Dear Mr. Prather:

I [illegible] you wrote the editorial in the Mercury, "Politics the Dandiest." I am grateful for your sympathetic and understanding comment.

Redistricting was a job that could no longer be delayed. It was my destiny to be here at a time when it had to be done. We have done the best possible in effort to bring the state more nearly into conformity with the state constitution.

PUBLIC SALE

1-6 Interest in Farmers Stockyards

TUESDAY, APRIL 21, AT 1:00 P. M.

Due to the tire situation and the fact that I live in the upper end of Bath county I have reluctantly decided to dispose of my interest in the local Stockyards. My association here has been both profitable and pleasant but changing conditions have necessitated my sale here. The high price of stock and advancing commissions on livestock make this a real opportunity for a money making investment. This yard will speak for itself in any season and the other stockholders are the highest type of men one could hope to be associated with. Come in before sale and talk it over.

THE CARLISLE MERCURY

VOLUME LXXVI. ESTABLISHED 1867 CARLISLE, NICHOLAS COUNTY, K[illegible], THURSDAY, APRIL 16, 1942 NUMBER 16

Body of Jake Shrout Is Found on County Farm

Message to Carlisle Indicates Suicide by Poison; Was Wandering Minstrel

The body of Jacob Shrout, an itinerant banjo picker who frequented the Nicholas court house with his music, was found yesterday morning in a pasture on the farm of Robert Hatton, Nicholas county resident who lives near the Mt. Lynah church.

Mr. Hatton, in a rather sketchy telephone conversation with County Clerk John Sage, said that he had found the body and that Shrout had taken poison in what was evidently a suicide, but this could not be established definitely at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Wandered to Farm

From the report which reached Carlisle, Shrout had evidently wandered to the Hatton farm and had laid down in the pasture where he died.

I. H. Hatton, Nicholas county coroner, left early yesterday afternoon to visit the field where the body lay. He had not decided at that time whether he would hold an inquest but said that he was "investigating" the matter.

Shrout was about 50 years old and much about his past life was unknown. He was known to have been in Nicholas county for several years, however, and was well known as a wandering minstrel. He usually carried his banjo with him and played it on the streets of Carlisle and in the court house when court was in session. Sometimes he would stay for whatever would be given him.

Mr. Sage said that about four months ago the deceased, who had relatives in Carlisle, left here for Mt. Sterling. They have since separated and she appealed before the last meeting of the Nicholas county fiscal court, telling that story, that Shrout had left her "on the road" and that she desired to have him brought to the county infirmary. She has since died.

Little was known here about Shrout's past or about any other relations. He was supposed to be a native of North county.

IS TAKEN TO GO TO MT. STERLING

J. J. Isaacs, who has been convicted of the murder of Ben Lyon of the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company, is being taken to Mt. Sterling today to begin serving the life sentence he received there last week from Judge Rodman Allen. Isaacs was convicted in the Montgomery circuit court. He will remain in his present cell until that time.

Aleck Simpson Is Not Tried

No Jurisdiction to Try Local Negro in Tire Case, Bourbon Judge Decides

Aleck Simpson, negro Carlisle garage man who is accused in connection with the theft of several tires in Bourbon county last week, was released from the charge after Bourbon authorities discovered that they had no jurisdiction in the case on account of receiving stolen property.

Simpson, it is said, drove a truck which was stolen from Bourbon county and was found in Carlisle. He had purchased the tires from a negro whom he knew as a Mrs. Shields. They have since separated and she appealed before the last meeting of the Nicholas county fiscal court, telling that story, that Simpson had left her on the road" and that she desired to have him brought to the county infirmary. She has since died.

Little was known here about Shrout's past or about any other relations. He was supposed to be a native of North county.

No Jurisdiction

Commonwealth Attorney William T. Fitzpatrick and Judge George Batterton that since any offense which Simpson could have committed in the case was committed in Bourbon county, the Bourbon court had no jurisdiction.

Judge Batterton said yesterday that no testimony to show that Simpson knew that the tires were stolen was introduced at the hearing.

Others Held

The other five men, four negroes and one white man, implicated in the thefts were held to the grand jury in Bourbon circuit court.

Simpson and after his arrest that he had not bought the tires because he was afraid that they were stolen. He said that he purchased them from Shields and William McBrain, white, who left the tires at his garage, he said.

