Kroger Buying 4-H Livestock

Buyers for the Kroger Grocery and Baking Co. attended 60 livestock sales conducted last year by 4-H Clubs and vocational agricultural students in fifteen states, purchasing more than 1,000 animals, Albert H. Morrill, Kroger president, announced recently.

He added that the company plans to participate in even more sales this year, and has instructed its county agents throughout Kroger territory to attend all junior livestock shows and sales.

Company policy for several years has been to encourage such youth organizations by buying the livestock fed out by these young farmers at prices commensurate with current markets or limited. Cooperation in this program have been newspaper editors, county agricultural agents, vocational agriculture instructors, 4-H Club leaders, chain store council representatives and others.

When Kroger developed its buying program of junior livestock in 1938, only 21 sales were attended and 211 animals bought. In 1941, Kroger representatives purchased 723 cattle at 91 hogs and 198 lambs, almost five times as many animals as were bought the first year of Kroger participation. These prize animals were slaughtered and prepared for sale through the company's 3,000 stores in midwestern and southern states.

Since more animals are being fed under wartime conditions, and a number of state fairs have been suspended this year, Kroger representatives predict these junior livestock sales will play a greater part in country fair activities during 1942. They believe that there will be more such sales, with a great many more entries than in previous years.

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY

STATE DEFENSE COUNCIL

TELEPHONE 2540 April 22, 1942 FRANKFORT

Mr. Earl Van Bever,
County Defense Chairman,
Carlisle, Ky.

Dear Sir:

The thing which I have heard most often from local councils is that they have not been given enough to do. I am just now in position to satisfy the calls of local councils for useful activity with a drive which Washington regards as being of very immediate importance.

The drive in mind is "BUY COAL NOW." The reason for the drive is that it is expected that a greatly increased amount of coal will be needed in the Fall by the steel industries, and that its handling may overload the railroads and power generating stations and ships and barges, if domestic coal has to be handled at the same time. The plan for conducting the drive is that local councils will act in conjunction with wholesale and retail coal dealers in promoting the drive through newspapers and radios, and through speakers and all other means of advertising promotion. It is also desired that local councils survey the stock piles of hospitals, public buildings, and the like, and request the purchasing agents of all such institutions to place their orders immediately.

Will you kindly advise at once whether your organization has been sufficiently completed to undertake the job and carry it through.

Very truly yours,
J. J. GREENLEAF

Nicholas Fiscal Court In Rural Highway Deadlock

Work Order for Road Plan Still Unsigned

A representative of the Kentucky Highway Department was slated to appear yesterday afternoon before the Nicholas fiscal court in an attempt to work out a solution for an impasse which has stalemated the signing of a rural highway work order in this county.

Judge Walter Shepherd, who had said that the matter would be discussed at the regular May meeting yesterday, announced just before noon that the state representative was on his way and the matter would be taken up later in the day.

(That step preceded The Mercury from publishing any agreement which might have been reached because it came after time for the paper to go to press.)

The discussion yesterday afternoon was an aftermath of a visit which the entire fiscal court paid to Frankfort last Thursday. At that time they saw Eugene Mosely, executive assistant to J. Lyter Donaldson, highway commissioner and chief patronage dispenser for the Johnson administration.

One of the chief obstacles to the signing of the state aid work (which Judge Shepherd has not as yet signed) is the naming of a foreman to inspect the rural highway work in the county.

It is a problem which is not peculiar to this county. This is the set up—

The rural highway division of the State Highway Department was created during the Chandler administration. It allocates money to various counties for road building purposes, and there are necessarily a number of jobs to be given on those road building operations.

John being the lifeblood of political patronage, there have in many counties arisen squabbles as to who shall name the recipients of those jobs.

The fiscal court, in many instances feeling that it is acting in the interest of efficiency, and in other instances concerned with patronage, has its own candidates. It also desires to see that its friends secure the patronage.

Hence the stalemate.

The foreman who supervised the road building and maintenance last year was Clarence "Sump" Barlow. There is opposition in the court to his reappointment.

