

THE CARLISLE MERCURY

Established in 1882
Biweekly in the Carlisle Postoffice as second class matter

In Memory of
WALTER H. FRISBIE
Editor
1912-1937

Mrs. Warren Fisher, Publisher
Gibson Turner, Editor and Manager

SUBSCRIPTION RATES
One Year (in advance) $1.00

NATIONAL EDITORIAL
ASSOCIATION
Member

KENTUCKY PRESS
ASSOCIATION
Member

THURSDAY, MAY 21, 1942

"X" May Mark the Spot.

"X" has marked the spot in many a murder mystery...
Personal. We cannot condone any special privileges in this matter.

Down With Al Right.

"You just believe the world is alright.
And all views of life will change overnight."

Robison Was a Prophet.

John M. Robison, Kentucky's only Republican congressman, should be reappointed to the United States Congress.

Have You Bought A Bond?

Have you bought a defense bond, or as many defense stamps this month as you were asked to buy?

This question may be a little personal, but it is a question which your patriotic conscience if you're doing your part in helping to get us through this war.

This county has been given a quota of $7500 in defense bonds for this month.

The Mercury takes no credit for this. It is no time now for the taking of credit. Rather let it be said that Carlisle has come out of its shell and decided to show the youth that it is leaving its infancy behind it.

Most apt radio programs and apportion which will be broadcast Saturday afternoon before the Saturday afternoon radio program.

Weighed a seventy-five year old bachelor...
Weighing a seventy-five year old bachelor... had gotten married, "no young"...

It is to be hoped that the voters next November will keep this picture in mind when they go to the polls.

Washington Merry-Go-Round

It has been noted that the battle royal has been raging in the White House...

The Band Played.

Carolee appreciated the suggestion we made last week...

50 YEARS AGO

A few spring chickens have been making appearances at the...
The President was a name for this war. On April 14th...

INFLUENCING EUROPEAN

There is one issue arising why Europe should take notice of the United States...

"An Editor's Random Thoughts"

Editors here and several other editors throughout the country have asked for reports of the editorial...

Down With Al Right.

"You just believe the world is alright.
And all views of life will change overnight."

Robison Was a Prophet.

John M. Robison, Kentucky's only Republican congressman, should be reappointed to the United States Congress.

Have You Bought A Bond?

Have you bought a defense bond, or as many defense stamps this month as you were asked to buy?

This question may be a little personal, but it is a question which your patriotic conscience if you're doing your part in helping to get us through this war.

This county has been given a quota of $7500 in defense bonds for this month.

The Mercury takes no credit for this. It is no time now for the taking of credit. Rather let it be said that Carlisle has come out of its shell and decided to show the youth that it is leaving its infancy behind it.

Most apt radio programs and apportion which will be broadcast Saturday afternoon before the Saturday afternoon radio program.

NEWS OF KENTUCKY

Managing editor of The Louisville Times since 1923, A. V. Yarnall was given a letter of commendation in recognition of his service.

Mr. Turner, about 25, new president at Eastern State Hospital, Lexington, was injured in a fall from a second story window.

Elmer Casey, 35, stood convicted of manslaughter in Louisville last week. He was sentenced to a term of 18 months in the State Penitentiary.

A charter was issued to Frankfort by Earl Dunnington of June 1, 1942. Martin county, authorized to acquire a capital stock of $200,000.

An Enroll certificate was issued to Earl Dunnington of June 1, 1942. Martin county, authorized to acquire a capital stock of $200,000.

A business leader of Glasgow for more than half a century, George E. Ellis, 72, died at his home Tuesday.

Wage and salary increases for 250 employees of the Kentucky Water Company were announced by the board of directors in Louisville Monday.

Charles H. Ellis, the new director of the Kentucky Civil Control Administration, was sworn in at the department of Commerce in Louisville Monday.

Motor trucks met head on with a 1940 passenger car on the Kentucky Turnpike near Paducah Monday.

George was the scene of a fire at the home of Mrs. E. Taylor of Christian, Ky.

It is not a matter of paramount importance with the safety of the nation at stake that you might have to register your vote in a motor car.

It is not a matter of paramount importance with the safety of the nation at stake that you might have to register your vote in a motor car.

It is not a matter of paramount importance with the safety of the nation at stake that you might have to register your vote in a motor car.

It is not a matter of paramount importance with the safety of the nation at stake that you might have to register your vote in a motor car.

It is not a matter of paramount importance with the safety of the nation at stake that you might have to register your vote in a motor car.

It is not a matter of paramount importance with the safety of the nation at stake that you might have to register your vote in a motor car.

It is not a matter of paramount importance with the safety of the nation at stake that you might have to register your vote in a motor car.

NEWS OF KENTUCKY

Managing editor of The Louisville Times since 1923, A. V. Yarnall was given a letter of commendation in recognition of his service.

Mr. Turner, about 25, new president at Eastern State Hospital, Lexington, was injured in a fall from a second story window.

Elmer Casey, 35, stood convicted of manslaughter in Louisville last week. He was sentenced to a term of 18 months in the State Penitentiary.

A charter was issued to Frankfort by Earl Dunnington of June 1, 1942. Martin county, authorized to acquire a capital stock of $200,000.

An Enroll certificate was issued to Earl Dunnington of June 1, 1942. Martin county, authorized to acquire a capital stock of $200,000.

A business leader of Glasgow for more than half a century, George E. Ellis, 72, died at his home Tuesday.

Wage and salary increases for 250 employees of the Kentucky Water Company were announced by the board of directors in Louisville Monday.

