Rejection Of 4th Term Asked

Harrison E. Spangler, Republican national chairman, declared Sunday that President Roosevelt's renunciation of a fourth term would ensure unity and enable both major parties to agree upon a short 1944 campaign, as proposed by Frank C. Walker, the Democratic chairman.

Unless Walker can give "positive assurance" that Mr. Roosevelt will not accept a fourth term nomination, Spangler said, the Democratic chairman... "we must assume that you have already nominated Mr. Roosevelt and we have nothing to discuss."

Spangler addressed a 750-word letter to Walker, who suggested April 1 that the 1944 conventions be held in August, instead of early summer, and urged speedwhile a halt to fourth-term and other candidate talk while "we get on with the war."

"Many millions of our people believe in my party but many heretofore of yours, are determined that we shall not establish a dynasty in this country by exalting a President to a fourth term," Spangler said. "Already the war effort is suffering because so many in government positions are devoting so much time and thought into promoting this fourth term campaign. The people are speculating how much of the candidate's time will be given to winning the war and how much will be given to winning votes.

"I speak plain and will give to the people of this country satisfactory positive assurance that Mr. Roosevelt does not have the ambition for, and will not under any circumstances accept, a nomination for a fourth term, then we will welcome your proposal for a short campaign during war time. By such an announcement and promise, unity will be assured and we can all proceed to the task of decisively winning the war."

Walker's home reported he was not available for comment on Spangler's letter.

E R C May Enlist 17 Year-Olds

Men 17 to 26 years of age contemplating enlisting in the Army Air Service may get further information from W. B. Murphy, 316 E. Main[illegible], Carlisle, who is representing the Aviation Cadet Recruiting Commission.

To whom it may concern:

We are authorized to enlist in the Enlisted Reserve Corps any man who has attained his seventeenth birthday but who has not reached his eighteenth birthday, provided he is found otherwise qualified for general military service and provided the consent of his parents or guardian is obtained. Enlistments will be made in the following categories only:

Air Corps Enlisted Reserve for those who qualify for Aviation Cadet Training under current standards.

Enlisted Reserve Corps Un assigned.

Any man enlisted under this authority will not be ordered to active duty until he has attained his eighteenth birthday but at every instance will be ordered to active duty within six months after reaching his eighteenth birthday.

Cynthiana Soldier Is Killed In Action

Tech. Corp McClure Caswell, son of the Rev. C. M. Caswell of Cynthiana, was killed in action in the North African area on Dec. 28, according to a communication from the War Department received by his father last week.

Corporal Caswell, who volunteered for Army duty in Sept., 1940, was sent overseas in October, 1942. He was stationed with the 33rd artillery at Fort Bragg, N. C., before being transferred overseas.

The youth was born in Bourbon county, and resided in several other counties where his father had pastorates. He was educated at the Oddville high school. Survivors, besides his father, include his stepmother, Mrs. Elizabeth Caswell; four brothers, Cecil Caswell, Louisville, and Raymond Victor and Rankin Caswell, Cynthiana, and two sisters, Mrs. Erma Walker, Stanford, and Mrs. Ruth Cotton, Frankfort.

He is well known here, as his father was a former pastor of the Moorefield Methodist church.

Improved Uniform International SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON
By HAROLD L. LUNDQUIST, D. D.
Of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.
(Released by Western Newspaper Union)

Lesson for April 16

Lesson subjects and Scripture texts selected and copyrighted by the International Council of Religious Education; used by permission.

PETER AND JOHN IN GETHSEMANE

LESSON TEXT—Matthew 26:36-46; John 18:10,11.

GOLDEN TEXT—Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation.—Matthew 26:41.

The morning of that great day when atonement was made for the sins of all the world was a very sad one indeed. In the darkness of the night following the institution of the Lord's Supper, and the words and prayer of our Lord (John 15-17), He and His disciples came to the Garden of Gethsemane. Taking three of His disciples He went deeper into the shadows to pour out before the Father His soul, "exceeding sorrowful even unto death."

It is a sacred scene, and we feel a sense of awe and reverence as we approach it. Only those of us who are willing to give time and thought to the Word of God will be able to possess the requirements necessary for a true understanding.

The opportunities Mrs. Westfall continued will not end with Pearl Harbor. Second class but high rank can be had by all who qualify.

Experience and training obtained in civilian life will qualify you for better civil positions after the war. Also the Air Corps and Navy. Mrs. Westfall insited the young men who are going to be interested in enlistment to contact her for further details.

Merit Exams To Be Given

Persons interested in taking Civil Service examinations for positions with the Department of Agriculture, Division of Agricultural Conservation and Child Welfare and the Unemployment Compensation Commission to be given early in May must file their applications with the Civil Service Board by April 18. D. B. Palmeter, Personnel Examiner, announced that the State Personnel Council ordered that the May examinations be postponed postmarked not later than April 18 and be considered.

Positions for which examinations will be offered are:

Clerk-typist, $1200-$1563 annual; clerk-stenographer, $1320-$1680. field worker, $1200-$1560 annual; child welfare worker II $1080. child welfare worker II $1440-$1740; child welfare worker III $1740-$2220. child welfare consultant, $2100-$2580. account clerk, $1440-$1680.

