BIBLE THOUGHT THIS WEEK

Let us not therefore judge one another any more; but judge this rather, that no man put stumbling block, or an occasion to fall, in his brother's way.—Rom. xiv. 13.

PRIMARY RESULTS

Only about 35 per cent of the 552,000 ballots cast in last year's election was the primary total of 197,446, divided Democrats 114,878 and Republicans 82,568. In the November's election the Republicans polled approximately 278,000 to the Democrats 270,000. Who would have wagered that the total results of the primary would have been different had the vote been larger?

The sum total of the political activity and the interest of the voter in the primary this year probably brought about the same results had there been greater activity, since it was generally believed that Senator Barkley would be nominated by the Democratic party and that James Park had the lead over any of his opponents with the probable exception of Circuit Judge Clarence Bartlett, of Hartford, who made the best showing of any of the other candidates in the race, by polling 22,103 votes.

Democrats cast more votes than Republicans in all the congressional districts except the Ninth, which has long been a Republican stronghold.

THE MOSQUITO PLAGUE

Citizens of Carlisle can render valuable and helpful assistance to the efforts of the County Health Department and City Officials, by giving the Health Department's suggestion their full co-operation, following instructions as outlined in another column in this issue of The Mercury.

The mosquito, with no exception, unless it be the house fly, is the most undesirable pest known. In addition to his annoying buzzing about one's head and the slightest bite with his sharp beak, the mosquito is a very dangerous carrier of disease germs.

It is commendable that the Health Department is conscious of the mosquito plague in Carlisle and with the assistance of all citizens the touch-annoying situation may soon become improved.

Bread and Butter Pickles

1 peck cucumbers, sliced thin
2 dozen onions, sliced thin
6 green peppers, sliced thin
2 quarts vinegar
10 cups granulated sugar
4 teaspoons tumeric
1-3 cup white mustard seed
1-4 cup celery seed
A few whole cloves

Sprinkle the cucumbers, onions and peppers with salt, let stand for two hours. Pour off any water and add rest of ingredients. Bring to a good boil. Seal in sterilized jars.

Those unlovely and unloved dime-like pennies will continue to plague and embarass you until they wear out or vanish.

Production of the zinc-coated steel penny was halted the first of the year, but officials of the mint have said those already in circulation would not be retired.

"They will wear out in a few years or just disappear," one official explained.

DEATHS

RESOLUTIONS

August 4, 1944

Whereas, It has pleased the Almighty to remove from our midst, by death, our esteemed friend, Mr. I. B. Ross, who has for many years occupied a prominent rank in our midst, maintaining under all circumstances a character untarnished and a reputation above reproach.

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That in the death of Mr. Ross the American Legion Post at Carlisle, Kentucky, has sustained the loss of a friend whose fellowship it was an honor and a pleasure to enjoy; that we bear willing testimony to his many virtues, to his irreproachable record, and useful life; that we offer his bereaved family our heartfelt condolence and pray that Infinite Goodness may bring speedy relief to their burdened hearts.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread on the minute book of Nicholas Post No. 17, American Legion, Carlisle, Kentucky.

REPUBLICANS OPEN WESTERN OFFICE

Republican party hopes have been revitalized because "the Middle West has left the fold of the New Deal," Herbert Brownell Jr., chairman of the Republican National Committee, said in Chicago as he opened the party's western office.

The Middle West "has accepted with enthusiasm the plain truth that Governor Dewey and Governor Bricker are destined to lead America in the solution of the problems of winning the peace," Brownell said.

The national chairman completed a two-day series of conferences with party leaders from 11 states with a final meeting of representatives of the G. O. P. in Illinois.

Let's Make the Sun Shine Brighter on the Old Kentucky Home

WHEN we talk about the greater development of Kentucky we should face the real facts about the conditions and factors that cause the development of any area.

The New York State Department of Commerce has just completed a poll among New York State manufacturers on the merits of that region as a business area and as a place in which to locate. The questions brought out necessary requirements for industrial development.

Ninety-seven per cent praised the State as a market; 92% said labor was co-operative; 91% approved the availability of raw and semi-processed materials; 92% were satisfied with transportation facilities; 91% approved fuel costs; 92% were satisfied with electrical costs and service. After these basic requirements came insurable tax laws, sound government and moderate living costs.

It is noteworthy that no single requirement—no matter how favorable—is enough to attract industries to any region. Yet some promoters of socialized utilities say government-owned T.V.A. power is Kentucky will draw industries to our State.

It is also noteworthy that the poll showed 92% of the manufacturers in that highly industrialized area approved electrical power cost and service. In New York State electric utilities are business-managed, like Kentucky Utilities Company.