Brooks to Speak at Club Dinner

Banquet Will Be Staged Friday by Young Business Men's Club

A. C. Brooks, of Frankfort, one of Kentucky's best known speaking crackers, will be heard in the principal address at the annual banquet of the Young Business Men's club, to be held Friday night at 7 o'clock in the Masonic hall here.

One Hundred Expected

About one hundred persons are expected to be in attendance, club officials announced at the conclusion of a drive for membership which started here Monday morning and which met with such success that the sponsors were gratified.

Mr. Brooks, pastor of the Frankfort Christian church, is well known as a witty and entertaining lecturer. He will be introduced by E. E. Pfanstiel, who will preside.

The dinner will be served by the local Eastern Star chapter.

"We have made an honest effort to see everybody," Earl Van Hoose, club president, said, "but if we have missed any one this is to inform them that tickets will be on sale at the banquet hall Friday night."

GIBBERISH

Mr. Q. T. Gatewood, the one man salvage station, offered to give his patriotic hatred a good send-off when he put it out in front of his store. Scrawled in the post, Mr. Gatewood picked up a brad-dollar, which is a remarkably good imitation of a silver piece. He's had it in his safe ever since.

So he told a bunch of fellows lunging around his place that he'd drop in a silver dollar to start the collection off if they would do the same. They all said they would as soon as they got hold of a silver dollar to sweeten the pot, but curiously enough they never did.

Anyway, a man came into Gatewood's a few days later and asked what was in the barrel out front.

"Oh," Mr. Gatewood replied offhandedly, "there's a bunch of silver dollars down in the bottom."

"That so," said the credulous stranger. "Who put 'em in there?"

"Well, there was one I drop-

Mrs. Smart is Smart About Ads

Mrs. Nannie Smart, former citizen of Aberdeen, Ohio, wants some property here which she rents. And Mrs. Smart sees to it that her property stays rented because she uses Mercury classified ads to tell her story.

Only last week, Mrs. Smart inserted a classified "For Rent" ad in The Mercury. The paper came out late Wednesday morning. Thursday morning she rented the house she had advertised.

"Don't tell me it doesn't pay," the contented woman said she dropped by to pay the quarter the classified cost her.

Salvage Drive Planned, Place for Scrap Here

Group Organizes Intensive Month's Drive—Ask Aid from Individuals

With a hailstone moved onto the court house lawn and a pen to be built on Main street, both to be put into immediate use as salvage stations, the Carlisle committee on "Defense Industries" moved this week into an intensive campaign to gather much needed scrap material.

A one month drive, which will be conducted by four Nicholas county organizations, was announced by Rev. Estal L. Taylor, committee chairman, at the conclusion of a meeting held Friday afternoon at the Nicholas county court house.

According to the plan, the Junior Red Cross will have charge of the collection of materials during the week of 19 to 25, the Future Farmers of America from April 26 to May 2, the Boy Scouts from May 3 to

Contractors

The "Contracting Jobs" without gets of building a scrap iron pen for salvage went to Jr. W. H. Hopkins and Rev. Estal Taylor at the committee meeting Friday afternoon. There were no other bidders.

The bid was let in record time when Rev. Taylor asked Mr. Hopkins if he is going to build this time.

"Yes and I," spoke up Mr. Hopkins.

"That's all right with me," the committee responded.

Paper to Building

The building will be used to house paper, rags and rubber, Rev. Taylor said, and the pen which will be placed in front of the court house will be used as a depository for scrap iron.

Informed by state authorities of the shortage need for these four materials, the committee decided to coordinate the work of the organizations rather than give each of them a week during which to have charge of the collection. Proceeds from the sale of the materials gathered during their respective weeks will go directly to the organizations.

Action taken in from the side of the scraps iron left in the court house yard by the Lions Memorial hospital here, it was decided.

Urged to Contribute

Persons having waste materials needed will be urged to collect them and notify some member of one of the four organizations.

Earl Van Hoose, representative on the committee from the Young Business Men's club, said that it is probable that the club will offer some sort of a prize to the one group of the four which turns in the best lob of collecting the salvage.

Individuals who have scrap material about their homes were also urged to bring it to Carlisle and leave it either at the small house behind the court house or to deposit it in the scrap iron pen.

