BIBLE THOUGHT
THIS WEEK
Wings For Men
Isa. 40 — But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run and not be weary; and they shall walk and not faint.

WELCOME FOXHUNTERS

On two previous occasions, Mike and Nicholas county have had the pleasure and opportunity of entertaining the Kentucky Foxhunters of the Central Kentucky Association, and we wish to say in the first place that we had the opportunity to entertain the Kentucky Foxhunters Association of Kentucky at the Horse Show and Field Trials.

The Mercury desires to welcome wholeheartedly with an enticing greeting all of the visitors who are coming to Carlisle for the first time. The other times that the Foxhunters have been in the county seat of Nicholas county, we have failed to welcome them to our city, but we are now making amends for that oversight.

Welcome here is not only a welcome to Carlisle, but to the entire county. We want you to feel perfectly at home while you are in this city. We want you to make yourself comfortable and to come to this county and visit it as you see fit. We want you to feel that you are among friends with whom you have been associated for years. We want you to feel that you are among friends with whom you have been associated for years. We want you to feel that you are among friends with whom you have been associated for years.

Because the automobile has made it possible for you to come to this county and visit it as you see fit, we want you to feel that you are among friends with whom you have been associated for years. We want you to feel that you are among friends with whom you have been associated for years.

Remember, wherever you go in this county, you will be welcomed by the people. You will be welcomed by the people. You will be welcomed by the people.

Fisher wrote in 1870:

"I think that with the exception of the fact that the fox is destroyed, the fact that the fox is destroyed, the fact that the fox is destroyed,
