DEATHS

FLORENCE

Mrs. Tommie Florence, 63, wife of George Florence, died Friday at her residence near Morning Glory, this county, after an illness of four weeks. Mrs. Florence was a member of the Mt. Pleasant Methodist church.

In addition to her husband Mrs. Florence is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Jesse Sosby and Mrs. Strother Franklin, Nicholas county; three sons, Oscar Florence, Nicholas county; Lawrence C. Florence, Bourbon county, and Woodrow Florence, with the Army and stationed at Fort Thomas; and one brother, Henry Lyons, Nicholas county.

Funeral services were held at 4:30 Sunday afternoon at the Republican Christian church. The Rev. Homer Hill officiated. Burial followed in the Republican cemetery.

McCONNAUGHHAY

Mrs. Thomas Hamilton of near Jacktown, was notified of the death of her uncle J. C. McConnaughhay, pioneer resident of Pawnee county, who died Saturday afternoon at about 4:30 o'clock at his home on West Seventh street in Larned, Kansas. Although he had been in failing health for several years, his condition had been critical only since the Tuesday preceding his death. He had been ill with a heart ailment. His age was 82 years, six months and 28 days.

Mr. McConnaughhay came to Pawnee county 63 years ago from Kentucky. He was a prominent farmer and stockman in the county and was active in Democratic politics. He served two terms as county sheriff and was postmaster of Larned during the Wilson administration.

He is survived by his widow; six children; 14 grandchildren; and a brother, J. W. McConnaughhay of St. John.

John Collyer McConnaughhay, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McConnaughhay, was born October 11, 1850, in Jackson, Ark. When only six weeks old, he moved with his parents back to their original home in Nicholas county, Kentucky. Here he grew to manhood and all his life cherished the memory of the Blue Grass country.

In the fall of 1878, when 19 years of age, he came to Pawnee county with members of the family of the late John Blount. Mr. McConnaughhay's parents and family came the following year. He had lived in this community for 63 years.

Raises $33

A total of $33 was raised and turned over to national charities for the Army and Navy Relief Fund by Mrs. Elizabeth Wyrick, manager of the Lyric theatre.

Calves Higher On Local Sale

All Classes of Livestock Steady to Better With No Weaknesses Visible

With a calf market that was very strong, the Farmers Stock Yards Tuesday disposed of 744 head of livestock on its regular weekly auction sale here.

Heifers and steers were much stronger than on the previous week's sale, making the cattle market steady to better. Fat hogs were higher and stock shoats were about steady.

There were 254 lambs consigned to the market with top ewes and wethers reaching $15.

Receipts and quotations follow:

Hogs—Receipts 209; packers, $13.95; mediums, $12.75; shoats, $14.10 to $15.80; sows and pigs, $13.00 to $17.00.

Cattle—Receipts 143; steers $10.00 to $12.65; heifers, $9.40 to $11.00; cows, $7.40 to $9.30; cows and calves, $65.00 to $88.50; stock cattle, $23.00 to $48.50.

Sheep and Lambs—Receipts 254; top E. and W., $15.00; medium E. and W., $14.50; top E. and B., $15.00; medium E. and B., $14.50 to $14.75.

Calves—Receipts 138; top veals, $14.65; medium, $13.00; common and large, $11.00 to $13.00.

Total Receipts, 744.

Rev. Reagor is Still in Coma

Condition Satisfactory, But Crisis Expected Today

The following clipping was sent to the Mercury by Mrs. Mary Clay Brambler of Berkeley, Calif., from the "Oakland Tribune:" Rev. Mr. Reagor referred to Carlisle in his youth, while his father, the late Rev. W. F. Reagor was minister of the Carlisle Christian church, and will be well remembered here.

Still unconscious and in a critical condition from injuries received when he was struck by a runaway auto Wednesday, Dr. William Paul Reagor, 48, he was co-publisher with Gov. Keen Johnson of the Register, Mr. Saufley had been in poor health for several years and had been critically ill for the past three weeks.

Funeral services were held at 2:30 o'clock Monday afternoon at the home. The Rev. F. N. Tinsley, pastor of the First Christian church, officiated. Burial followed in the Stanford cemetery with brief services at the grave.