"These are dark days," Rev. Taylor told the group, "and if Nicholas county is called upon to display her patriotism in this campaign, then Nicholas county will show just how patriotic she can be. We are all confident of that."

Specialist Here

Dr. W. W. Scott of the University of Chicago was called into consultation here this week with Dr. W. B. Hopkins of Carlisle to see James H. Martin, who has been ill for several months.

Divorce Asked

One suit asking divorce was on file in Nicholas circuit court this week as Gladys Wagoner charged Bernice Wagoner with abandonment.

G. T. Asbury, Bruce Hamm, Howard Irvin, James D. Patton, O. P. Claville, S. S. Clay, Jr., R. L. Curtis, W. C. Lane, Charlie Reid, Harry Campbell, Eugene Booth, Emery Clark, Malcolm Gaunce, F. T. Gaffin, O. A. Berry.

Redistricting Acts Signed By Governor

Kentucky's first reappointment of Senate and House districts since 1918 was signed into law by Gov. Keen Johnson last week, to become effective 90 days from the sine die adjournment of the special session of the General Assembly.

Under terms of the measures all of the 100 members of the House of Representatives will be elected in 1943 from the new House districts. Half of the Senators who served this year—those from the even-numbered districts—also will be chosen from the new districts next year. Senators representing the odd-numbered districts will hold over and serve in the 1944 session, since the senators are elected for two session terms, half at a time.

Free Current For One Month Be Given Here

Kentucky Utilities Announce Rebate in Lump Sum to Patrons

Free electric service for one entire month, based on April meter readings, will be given some 90,000 residential, rural and municipal lighting customers, plus a similar plan to help customers get longer use of domestic electric appliances during the war, were announced in Lexington on April 8, by R. M. Watt, president of Kentucky Utilities Company.

Customers' electric bills covering a month's use are to be figured on existing rates and discounted 100 per cent for meter reading periods ending on dates from April 1 to April 30, inclusive, Mr. Watt said. This reduction in electric service cost follows studies made by the Kentucky Public Service Commission the latter part of 1941, and complies with a Commission order, he explained.

Nine of Ten

"Nine out of every ten of our customers will benefit," Mr. Watt said. "We believe all customers who set their bills 'marked paid' will prefer to have this saving in a lump sum rather than in smaller amounts each month. No change has been made in the base rates. Future bills will be figured on present rates."

This is the eighth rate cut made by the Kentucky Utilities Company in the last seven years, and is more than $300,000. It brings to $1,530,450 a year the amount of the average domestic cost savings to customers of the company in the past several years, Mr. Watt explained.

Periodic Cuts

Periodic rate cuts or curtailment of service, make minor repairs and suggest how they can get longer possible service and make most efficient use of their appliances," Mr. Watt said.

SUGAR RATIONS BE ON SCHEDULE

Sugar rationing is coming, and on schedule, Robert Fisher, chairman of the Nicholas county rationing board, announced this week after a message received from Donald Nelson, WPB chief in Washington.

Mr. Nelson's letter branded as "without foundation" any report that the rationing of sugar had been cancelled.

Mr. Fisher said that this will mean that all sugar sales will be stopped during the week beginning April 27, and that the registration of grocers and restaurants will take place on April 27 and 28.

Consumer registration will start May 4 and will continue all week, Mr. Fisher said. Persons will be required to register to obtain the books containing rationing stamps.

Although it is certain that books will be given out at the schools, both county and city, and that teachers will do the work of registration, Mr. Fisher said that the actual details of the program have not been finally worked out.

County Boy Gets County Sweater

A Nicholas county boy located in Hawaii had a "bundle from home" recently, according to a report which reached Carlisle yesterday.

Kenneth Thornsburg, of near Moorefield, is stationed in the Hawaiian Islands with the United States Army there. Recently they were giving out Red Cross knitted sweaters to the men.

And when Thornsburg looked at the label in the sweater which was given him, it read "Nicholas County, Kentucky." It had been knitted by the Red Cross members here.

4-H Club Rally Day Scheduled

Program Released for Annual Meet of Nicholas Farm Groups

More than three hundred and fifty 4-H club members and enough parents and spectators to run the total to six hundred are expected to be present for the annual Rally Day program to be held in Carlisle April 21.

