Executor's Auction

OF

77 ACRE FARM & PERSONALTY

ON

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 16

At 10:30 A. M.

As agents for the Executor of the estate of Robert Fullerton deceased, we will sell on the premises located 1 mile South of Carlisle on the Upper Jacksboro road, the farm and personal property belonging to this estate.

This farm is in one of the better agricultural regions of Nicholas county, and its productiveness is comparable with any land in the Blue Grass region. The location, the fertility, the state of cultivation, the accessibility of farm markets, the convenience of churches, and schools, materially enhance its desirability, either as a home or an income builder.

The farm contains 77 acres of limestone bluegrass sod, practically all in grass and readily cultivatable. Ample water supply and good fencing. Improvements consists of 5-room home, large tobacco barn, stock barn and other necessary outbuildings.

Immediately after the sale of the farm we will sell the following property:

All the household and kitchen furniture, including some antiques, wagon, mower, rake, harrow, corn sheller, mill, loose lumber, 2000 tobacco sticks and numerous small farming tools.

Prospective buyers will be shown the farm by Mr. Tom Mc Harray who resides on the farm or by the selling agents.

Possession delivered will be given.

TERMS—Personality, cash; real estate: 10 per cent on day of sale; three per cent deed is expected; 50 per cent in two equal annual payments.

Wooden Soldiers

An army captain was addressing the men there some months ago and remarked, "When I was a boy my father bought me a set of wooden soldiers. About the first day I left them out on the front porch and when I went to get them they were all gone.

A private in the rear rank spoke out, "Captain, I'll bet you a dollar I know where they are."

"Where?" asked the captain.

"Right here in the army," replied the private.