Active pallbearers were Sam P. Burnham, William O'Neil, T. D. Chenault Jr., Mac Coy, Maurice Farris and James A. Miller. Honorary pallbearers were Governor Johnson, T. B. Chilton, Fred Boker, Dr. Leon L. Solomon, Dr. C. E. Smoot, Judge W. J. Baxter, Judge Kindrick Moore, H. J. Greenleaf, Rodman W. Keenon, members of the Kentucky Press Association and employees of the Richmond Daily Register.

Mr. Saufley, a descendant of pioneer Kentucky families, was born in Oakland, Calif., May 23, 1882. He was a son of William Berry Saufley and Nannie Marshall Shelton Saufley.

FEDERAL CREDIT REGULATIONS NOW IN EFFECT

REQUIRE PROMPT PAYMENT OF RETAIL STORE CHARGE ACCOUNTS

All customers who enjoy the privilege of "open" or 30-day charge accounts with Retail Stores must now abide by uniform, nation-wide credit policies, as specified by Regulation "W" dated May 6, 1942, issued by the Federal Reserve System and based upon an executive order by President Roosevelt.

An Example:

Bills rendered June 1 covering charge purchases made in May (or prior) should be paid in June. Customers who do not pay such bills in June have only 10 days of grace (until July 10) before account is "In Default" under the new governmental ruling.

When a 30-day Charge Account is "In Default" the store must refuse to extend further credit to the customer until the default is corrected in accord with governmental regulations.

Regulation "W" does not diminish the normal conveniences or privileges of retail store 30-day charge accounts that are paid when due. The prime purpose of the regulation is to put a definite and positive limitation upon the excessive time in which an "open" account may remain unpaid. The ideal way to keep accounts in good standing is to follow established custom and form the habit of paying charge accounts in full within 10 days after receipt of bills.

Farmers Yard Continues High Selling Tuesday

Lambs Past $15 as Local Market Stages Steady to Stronger Auction Here

Continuing the high averages set on recent sales, the Farmers Stock Yard on Tuesday disposed of 685 head of livestock with prices described as "steady to strong" and with top lambs getting to a $15.30 peak price.

The market was one of the best of the season, despite the fact that hundreds of farmers had their minds bent on tobacco setting and stayed away, thus cutting down receipts considerably.

But if the quantity of livestock was off a bit, there was nothing off about the quotations.

Lambs which did not get into the top ewe and wether pen were firm all day, selling at the with top ewes and bucks hitting $14.75 and medium grades of both buck and wether pens selling at better than the four-teen dollar mark.

The cattle market was steady, and the veal calf sale was ready to a trifle stronger than the previous week's selling, quality considered. Top veals were at $14.65.

Receipts and quotations follow:

Hogs—Receipts, 102; packers, $13.65; mediums, $13.30. shoats, $2.80 to $15.25. sows and pigs, $14.50 to $17.00.

Cattle—Receipts, 102; steers, $8.70 to $11.70; heifers, $8.60 to $11.70. cows, $6.80 to $8.90. cows and calves, $66.00 to $77.00. stock cattle, $31.00 to $61.00; bulls, $8.00 to $8.80.

Sheep and Lambs—receipts, 384; top E. and W., $15.25 to $15.30; medium E. and W., $14.10 down; top E. and B., $14.75; medium E. and B., $14.10 down; common, $12.50 to $12.85; stock sheep, $11.80 to $15.00.

Calves—receipts, 96; top veals $14.65; medium, $12.50 to $13.00 common and large, $8.50 to $11.00.

Total receipts, 685.

At Junior Week

Due to tobacco plants being ready to set and the farmers being unable to hire other labor the County Agent reports, talking over the Junior Week this year than any year previous. Only two boys and three girls and one leader accompanied him to this annual event at Lexington.

Those attending are Kathleen Paris, Viola Ballard and Betty Wood, all of Nicholas county; Carlisle; Hugh Elton Nichols, Carlisle. Miss Dorothy Wagoner, leader, and Bartleville, accompanied them.