The U. S. Census Bureau has proved the fallacy of the claim that T.V.A. power would bring industries to the State. A Bureau report stated that only 82 cents worth of electric power is used in each $100 worth of manufactured goods—against $53.40 for materials and containers, $22.60 for wages and salaries, and $20.61 for taxes, overhead expense and profit. It is evident that electric power is a very minor cost in the manufacture of the average article.

Kentucky has good labor, plenty of raw materials, adequate transportation facilities, plenty of fuel, satisfactory market outlets, fine climate, moderate living costs, and an ample supply of low-cost electricity.

Kentucky can be more rapidly developed if the people really want taxpaying industries that will provide plenty of work and supply State, county and city funds for better schools, roads, public institutions, health facilities, etc., and help pay for the war.

We must all work together to let industries inside and outside the State know they are welcome—that all groups among us (capital, labor, state and municipal officials, etc.) are on friendly toward taxpaying industries as the people are anywhere else.

We can make the sun shine brighter on the Old Kentucky Home . . . speed the development of our State . . . if we'll all pull together. Let's start now!

GIVE ME SOMETHING TO REMEMBER

By Toby Losin

Give me something to remember—
God
Give me pain
or I may feel their pain
And my eyes will not laugh
while theirs are hollow.
Give me something torn and bloody that I may not forget their wounds
as I work
and move my limbs

Make me see them
as they were—
Steadfast, unyielding,
Brave men . . . .
Tortured and broken
Blank spaces
where an arm once was . . . .

Make them haunt palmer thoughtless while I sleep
If they are scarred — in mind
Let me be scarred
Give me somthing to remember—
God

Surprise Birthday Dinner

Friends, neighbors and relatives gathered at the home of Mr. C. N. Smithson with well filled baskets for a surprise birthday dinner. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Ishmel, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ishmel, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Calvert, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Smithson and two sons, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Allen Smithson and daughter, Mr. Ervine Gaunce, Mr. Verdun Buchanan, all of Bourbon county; Mr. and Mrs. Grant Jacobs of Milford, Ky.; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lawrence and two grandsons and Mr. Fred Lawrence, of Fleming county; Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Sheen, Newport; Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Gaunce and two sons, and Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Terrell and family of Nicholas county.

Mrs. Marshall Entertained

Mrs. Egbert Marshall, of Oklahoma City, has been the incentive for several informal parties while visiting at the country home of her mother, Mrs. Fannie Sanford and sister, Mrs. Fithian Rye. On Wednesday evening, August 2, Mrs. Rye entertained a number of young matrons at dinner, and Mrs. Chester Shearer and Mrs. Roger Womack gave an all-day picnic at Hi-Ho camp at Parks Hill the following day in her honor.

Birthday Dinner

4-H Club Picnic

The East Union 4-H club held a picnic on the school lawn Friday afternoon, August 4, from 3 till 5:30 o'clock. There were 77 present including 4-H members and their parents, Mrs. Nell Brayfield, and County Agent Straw. The boys entertained themselves with a baseball game and the girls played basket ball. Pictures were taken of the club and the club leaders. The leaders did a splendid job serving lunch, which consisted of fried chicken, sandwiches, salads, pickles, cookies and cakes. The table showed no sign of rationing or scarcity of food, and best of all, the leader furnished plenty of home-made ice cream which all enjoyed. The sadest part was that it meant a farewell party for the 4-H leader and teacher, Mrs. Nell Brayfield, who has been here for the past eight years. The loss is Carlisle's gain.

"17 Babies this week—and he hasn't seen his own grandson!"

TONIGHT the Doctor was hoping to finish early, so he could take a two-hour train trip and snatch a look at his new 4-day-old grandson. But no—the phone caught him again. So now he's off to deliver Mrs. Johnson!"

Doctors have always been 'round-the-clock men. But since Pearl Harbor, with half of our physicians in the armed forces, each civilian doctor is more in demand than ever. He is on call today to an average of 1700 people.

Your doctor's minutes may be lifesaving time . . . too precious to waste. Help him save time for people who need him urgently, for yourself in an emergency, by remembering those four helpful things when you are ill:

PHONE HIM FIRST. Tell him as clearly as you can what's wrong. Let him decide whether he should come to see you, or you should go to him.

GO TO HIM whenever you are able. House visits take lots of your doctor's time—time when someone else may really need him urgently.

KEEP YOUR APPOINTMENT promptly, don't postpone it; make it at his convenience, so that he can plan his crowded hours better.

FOLLOW YOUR DOCTOR'S ADVICE to the letter—so that your trouble doesn't drag on, get complicated, or need extra attention from him.