Minimum qualifications for a majority of these positions have been established by the Council, emphasized, and salary ranges have been increased. Numerous positions in many counties, especially in the mountain area, will be rare are now open and will be filled from the eligible registers established by the examination.

Examinations will be given simultaneously in the following cities: Ashland, Bowling Green, Hopkinsville, Lexington, Louisville, Murray, Pikeville, Owensboro, Paducah and Somerset.

Applications may be obtained from the Personnel Council, Division of Personnel Frankfort, Kentucky, Selves Building, or the employment Service offices, county or city school superintendents and State Department of Welfare offices throughout the State.

Farmers Must Collect Points On Meat, Butter

The Office of Price Administration instructs farmers to collect ration coupons wherever they sell butter, lard or any other rationed product from the meats and fats program.

All farm sales, whether to consumers or to retailers, must be covered at current point values, OPA said.

The stamps farmers collect are to be turned in to local ration boards along with a report on a form which will be available after April 25.

Housewives this week will use red "C" coupons in buying meat, edible fats and oils and hard cheeses along with any "A" or "B" coupons they have left. Fewer points will be needed for purchases of meat, cheese, lard and pork cuts, the OPA having reduced their point values because they were moving slowly through stores. The reduced items include wieners, bologna, pork sausage, scrapple and pork neck and backbones.

Wait for the soil to be warm before you plant your beans. They are very susceptible to frost or chilling winds.

Selective Service Revamps Draft Classes

Monday Selective Service Headquarters in Washington announced orders revamping draft classes preparatory to inducting into the armed service this year every able-bodied male between the ages of 18 and 37, inclusive except the following:

1. Men employed full-time in essential farming.

2. Men irreplaceable in essential non-agricultural jobs.

3. Men whose induction would mean "extreme hardship and privation" to dependents.

The changes in classification dissolved dependency deferments for childless married men, added thousands to the list of "fathers class," created a special class for men whose induction would mean extreme hardship, and eliminated altogether the 3-B classification established a year ago for men with dependents and engaged in essential occupations.

Boards were also instructed to classify as fathers those whose children were born before last September 15.

The revised classifications for selective service pronounced Monday by War Manpower Commissioner aPul V. McNutt follow:

I-A—Available for military service.

I-A-O—Conscientious objector available for noncombatant military service.

I-C—Member of land or naval forces of the United States.

II-A—Men necessary in his essential civilian activity.

II-B—Man necessary to the war production program.

II-C—Man deferred by reason of his agricultural occupation or endeavor.

III-A—Man with children or children deferred by reason of maintaining bona fide family relationship.

III-C—Man with dependents who is regularly engaged in administration, support or endeavor.

III-D—Man deferred because induction would cause extreme hardship and privation to a wife, child, or parent with whom he maintains a bona fide family relationship.

IV-A—Man 45 years old, or over who is deferred by reason of age.

IV-B—Official deferred by law.

IV-C—Neutral aliens required to leave United States for training and service, and aliens not acceptable to the armed forces.

IV-D—Minister of religion or divinity student.

IV-E—Conscientious objector available for work of national importance.

IV-F—Physically, mentally, or morally unfit.

IV-H—Men 38 to 45 now deferred because their induction is not being accepted for military service, and men not seeking reclassified in case of eventual call.

Hopkins Improved; Kin Thank Dr. Gray

The condition of Frank Hopkins, preacher-farmer who is in the Mayo Clinic hospital, Rochester, Minn., suffering from two wounds received when police sought to kill Hopkins, was improved Monday, relatives here were informed.

Hopkins was indicted on a murder charge by a Nicholas grand jury last week. Officers sought to move him from the hospital to the county jail but were blocked by his two sons.

Our Lord's prayer showed great faith in God the Father, the terrible need of His soul agonies being blackened with the burden of sin, and a complete surrender to the Father's will. Here was true denial of self and submission to God, but it was nonetheless an appalling experience for our sinless Lord. To be went back for fellowship with His three trusted friends—and they were asleep.

Jesus recognized that the weakness of the flesh caused them to forget and slumber. We may profit by a little closer scrutiny of the scene. Was it a physical weariness? That doubtless entered in, but was it not also a spiritual one? How could they be? Was it not rather the weakness of indifference? They did not yet fully believe that their Lord was about to die. That is why they were quickly scattered in the hour of His need. It is also why we are not so serious in their sight. What it was not difficult to yield to the tired body and the deep, quiet desire, and fall asleep?

We are in much the same position. Danger—grave, spiritual danger—threatens our souls, and we, too, are asleep. We who call ourselves Christians have declined in holiness to stay awake and alert. But we have become at home in this world, the enemy seems to us with the assurance that all is well. time goes on and nothing too incredible happens. So we go to sleep right in the midst of danger, and down on even though the Master awakens us again and again.

What did He think of His disciples? Was He not disappointed? Was He not disgusted? Was He not disappointed in their failure? Was He not disgusted in their lack of interest? Was He not disappointed in their failure to be interested