Charles H. Ellis, the new director of the Kentucky Civil Control Administration, was sworn in at the department of Commerce in Louisville Monday.

Motor trucks met head on with a 1940 passenger car on the Kentucky Turnpike near Paducah Monday.

George was the scene of a fire at the home of Mrs. E. Taylor of Christian, Ky.

It is not a matter of paramount importance with the safety of the nation at stake that you might have to register your vote in a motor car.

It is not a matter of paramount importance with the safety of the nation at stake that you might have to register your vote in a motor car.

It is not a matter of paramount importance with the safety of the nation at stake that you might have to register your vote in a motor car.

It is not a matter of paramount importance with the safety of the nation at stake that you might have to register your vote in a motor car.

It is not a matter of paramount importance with the safety of the nation at stake that you might have to register your vote in a motor car.

It is not a matter of paramount importance with the safety of the nation at stake that you might have to register your vote in a motor car.

It is not a matter of paramount importance with the safety of the nation at stake that you might have to register your vote in a motor car.

NEWS OF KENTUCKY

Managing editor of The Louisville Times since 1923, A. V. Yarnall was given a letter of commendation in recognition of his service.

Mr. Turner, about 25, new president at Eastern State Hospital, Lexington, was injured in a fall from a second story window.

Elmer Casey, 35, stood convicted of manslaughter in Louisville last week. He was sentenced to a term of 18 months in the State Penitentiary.

A charter was issued to Frankfort by Earl Dunnington of June 1, 1942. Martin county, authorized to acquire a capital stock of $200,000.

An Enroll certificate was issued to Earl Dunnington of June 1, 1942. Martin county, authorized to acquire a capital stock of $200,000.

A business leader of Glasgow for more than half a century, George E. Ellis, 72, died at his home Tuesday.

Wage and salary increases for 250 employees of the Kentucky Water Company were announced by the board of directors in Louisville Monday.

Charles H. Ellis, the new director of the Kentucky Civil Control Administration, was sworn in at the department of Commerce in Louisville Monday.

Motor trucks met head on with a 1940 passenger car on the Kentucky Turnpike near Paducah Monday.

George was the scene of a fire at the home of Mrs. E. Taylor of Christian, Ky.

It is not a matter of paramount importance with the safety of the nation at stake that you might have to register your vote in a motor car.

It is not a matter of paramount importance with the safety of the nation at stake that you might have to register your vote in a motor car.

It is not a matter of paramount importance with the safety of the nation at stake that you might have to register your vote in a motor car.

It is not a matter of paramount importance with the safety of the nation at stake that you might have to register your vote in a motor car.

It is not a matter of paramount importance with the safety of the nation at stake that you might have to register your vote in a motor car.

It is not a matter of paramount importance with the safety of the nation at stake that you might have to register your vote in a motor car.

It is not a matter of paramount importance with the safety of the nation at stake that you might have to register your vote in a motor car.

NEWS OF KENTUCKY

Managing editor of The Louisville Times since 1923, A. V. Yarnall was given a letter of commendation in recognition of his service.

Mr. Turner, about 25, new president at Eastern State Hospital, Lexington, was injured in a fall from a second story window.

Elmer Casey, 35, stood convicted of manslaughter in Louisville last week. He was sentenced to a term of 18 months in the State Penitentiary.

A charter was issued to Frankfort by Earl Dunnington of June 1, 1942. Martin county, authorized to acquire a capital stock of $200,000.

An Enroll certificate was issued to Earl Dunnington of June 1, 1942. Martin county, authorized to acquire a capital stock of $200,000.

A business leader of Glasgow for more than half a century, George E. Ellis, 72, died at his home Tuesday.

Wage and salary increases for 250 employees of the Kentucky Water Company were announced by the board of directors in Louisville Monday.

Charles H. Ellis, the new director of the Kentucky Civil Control Administration, was sworn in at the department of Commerce in Louisville Monday.

Motor trucks met head on with a 1940 passenger car on the Kentucky Turnpike near Paducah Monday.

George was the scene of a fire at the home of Mrs. E. Taylor of Christian, Ky.

It is not a matter of paramount importance with the safety of the nation at stake that you might have to register your vote in a motor car.

It is not a matter of paramount importance with the safety of the nation at stake that you might have to register your vote in a motor car.

It is not a matter of paramount importance with the safety of the nation at stake that you might have to register your vote in a motor car.

It is not a matter of paramount importance with the safety of the nation at stake that you might have to register your vote in a motor car.

It is not a matter of paramount importance with the safety of the nation at stake that you might have to register your vote in a motor car.

It is not a matter of paramount importance with the safety of the nation at stake that you might have to register your vote in a motor car.

It is not a matter of paramount importance with the safety of the nation at stake that you might have to register your vote in a motor car.

U.S. Marines - by Kent
Familiar to the world
COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF OF THE MARINES
The U.S. Marine Corps is a branch of the United States Department of the Navy...

One Job Risk
Claim is Filed
Unemployment compensation payments to insure workers under the Kentucky Unemployment Compensation Act...

Deaths
Hert Heckman, 56, of West Point, died in the hospital Monday...

Reddy Kilowatt says...
These Neighbors of Yours Spent over $2,047,285 of Their Pay in Kentucky Last Year!

Let Your Answer to Bombs Be BONDS
Buy War Savings Bonds and Stamps Today!

Do You Want the Politicians To Take Over YOUR BUSINESS?
KENTUCKY UTILITIES COMPANY INCORPORATED
F. J. HARDESTY, Manager