When Floyd Sallers got Federal Land Bank loan No. 100,600 to buy 99 acres of land, he celebrated by taking a trip to Louisville early in July to see what the Federal Land Bank was like. Here he is shown (left) being welcomed by E. Rice, president of the bank.

The loan brought to $317,125.50 the amount loaned in Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky and Tennessee by the Federal Land Bank of Louisville in its 26 years of operation. In addition it has made supplemental Land Bank Commissioner loans totaling $1,750,120.

The Sallers family is a typical, hard-working and thrifty family busy fighting the Axis on the farm front in Delaware County, Indiana. Until six years ago they were tenant farmers. In 1937, they put their savings into a down payment on the 80 acre tract where they now live. The balance was financed with a long-term Federal Land Bank loan that gave them until 1970 to repay in semi-annual installments at a four per cent interest rate. Although lightning killed two of their mules and fire destroyed their machinery and outbuildings, they mortgaged their farm to get out of debt and went to work. By paying off every dollar they could as fast as they got it, as only four years.

Jack is hand-over-heels! He has all and the whole world to himself—the most beautiful girl on earth. And when he isn't telling her so face-to-face, he's writing the sweetest letters to express his emotions at length.

Yet, Jack, love's a grand feeling! Yet if you're using a partner-line of your telephone exchange—and we hope you are—causing. A tied-up line of calls means congestion to the central office. It puts on added burden on equipment through which war calls must pass. This equipment can't be expanded to handle all demands—the precious material is going to battle instead.

So please, Jack, help keep the lines clear for your party line neighbors, the folks of your community, and the people handling vital war business that can't wait. Go to see the lady, and avoid telephoning her. If you do call, please be brief; she'll understand when you tell her why.

God Will Help

By William C. Taggart

(WNU Foreign-Press Chief, overseas assignment with The American Mercury)

I am afraid that the civilized world is more than a little bewildered by the events which have been taking place in Europe in connection with the current war.

I have seen these events go off like a thousand times during the last six years, and I have watched them during breakfast, during lunch, during dinner, during the theater, during the movies, during the opera, during the ballet, during the circus, during the prize fight, during the wrestling match, during the bullfight, during the cockfight, during the dogfight, during the rabbit hunt, during the fox hunt, during the duck shoot, during the pheasant shoot, during the grouse shoot, during the quail shoot, during the deer hunt, during the bear hunt, during the lion hunt, during the tiger hunt, during the elephant hunt, during the rhinoceros hunt, during the hippopotamus hunt, during the alligator hunt, during the crocodile hunt, during the snake hunt, during the mouse hunt, during the rat hunt, during the cat hunt, during the dog hunt, during the horse hunt, during the cow hunt, during the sheep hunt, during the goat hunt, during the pig hunt, during the chicken hunt, during the duck hunt, during the goose hunt, during the turkey hunt, during the guinea hunt, during the pigeon hunt, during the canary hunt, during the parrot hunt, during the parakeet hunt, during the monkey hunt, during the ape hunt, during the orangutan hunt, during the gorilla hunt, during the chimpanzee hunt, during the baboon hunt, during the mandrill hunt, during the lemur hunt, during the tarsier hunt, during the aye-aye hunt, during the slow loris hunt, during the potto hunt, during the galago hunt, during the tree shrew hunt, during the flying lemur hunt, during the tree pangolin hunt, during the ground pangolin hunt, during the aardvark hunt, during the aardwolf hunt, during the hyena hunt, during the jackal hunt, during the wolf hunt, during the fox hunt, during the coyote hunt, during the dingo hunt, during the dhole hunt, during the bush dog hunt, during the raccoon dog hunt, during the fennec hunt, during the corsac hunt, during the kit fox hunt, during the swift fox hunt, during the bat-eared fox hunt, during the crab-eating fox hunt, during the gray fox hunt, during the red fox hunt, during the arctic fox hunt, during the blue fox hunt, during the silver fox hunt, during the black fox hunt, during the white fox hunt, during the polar bear hunt, during the grizzly bear hunt, during the brown bear hunt, during the black bear hunt, during the spectacled bear hunt, during the sun bear hunt, during the sloth bear hunt, during the giant panda hunt, during the lesser panda hunt, during the kinkajou hunt, during the olingo hunt, during the cacomistle hunt, during the ringtail hunt, during the coati hunt, during the raccoon hunt, during the crab-eating raccoon