GIBBERISH

Roger Womack is quite a fox-hunter, I reckon, but the neighbors say they are going to get up a election and see if they can't find a hound that will eat grass. Roger is supposed to keep the grass cut up at his place but he has been so busy hunting, and having, and putting on this play of his that he hasn't gotten around to it lately. The neighbors are afraid that one of the children up that way is going to get lost in the yard and then it'll take a regular safari to go look for him.

Personally, I never heard of a grass eating foxhound but then I don't know anything about foxhounds other than that they look pretty sad at you out of their eyes.

George Gaffin and Dr. Bradshaw are two mighty fine fellows and they both have good soda fountains for these hot days. They both had a sign up

Politeness

This is the age of preciousness, evidently.

And the most precocious youngster heard of yet was one of the children over here being examined last week at the pre-school clinic at the Health department.

The child was missed—he was five years old—when his turn for examination came. But he was just outside the front door. Not wishing to disturb the clinic and wishing to observe all of the rules of social conduct, he had gone outdoors to smoke a cigarette.

Twenty-three to Be Taken Here

Draft Board Gets Call for More Men, May Leave This Month

Twenty-three more Nicholas county youths will be called in the Army of the United States, probably by the middle of the month, the Nicholas county draft board was notified on Monday, and it will swell the number of men drafted from this county to near the 100 mark. Another fifty mark, draft board records disclosed.

The actual date of leaving has not as yet been set, but it was thought that the definite call will come before the first of July. The board could not be certain of this, however.

Seventeen men left here on May 19, in the last previous call and 23 were rejected upon the taking of the physical examination at Fort Thomas. The fact that the present call is larger probably can be attributed to the fact that there were five places to make up, one draft board attache said.

Citizens Meet Slated Monday

District Meet of Ky. Christian Citizenship Council To Be Here

A meeting of the Harrison, Bourbon and Nicholas county district of the Kentucky Christian Citizenship Council will be held Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the Carlisle Christian church. Any interested person is invited to attend the meeting, it was announced here yesterday.

Invitations sent through the mail said that Rev. Cecil V. Crabb of the Carlisle Presbyterian church will preside, and will introduce Rev. Rhodes Thompson, Paris minister, who is the nominee for the Council in this district.

The 10-minute devotional program will open the session, directed by Rev. O. C. Seevers of Carlisle. A talk during this program will be made by Dr. J. L. Brasher, evangelist who is currently conducting a meeting at the local Methodist church.

Rev. Thompson of Paris will then deliver a "Statement of Purpose," after which Dr. H. W. Bromley, well known dry leader, will talk on "Strategy for Now." Other issues will be discussed by John W. Jones of North Middletown, and then will follow a round table discussion.

The June meeting is under the direction of the Nicholas County Ministerial Association.

On Trip

Five members of the "station wagon set" left here last week for Norris Dam, Tennessee and a week's fishing. Those in the party were E. E. Pfanstiel, Hicle Ashley, A. R. Fisher, Dr. Stanley Hutchings, Everett Smith. In the wagon were three outboard motors and enough fishing tackle to have extricated Jonah.

Two Cities in Germany Feel Allied Might

Morale of Germans Target as Bombs Dropped by Thousands

The Allied air force is going "all out" against the morale of the German people, and their effort during the past week was considerable.

After twelve hundred planes had bombed the German city of Cologne into submission one Monday night the Krupp munition works city of Essen felt the loads of a thousand bombers on Tuesday night. Both cities were reported to be in shambles.

It was sometime shortly after the war started that Adolf Hitler told his people that Britain couldn't bomb them. Those words bore but bitter fruit during the past five days.

And Hitler did no better in the desert of Libya. There his ace commander, General Von Rommel launched a major attack with his armored division but Tuesday the word came that the British had been prepared and that von Rommel was in flight, his legions crushed and lying burning on the desert sands.

In Washington, President Roosevelt called for declarations of war against Bulgaria, Hungary and Rumania, although we are already fighting them to all intents and purposes.

Fighting in the Orient centered in China where Japan launched two offensives, one threatening to pinch off a huge section of eastern China.

In Russia, the German offensive was delayed until they could get their defensive perfected.

School Opens

Seventy children were enrolled Monday as the Christian church started its annual vacation Bible school, which will continue through June 12.

