1845, and the last one in 1941, when the Federal government took for granted that we would have been first "certified" citizens, and issued the full citizenship granted later, in Harrison county. The names will be mentioned in our next communication to the Mercury.

Life's biggest job is always going to be the strongest or fastest man, but rather the smartest man, who aims, is the fellow who will win. If you're lost for out in the world you will find success if you will just keep on trying, and will lose, you've lost for out in the world you will find success if you will just keep on trying, and with all in the state of the mind.

Brother Ben Shaw, the school boy, hurrah! and his shout, 1-2-3-4-5-6-7-8-9-10 and 9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1. While swift as the wings of lightning flies, and the fleetest mates have answered his call.

Bridge At Newport Is Made Toll-Free

The state-owned Longfellow & Nathan Hale highway bridge, connecting Newport and Cincinnati, was made toll free Tuesday in a ceremony in which Governor Keen Johnson participated.

The governor was principal speaker at ceremonies marking removal of the tolls. Mayor James Garfield Stewart represented Cincinnati and was joined by officials of Newport and by neighboring communities. Thousands of persons jammed the bridge and spectators at one time delayed passage of the governor's party to the speakers' stand.

In his speech, Governor Johnson declared, "it is good to live in a country where we free bridges instead of bombing them."

Nancy Laura Thomas was born in Nicholas county, Kentucky, on January 7, 1853, the second child of Erasmus Thomas and Elizabeth Boardman Thomas. She was 88 years and 10 months old at the time of her death. She was married to William Gore, Sr., of Nicholas county, on October 5, 1875. They went to housekeeping on a farm near Boones Creek in Bourbon county. In 1881, they moved to the old Gore homestead in Nicholas county where his grandfather had settled in 1820, where they resided until 1904. They then moved to a farm in the Wabash valley of Clay county, Indiana. In 1909 they decided to go West, and located in Pawnee county where they have since resided.

Mrs. Gore came of the old pioneer stock of Kentucky and Virginia. Her forefathers for many generations were farmers. All of her sons are farmers, four of them farming in Pawnee county. She leaves to cherish her memory nine children: Ernest H., Mary Evelyn Schrepel of Fullerton, Calif., Ethel E. Glover of Bradenton, Fla., Lula F. Moore of Kwanna, Ind., William H., Jr., Nancy L., Daniel T., Earl B., and Doss M.

She was preceded in death by her husband, who died in 1926, and two sons, Chester E. and James E., who died in 1927. She is also survived by 16 grandchildren and three great grandchildren, a brother, William P. Thomas of Bourbon county, Ky.; and five nieces and nephews.

At the age of 11 she united with the East Union Christian church some 12 miles from the original Christian church which was founded by Alexander Campbell on Old Cane Ridge in Bourbon county, Ky. Since moving to Kansas, she has been a faithful member of the Larned Christian church.

She was a kind, patient, faithful, loving mother, raising five of her grandchildren, besides her own family.

Mrs. Gore was a charter member of East Union Christian, which was founded in 1873, later transferring to the Ash Valley Grange in Pawnee county.

TWO-TONE SUIT as worn in Hollywood by June Long

Popular Young Screen Actress

The plain and plaid motif—so popular in Hollywood and Paris—is the smart new best seller in wool for fall and more popular than ever. Youth so runs through this happy combination of jacket and skirt that it takes all years from the wearer. The wide rounded lapels, the fitted waist with snug set-in belt, the string of large fabric-covered buttons down the front of the plain jacket and the wide plaid sepse, the box plaid pleated skirt are all accents for youth.

"The new soft shoulder line is extremely flattering," the artist says of the worn with blouses and sweaters and the jacket with other plain apect frocks. The one pictured, as worn by Miss Lang, is in Oxford grey with flecked red plaid. It is also featured in navy brown with touchy gold plaid. A set to be worn all fall and through the winter.
