SOCIAL and SOCIETY

MEN WILL REMEMBER

If we must die in bombing and in dust,
Seeing our cities broken in their pride,
Then say of us that heaven was our trust,
Say that we lived in freedom still we died.
Say that our mind was generous and wide,
Where children grew in happy play apart.
Where peace lay drowsy on the countryside.

And kindness was and gentleness of heart.
This was the past and future of our life;
We knew no other, not the horn of hate,
The greed of nations or the first of strife.
Men will remember at a later date,
Nor all the darkness that is yet to be
Will dim the marvel of that memory.

—Robert Nathan

National Hospital Day

You and your friends are cordially invited to visit the Johnson Memorial hospital on Sunday, May 12th, which has been designated as National Hospital Day, throughout the United States and Canada.

In the year 1854 Florence Nightingale profoundly effred by reports of the suffering and misery of the sick and wounded soldiers in the Crimean War, packed her things and set sail for the war area.

This brave woman brought mercy to more than 10,000 suffering men. When peace brought quiet again to Crimea, she continued to fight. She established better hospitals everywhere. That is why her birthday is celebrated as national hospital day.

Young people 6:30 p. m.

Special program 7:30 p. m. in charge of Mrs. Fanny Ruth Snelling and our young people. The public is cordially invited to hear this program which will be both very helpful and entertaining.

Please note date of our revival, May 31 through June 14. Rev. L. D. Smith of Wilmore, Ky., will be in charge of daily service with the children and young people. Dr. J. L. Brasher, member of the North Alabama Conference, and one of our General Evangelists will preach twice daily except the morning services on Mondays and Saturdays.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Estal L. Taylor, pastor.

May 10, Mother's Day.

No day in the church calendar touches all like this Mother's Day. Every one wears either the red flower in her honor or the white in her memory.

At the morning service recognition of the oldest—the youngest, etc., will be made by gifts of flowers. Let every member of the church try to bring those who can not regularly attend the services.

Bring your mother's Bible and her picture to place on a table for this service.

Bible school 9:30.

Communion 10:45.

Sermon 11:00.

Evening service (musical program) 7:30. The Gospel in song.

Council Meets To Buy Truck

The Carlisle City Council, meeting in regular monthly session Monday night, approved the purchase of a new one-half ton pickup truck for use in the city. It was ordered that bids be taken on the truck at the City Hall on May 18, and the members then voted to advertise for the bids.

The remainder of the meeting was devoted to routine business.