Mrs. Estal Taylor is in charge of the activities at the school, and has announced the closing of similar school at the Carlisle Baptist church.

Prize Winning Poem Submitted By Sister of Late Mercury Owner

Mrs. Eugene Phillips of Paris, Kentucky, winner of a recent contest for the Kentucky sesquicentennial poem, and will be commissioned as the state poet laureate by Governor Keen Johnson at Frankfort June 6.

Hundreds of people congregated here Saturday to give Carlisle its biggest crowd in months.

Memorial Day homecomers joined the regular Saturday throng to make passage upon the sidewalks almost impossible at times, and hundreds visited the Carlisle cemetery to place flowers upon the graves of honored dead.

Business houses reported the best day in recent weeks, and a cold soft drink was a rarity when night came.

Not a loaf of bread remained in the grocery stores at closing time.

Nicholas Gets Higher Quota

Bond Sale for May Passes $11,000. June Quota Near Twelve Thousand

Nicholas county bought slightly more than $11,000 in defense bonds and stamps during May, it was announced on Monday, as word came through that a June quota of $11,800 had been set for the county.

Judge Innes B. Ross, in announcing that the county had gone beyond its $7,200 quota for May, said that he was deeply gratified at the manner in which the residents of the county had gotten behind the bond drive, and called for a "renewed effort" during the month of June.

"We have heard statements that the quota set for June is too high," Judge Ross declared. "All I can say to that is that the money is needed to win this war, that Nicholas county knows that the money is needed, and I believe she'll come through."

The $11,057 reported for May represented the actual cash paid for the bonds, Judge Ross pointed out, and is not a "maturity value figure." To get the maturity value, he said, you have to add another fifth, pushing it up to about fifteen thousand dollars.

Actually, the bonds sold in May was but a little shy of the higher quota set for June. But leaders in the bond drive axle declared themselves optimistic as to the chances of taking the new quota through and of surpassing it by the end of the month.

Cap Fulton In Barber Business 50 Years, Still Going Good

Fifty years ago yesterday a young Robertson county fellow came to Carlisle. He had a wife, a baby son, and a dollar in his pocket.

He arrived with his entourage at about 10 o'clock in the morning and proceeded himself to the St. Cloud hotel where the barber shop which he was to operate was located. There, just as though that lone dollar for the exact facts in the case, "I had all the other barbers in town working for me."

That was a long way since that time, has the Captain. He has played thousands of games of pool. He has smoked a million two for a nickel cigars. He has seen his children grow up, and leave him as they went out into the world. He has lost his wife, who was his real guiding light. He has been elected to public office. He has told countless tall stories. He has sprinkled hundreds of bottles of pink tooking colored liquid upon the heads of countless boys. He has nicked a thousand chins. And he has been a Carlisle at that time was operated by colored folk, and they said that Cap wouldn't last long. That the white gentlemen of the town, with their individual shaving mugs and their innate desire to be waited upon in the old school manner, wouldn't patronize a barber shop operated by a white man. But Cap showed 'em.

"In three months," he declared with his habitual disregard for the exact facts in the case, "I had all the other barbers in town working for me."

That was a long way since that time, has the Captain. He has played thousands of games of pool. He has smoked a million two for a nickel cigars. He has seen his children grow up, and leave him as they went out into the world. He has lost his wife, who was his real guiding light. He has been elected to public office. He has told countless tall stories. He has sprinkled hundreds of bottles of pink looking colored liquid upon the heads of countless boys. He has nicked a thousand chins. And he has been a good citizen.

Police Told To Bring In Jobless Persons

A work or fight order was issued here this week by Police Judge Herdy Myers, stemming from what he termed "unpatriotic idleness in a critical time."

Here is the manner in which the order was outlined:

Judge Myers, acting under authority given him by a city ordinance which declares loitering to be unlawful, has instructed his policemen to bring into police court any person found loafing, without a job and without prospects of a job.

Can Be Fined

Once they are before the court, unless they can satisfy Judge Myers that they have a genuine desire to work, they are subject to a fine of five dollars for the first offense. Second offenders can be placed in jail for a thirty days.