Clubs which will be represented in the contests and on the program will be Harterville, two from Carlisle, East Union, Ellisville, two from Nicholas, Jonesville, Miranda, Moorefield, Myers and Parks.

At Court House

The programs will be staged at the Nicholas county court house and at the Carlisle Methodist church. M. P. Nichols, county farm agent, who is in charge of arrangements, announced here yesterday.

Farm practice teams will demonstrate in the court house in the morning, with the judging getting started at 9:15 o'clock, and they will be followed by home economics teams. In the afternoon, the program will shift to the church for the annual style show and the judging contest among the clubs.

Winners in the home and farm practice demonstrations will go to Morehead for competition in the district contests and the style show winner will compete for the state title at Junior Week at the University of Kentucky in June.

Plans Readied for Next Draft

Fourth Registration Will Be Held April 27—

Men 45 to 65 to Report

Members of the Nicholas county draft board announced this week that plans for the fourth registration under the Selective Service Act, which will be held April 27.

All men who have attained their 45th birthday on or before February 16, 1942 and who have not attained their 65th birthday on or before April 27th, 1942 will be registered on that date, the board declared.

At Same Places

The registration in the county will be conducted in the same places as in the third registration which was held Feb. 16, the announcement said. Those affected have been ordered by the hours of 7 A. M. and 9 P. M. Central War Time.

The board has estimated that the coming registration will list one and one-half times the number of men registered in the February 16 listing, and have asked that each chairmen secure one registrar for each 20 expected registrants.

The board said that it "expected" that all city and county schools will be closed for the day in order that the teachers may again assist in the register-

Allies Suffer Worst Week in World Conflict

Loss of Bataan, Failure of British Mission to India Darkens Outlook

The Allies had their worst week since Pearl Harbor last week.

The fall of Bataan, where more than thirty-five thousand persons were taken prisoner by Japan, and the failure of the British mission to reach any sort of an agreement in India brought news of the worst kind to American ears.

Bataan's fall was expected, and the fact that the gallant defenders were able to hold out as long as they were has been the marvel of the current conflict. But when the surrender came it was not a lack of courage that brought it about but a lack of food as the soldiers were forced by hunger to surrender to the invaders.

Fort Fights on

Corregidor, meanwhile, continued to fight on and its guns which bristle from the powerful fortress were battering yesterday at Japanese columns.

But a thing which brought the war close to home was the fact that many men who figured in the Jans were many central Kentuckians. A tank unit from Kentucky was feared among those which surrendered.

The "can't happen here" attitude was given a severe jolt when it was realized that the surrender of the Bataan force was the first surrender by an American force since General Hull gave up against the wishes of his men at Detroit in the War of 1812. History has called that the act of a craven but there was nothing but heroism at Bataan.

Crips Returns

In India, Sir Stafford Cripps, the British envoy who has long been an advocate of Indian dominionship, returned home without an agreement. Negotiations broke down when Gandhi demand arose that an Indian politician should be entrusted with the defense portfolio of General Sir Archibald Wavell, hero of Libya and commander of the Allied forces in India.

And as the current week started, Japan was reported to have massed a huge fleet in the Bay of Bengal to strike at India and India is not considered in its own mind.

Once again the Russians furnished the bright spot in the coming. Hitler's long awaited spring offensive had not arrived and his forces were still giving ground before the Soviet machine.

TEN MEN NOT FOUND BY BOARD

The names of ten men whose whereabouts is unknown to the Nicholas county draft board were released here this week and any person knowing how any of the man can be reached was asked to notify the board secretary immediately.

The ten names released by the board were Claude Snapp, John Lewis Sivers, McNellas Byram Cupps, William Leslie Bryant, Thomas Snapp, William Clay Sams, Billie David Richards, William Spencer Isophins, Raymond Ritchie, and Cecil A. Fryman.

Attend Banquet

Nicholas county was represented at a banquet held by Eighth district Democrats Saturday night at Morehead, where Governor Keen Johnson delivered the principal address.

Those from this county who were present included Senator H. Stanley Blake, Floyd Clark, John Anderson, Goebel Henry, Clark Leer, L. B. Barton, Billy Layson, Noel Gaunce, and Mortimer Hughes.
