The World At War

By Charles M. Knapp,
Professor of History,
University of Kentucky

ON THE WESTERN FRONT: For the past week the news from Normandy and Brittany sectors has been heavily censored both by Washington and London. The break-through the previous week into and across the base of the Breton peninsula was so important and so damaging to the German defense of northwestern France that confusion created in the German lines made the Germans dependent upon such information as they could obtain from Allied sources. Strict censorship on the news of Allied advances left the German dependent upon certain field reporters who were able to capture. From the broad outlines of the movements and the places which both the Allied and German high commands have admitted to be in Allied possession at the week-end, commentators have been compelled to reconstruct their own personal estimates of what has occurred in the past six days of high speed, heavy fighting.

Some three weeks ago American armored columns broke through the German line in the neighborhood of Avranches and reached the coast at the base of the Normandy peninsula, driving on to capture Rennes and then fanned out into several columns which raced westward on the Breton peninsula toward Brest, northward to St. Malo and south toward Lorient, and then Nantes on the Loire and the Loire estuary. The garrisons of Brest and Britton ports have been big out in the harbor defenses against possible counter-attack by small Allied forces besieging them. From Rennes columns have been columns apparently drove ahead against feeble German resistance toward Angers and Le Mans. At the road Junction other armored columns swung eastward along the coast met the columns from the south at the beginning of the week and struck north toward Argentan and possibly toward Chartres, some 60 miles south of Paris. Thus by those movements the German armies in flank north of the Loire River was turned and either struck northward toward the Seine River west of Paris, and the Allied front more than doubled in width.

Not of least significance, however, is the fact that in the forward drive of the American armies and columns the presence of millions which threatened to reach the rear of the German divisions which were desperately trying to prevent the British and Canadians from breaking through the strong positions defending the lower valley of the Seine, the northern port of Rouen .The Germans held on about Falaise mid-way between Caen and Argentan. As the result of the week's operations in Normandy and Brittany the largest part of the German force in Normandy has now only a narrow eighteen mile escape corridor left to the Seine and temporary safety. At this moment the Allied effort is directed at entrapping those German divisions approaching the west of Chartres and south of the Seine. As the Montgomery-led his British division-Saturday the decisive action of the war in the west may be expected in the next few days. Outflanked, almost surrounded, and harried night and day by thousands of Allied bombers, the German troops are in a most precarious situation.

THE RUSSO-GERMAN FRONT: After two weeks of relative quiet upon the central or War-saw front there are indications that the Russian armies there have been reorganized and prepared to move against the defenders of Warsaw. Polish city. To the north Russian columns have been moving ahead and have reached the Baltic at least in one place and generally have placed the German division guarding the Baltic states and East Prussia in as desperate a fix as are those about Falaise in Normandy. The Polish guerillas recently-Moscow have had a hard time this week but are apparently holding out. Their uprisings was not timed with Russian offensive plans.

THE PHILIPPINES: Five times this week American bombers from Gen. MacArthur's command have raided airfields on the Island of Mindanao. That is one sign that an American invasion may be expected after the monsoon season ends.

ANNIVERSARY HELD AT BLUE LICKS PARK

Famous Battle Ground Visited By 300 On 167nd Anniversary Carlisle People On Program

About 300 persons attended services observing the 162nd anniversary of the battle of Blue Licks at Blue Licks park Saturday.

With Judge Gordon Sulzer of Maysville presiding, music included Prof. E. E. Pfanstiel, Carlisle; Mrs. Grant E. Lily, Lexington; Russell Dyche, London, director of state parks; W. J. Curtis, Mt. Olivet; Roger Womack, Carlisle; Dr. J. T. Davis, Richmond, and Judge Samuel M. Wilson, Lexington.

The invocation was given by the Rev. Robert Von Thurn of Maysville. The Carlisle city school choir under the direction of Mrs. M. C. Shearer, sang "America, My Own."