Just what the solution will be was not determined at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Everybody had a solution, but they didn't all dovetail. —4-7 P.

GIBBERISH

Coroner J. H. Fulton, who was holding forth in his tonsorial emporium the other day, aroused us of having his Derby selection in last week's Mercury all wrong. He was a bit put out that we had so muddled what he was pleased to call the facts of the case.

"Now the way you had that," said Cap, waving his razor like a colored fellow would handle his social razor on a Saturday night, "you said that I saw that horse in the Mt. Olivet Fair. That isn't the way of it at all.

"Part of the matter is, I was riding that horse. Yes sir, I was a-riding him and they had that old egg shaped track over there and the first horse that went around that track two times was the winner. Dad blamed if I didn't get that

British Seize French Island

Madagascar Occupied by English, Step Approved by U. S.

The British seized Madagascar this week.

And when they did, the United States promptly warned the Nazi puppet state in Vichy that the step had the full approval of this nation.

That Vichy would resent the seizure of the island possession seemed a foregone conclusion. That it would avail her little or nothing was sure.

Japs Still Push

The seizure of Madagascar was the highlight of a war week which saw a steady advance made by the Japanese in Burma, with the situation there regarded as a threat to China and to India. The results of the advance were thought critical by observers.

In Europe, Adolf Hitler continued his blitz tactics, and added to the steady pressure which was put upon him by the Russian army, the Rumanians started a guerilla attack which made him divert a part of his badly needed troops to the Balkans.

Seventy-two were executed in Holland as a reprisal method.

Steel Banned

On the home front, the War Production Board banned the use of almost all iron and steel for civilian use. President Roosevelt also gave the Defense Transportation Director the right to control efficient use of all automobiles.

Saddest news of Kentuckians was the release of 22 names of boys from the Bluegrass state—the news all marked "killed in action."

M. C. Shearer to Head USO Drive

Quota for County Is $500—Local Chairman Named by State Head

M. C. Shearer, Carlisle undertaker and embalmer, will head the United Service Organization campaign in Nicholas county, it was announced this week by Earl Van Bever, county defense chairman. Mr. Shearer accepted the chairmanship when he was offered to him by Dr. Frank McVey, Lexington USO chairman.

Nicholas county's quota in the USO campaign is $500. Dr. McVey pointed out in an appeal for badly needed funds. The USO is the unit which furnishes recreational facilities and maintains stopover stations for servicemen in larger communities.

Glad to Aid

"I am glad to assist in such a cause," Mr. Shearer said in accepting the chairmanship, "and I feel sure that we will have no difficulty in putting this over here in short order. While we live in Nicholas county here little contact directly with the USO, we must remember that some of our Nicholas county boys are benefitting from USO every day."

As soon as he learned of the campaign, Captain Roger Womack of the Carlisle Home Militia offered to donate one-half of any profits which may come from a home talent play which his outfit is sponsoring in May to the USO chest.

Mr. Shearer said that details of plans will be released in the near future.

Velos O'Neal Pleads Guilty, Gets Two Year

Admits Forgery; Sentenced in Circuit Court Will Resume Work

Velos O'Neal, of Carlisle, was sentenced to two years in the state reformatory Tuesday in Nicholas circuit court after he had entered a guilty plea to a charge of forging the name of William Flynn to a check for $15.00 cashed in a local business house.

The case was the only one tried during the May court, with the step had the full approval of the Nicholas fiscal court. That it would avail her little or nothing was sure.

Suit Is Set

Only civil suit set Tuesday was the damage suit of Mrs. Nina Brown against James F. Gaunce, former sheriff. The plaintiff in the case is asking for damages in the sum of $20,000 as the result of a wreck in which her husband allegedly suffered fatal injuries. It is set for Wednesday, May 13.

The petit juries, sworn in Tuesday, were made up of Bruce Hamm, O. A. Berry, Malcolm Gaunce, R. L. Curtis, E. T. Garvin, Raymond Hall, S. S. Clay, G. T. Asbury, Howard Irvine, W. C. Lane, Charlie Reid, Eugene Busch, J. T. Rinehart, O. P. Clayville, Claude Graves, E. B. Reid, James Judge, Frank Weaver, Foster McLain, Blain Brierly, O. D. Clark, Luther Clay, and Harry Campbell.

