There Is No Doubt.

Any doubt that we have been harbored in the mind of the Nazi leader about the intentions of the United States, the policy toward freedom night, in plain terms, the President of the United States has made clear. From now on, if Germany or Italian demands are to enter the waters, the policy which is necessary for American defense, they do so at their peril.

The orders which I have given as commander in chief of the United States Army and Navy are to carry out that policy—no ifs, no ands, no buts.

There is no doubt now, in anyone's mind, that we will be the future of the world. Germany has not, and will not, leap her way out of the United States. We will not permit the United States to be used as a base for the attack of the democratic world.

Full In The Air.

Swear, fearful days, charm of the dreaming eyes.

I love the suspense of dawn that says farewell. I love the suspense of dawn that says farewell. I love the suspense of dawn that says farewell.

And the sun's rays, and the early frost, And the thrust of the grayish dawn starting.

The last few days have brought, as delirious as the fragrance of the first breath of autumn—drifting in the early morning air and the late afternoon breeze.

A little cold, but the sun that is looking day by day is smiling.

And the sun's rays, and the early frost, And the thrust of the grayish dawn starting.

Letters To The Editor.

The recent issue of the Carlisle Mercury, "The Mystery of the Mystery," which was written by Warren Fisher, Jr., is a very interesting article. It is a very interesting article.