Mr. Pfanstiel was the first speaker introduced. He stated that it was a very happy and honorable occasion, to gather here not only to honor those who 162 years ago fought the battle here, but our boys overseas—good news and lasting peace, and to honor a man, who most of you know was a genuine builder, Judge Innes B. Rose, who put untiring time and energy to the development of the Blue Lick State park.

"Many changes are taking place daily, reminding us that 'swiftly the tide of life flows on, and quickly passing on,' and the shortness of human life. Some have compared life to a stage, some, a span, a meteor and a bridge. The highest destiny of man is good citizenship, and influence goes on forever through time and into eternity. Our Master tells us that he who would be greatest among you, must be a servant to all.' and this can be truly said of Judge Ross.

"He was a leader in Church, Lodges, Schools, Red Cross, Oppelled Children, and an original member of the Blue Lick State Park Commission. Willing to serve in humble walks of life, not seeking honor or publicity. One of men in service."

Mrs Lily read a tribute to Mr. Ross, and reviewed works of the first commission, and their last meeting.

Mrs. John Bailay, of Middletown, O., sang several songs, "Mile of The Way," dedicat ed to Judge Ross and his close friend, Mr. Taylor B. Ardery, who had also gone the 'last mile of the way.'

Russell Dyche, of London and Frankfort gave a short talk on the future of state parks and Parks

The choir sang "America the Beautiful," and "God Bless America," favorite patriotic song of Mr. Ross.

"Hon. W. J. Curtis", "Pigua Billion-dye Historian, was then introduced, and gave a short talk.

Attorney Roger Womack spoke in lavish praise, of Judge Ross's leadership among the younger generation

Dr. Davis gave echoes from the meeting ten years ago, of personalities, the program and dedicated tribute to Judge Ross. He said that during his year as Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, he traveled 28,000 miles, and made a plea for sufferers in the 1939 Flood

Judge Samuel M. Wilson spoke on Blue Licks park, how organized and financed.

The assembly sang, "America," and the choir concluded the program with "Must Be The Tie That Binds."

Members of the Thomas family holding their annual reunion, were present at the services.

Milk Ceiling Prices Increased

An increase in the ceiling price of fluid milk sold at wholesale and retail for Nicholas county has been announced by the Lexington District Office of the Office of Price Administration.

The new retail ceiling prices will be 14 cents for quarts and 6 cents for half pints.

The new ceiling prices at wholesale will be 12 cents for quarts and 5-3-4 cents for half pints.

Retailers may charge even cents when a fractional part of a cent is involved in the sale of a single bottle, but in multiple sales the price must be computed on the fractional basis.

Fluid milk special milks such as buttermilk are increased on the same basis as standard milk.

Under the new regulation milk distributors may increase the price paid to producers by 23 cents a 100-pounds for each half-point increase in butterfat content at the wholesale and retail level.

Milk dealers other than retail outlets, adjusting prices under the new regulation are not required within five days after such adjustment to notify the Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration, Union Commerce Building, Cleveland, Ohio, by letter, of his maximum prices established, together with a statement of his previous maximum prices.

U. S. Army casualties have been 112,073 in France in two months.

Nicholas County Farmers May Buy Lumber For Essential Maintenance and Repairs

Farmers who buy lumber in Nicholas county now may purchase small amounts for essential maintenance and repair of farm service buildings or implements or for other approved uses essential to wartime food production by signing an application at the lumber yard, according to E. E. Herndon, Chairman of the County AAA Committee.

A total of 300 board feet is the largest amount that may be obtained by a farmer for approved uses from dealers in any one calendar quarter without first getting a Farmers' Lumber Certificate, Mr. Herndon said. These certificates carry an AA-3 rating.

Any Nicholas county farmer who needs more than 300 board feet of lumber during any calendar quarter should apply to the AAA office at Carlisle, for a Certificate. The County AAA Committee has authority to issue Farmers' Lumber Certificates for essential maintenance and repair use and for other approved uses essential to food production, and for new construction other than residences, where the cost is not over $1,000 per calendar year for the farm. The committee also will issue certificates for lumber to meet "emergency" farm constructions which must be approved by the War Production Board, the County AAA Committee receives farmers' applications and makes recommendations to the state committee.