Is First Woman

Mrs. Nannie Buchanan became the first woman ever to serve as foreman of a grand jury in Nicholas county as the investigating body was impaneled and sworn in Monday morning.

Judge Dedman named Mrs. Buchanan as foreman, and the other 11 jurors are Frazier Earlywine, Omer Anderson, W. S. Atkinson, R. T. Brayfield, William Denton, Allen Bronson, Sr., Frank Allen, Ora Willison, Caleb Hamm, O. R. Giffin and Charles Irvine.

The group retired to the smaller court room immediately and started work.

Sheppard Reports

The report of Judge Walter Shepherd to Judge Nicholas quarterly court was filed with Judge Dedman and approved.

Cases heard by Judge Shepherd included those of William Lowe, reckless driving, fine $50; William Farris, breach of peace, $5.00; F. T. Flora, operating a car without a license, $10; Boyd Poe, breach of peace, $5.00; Straudee O'Neal, breach of peace, $5.00; Bobby Mitchell and Ray Padgett, uttering worthless checks, each fined one cent and costs; Robert Marshall, reckless driving, $5.00.

Motorcycle Injures County Resident—Is Taken to Lexington

His hand badly mangled and his right arm fractured in two places, Homer Kearns, about 34 years old, Nicholas county resident, was in a Lexington hospital this week. He was taken there from the Johnson Memorial hospital late Saturday night after he had been brought to the local institution following a motorcycle accident on the Carlisle-Lexington road.

Details of the accident were fragmentary but Sheriff Elford Clark, who went to the scene of the crash, said that he believed that Kearns' machine had struck a parked car.

Defense Bond Drive Launched For This County

Amount Given Nicholas Citizens As Their Part In War Effort

Nicholas county has been given a quota of $7,500 in Defense Bonds to sell during the month of May, James B. Ross, county chairman for the sale of the bonds, announced here this week.

Mr. Ross also revealed that since July 1, residents of this county have averaged buying $5,014 worth of the bonds each month.

"Encouraging"

"This is encouraging," he declared, "because that average goes clear back to last July. Since then war has been declared and we must step up the sale of these bonds. It's the safest investment that can be made, because if they should turn out bad, not another thing that we own would be worth the paper it's written upon."

"People must remember that these bonds are an investment, not a gift," he said. "They pay a good rate of interest and they

REAL PATRIOTISM

Nicholas county resident, approached on the question of buying a $750 bond which will be one thousand dollar bond on maturity, said that he did not have the money but is going the treasurers half made a counter proposal which was immediately accepted by Mr. Ross.

"You help me borrow the money and I'll pay the six per cent interest on it," he said.

"That is real patriotism," the county chairman said later in speaking of the matter.

are a better investment than any interest rate—they are an investment in the security of this nation."

No payroll allotment plans are contemplated by Mr. Ross in pushing the sale of the bonds, he disclosed.

"We really haven't the industry here for that type of selling to be effective," he said. "But it would be a wise move if everyone who is working for a salary would set apart each payday as much as he can afford to buy stamps and bonds."

The bonds and stamps may be purchased at the county post office.

Local Guards Need Volunteers

Equipment Offer Goes Begging Because of Lack of Men

Orders to furnish measurements of men in the Carlisle Active Militia so that they can be outfitted with shoes and uniforms by the War Department went heavily begging here this week because of a lack of volunteers over 18 years of age, and as a result Captain Roger Womack issued a call for soldiers to fill the vacancies in his unit.

"We have a splendid armory," Captain Womack pointed out, "and it is a shame that we cannot have a well equipped force to man it. We have been offered uniforms and equipment, but unless we get volunteers, we will not have a force which will justify our physical plant here."

Womack said that a movement was afoot to get the Young Business Men's club to sponsor the unit and he called for at least twenty members of the club to come to the Armory on Thursday night and join the unit. The Guard will meet at 7:30 o'clock that night.