"There are too many loafers," Judge Myers declared, "who are frittering away their time when we need all of the production we can possibly get. Farmers are complaining of a shortage of work hands, yet there are able bodied men loitering in and about Carlisle streets who produce nothing and have no patriotic desire to produce anything.

"Unpatriotic"

"I maintain that such an attitude is unpatriotic, and I further consider it my patriotic duty to do something about it. The city ordinance places the right to do something in my hands, and I intend to do it."

This was not the first work or fight order issued in Carlisle, older residents recalling a similar step which was taken in the last world war. Those who remembered said that it proved "very effective."

Those who didn't remember but who know Judge Myers were unanimous in the opinion that he would make the present order an effective measure. They pointed out that when he is sure that he is right, he "drives right up and hitches."

"It seems a shame in some parts of the Myers went on, "that the very finest boys we have are taken from our community and sent to camps, while there are citizens we could afford to miss for a time. But my court will attempt to see that at least produce something for the war effort."

Council Meets

Only routine business was discussed Monday night as the Carlisle city council held its regular monthly meeting.

The submission of the equalization report was deferred until the July meeting as was the election of a city secretary. Percy McClanahan is the present incumbent in the latter post.

Three Posts In County Filled

Three appointments were filled Tuesday as the Nicholas fiscal court met in its regular monthly session at the court house here.

M. P. Nichols was rechosen county agent; Bob Hamilton was selected as county road engineer, and Miss Ruth Clark was chosen as county referral agent as the court filled these posts. Hamilton and Nichols were chosen by a unanimous vote and Miss Clark received four votes, her brother, Magistrate W. J. Clark not voting.

Old Rubber Is To Be Received

Every Person Coming to Carlisle Asked to Bring Piece of Rubber

Saturday and Tuesday have been designated as "Old Rubber Days" in Carlisle by the USO, which is now in the midst of its quota drive.

Every person who comes to Carlisle is asked to bring some piece of old rubber which is lying about the house, from a tire that has long since been discarded to a pencil eraser. If these are deposited in the court house yard, then they will be sold for the defense effort and the proceeds will be given to the USO.

"It will really be a matter of killing two birds with one stone," local USO leaders pointed out, "because the USO will benefit from the proceeds and the defense effort needs the old rubber."

FSA Will Take Applications

Tenants Wishing to Qualify May Come to Local Office

Although no final action can be taken until after the June 30 close of the fiscal year, the Farm Security Administration office here will receive applications for Tenant-Purchase loans, John R. O'Neal, manager of the office, announced this week.

The local office, which governs the FSA activities in Nicholas, Bourbon and Harrison counties, reached his present fiscal year quota of farms purchased several weeks ago. Twelve farms, three of them in Nicholas, were purchased by tenants during the 1941-42 year under the Federal plan.

Tenants wishing to make application can do so by visiting the FSA office in the subground floor at the Nicholas county court house.

Play Is Set Monday Night

Funzapoppin' Ready to be Given at Local School. Contests Billed

"Funzapoppin," the musical extravaganza which will be presented here Monday night, June 8, at the city school auditorium under the auspices of the Kentucky Home Militia, entered the final week of rehearsals with the cast well advanced in their roles, Miss Ruby Ruth Gerford, director, declared.

The musical comedy, a complete cast of which is presented on page four of The Mercury, was changed slightly from the original list as published last week, and it was also decided to present the production on Saturday as originally planned.

A Baby Popularity contest is being staged in connection with the play and various baby pictures have been placed in Carlisle stores. The voting will stop at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon although votes may be cast at the door Monday night.

A parade will be held Saturday afternoon, complete with floats.

Local Man Is Charged in Theft

A charge of chicken theft against Sam Smoot, Carlisle, was held to the September grand jury in Nicholas circuit court last week after examining trial was waived in quarterly court.

Smoot was arrested on a warrant sworn to by Maggie Sharp, colored, Henryville, who said that seven chickens had been stolen from her hen roost.

Sheriff Floyd Clark said that he had arrested Smoot but had found no trace of the chickens. Smoot protested his innocence, the sheriff said.

Damage Large

Fire of an undetermined origin caused approximately $75,000 in Paris Monday when it broke out in the J. J. Newberry store on Main street and caused damages in the A. and P. store next door.