Farmers' Lumber Certificates are rated orders, with ratings as high as any assigned to non-military users, Mr. Herndon stated. Dealers can use the ratings to place certified orders with their suppliers "In fact," Mr. Herndon said, "these certificates offer the only opportunity to keep enough lumber in the county to meet our essential farm needs."

OBSERVATIONS

WE SEE AND HEAR
By Monty

SAVING MAN HOURS

Eating with a group recently it was noticed that one of the group was using a toothpick to eat with after time talking to others. It was observed on this occasion that probably a much better lunch time could be used for a better purpose in these busy times. Instead of the "fellers," "fighters", "drivers", etc., in the bird tribe

RAISING TOBACCO

Doubtless there are a large number of folks, who do not grow the popular Kentucky crop of tobacco, who know comparatively little about what a tobacco grower has to do to produce and market his crop. Here are some of the things he does: "sows" the bed, "weeds" the bed, "pulls" the plants, "sets" the plants, "worms and suckers" the tobacco, "primes" it, "tops" it, "cuts" it, "sticks" it, "houses" it, when it comes into "ease" he "strips" it, "ties it in hands," takes it for a ride to the market and accepts the price the buyer offers—he does not make his price when he sells.

TO MAKE IT UNANIMOUS

H. H. D. submits this one this week: "It is reported that Hitler plans to force into the German army all feeble-minded Germans. If he does, it'll be unanimous from top to bottom."

WASTE PAPER COLLECTIONS

The waste paper collection last Friday resulted in more than two truck loads being picked up and deposited in the old armory. There is also a quantity of paper in the new armory. All this will be shipped soon to a central point for loading onto freight cars for its final destination.

Friday, September 1, will be the next waste paper pick up day.

CLARK CASE NOW UNDER ADVISEMENT

Attorneys Argue Legal Phases of Case. Many From Carlisle Attend Hearing

Circuit Judge J. C. Dedman took under advisement Monday at Cynthiana the legal dispute over whether Floyd Clark was entitled to his former job as sheriff of Nicholas county. He told opposing counsel to submit legal authorities for their contentions and said he would rule later on the question.

Clark was elected as sheriff by the Nicholas Fiscal Court June 22, but was not sworn in and took over his duties of the office.

Nicholas County Judge Walter Shepherd said Clark was absent from his office for two or three weeks" and that he had "disappeared" without renewing his bond, due June 1.

In his petition, filed by Attorney Raymond Connell, Floyd Clark declared the fiscal court had no authority to remove a sheriff from office and that Governor Simeon S. John W. Anderson to the office was "void and illegal."

Attorneys argued the various legal phases of the case for nearly three hours. Judge Dedman gave no indication when he would rule on the case. No witnesses were called to testify.

Quite a large number from Carlisle attended the hearing Monday at Cynthiana.

PASS WAVE EXAMINATION

Jean Bean, of Paris, a graduate of Carlisle high school, has passed an examination to enter the WAVES and is waiting for a call to be inducted.

SAFE DRIVING

Safe driving is simply necessary as it is important. Let us be careful.

Rules Announced For Christmas Mail To Men Overseas – Dates Sept. 15 to Oct. 15

"Save strong string and box material and start to plan shopping." Postmaster General Frank C. Walker advises Americans in announcing the rules for mailing of Christmas gifts for Army and Navy personnel overseas.

This year the Christmas mailing period for both Army and Navy overseas forces is the same—September 15 to October 15. After October 15 no gift parcel may be mailed to a soldier without the written request from him.

Among the more important rules for Christmas mailings to the armed forces overseas are the following:

The parcel must not exceed five pounds, and must not be more than 15 inches in length or 36 inches in length and girth combined. It will be marked "Christmas parcel" so that it may be given special attention to assure its arrival before December 25.

Not more than one parcel may be mailed in any one week to the same member of the armed forces by or in behalf of the same mailer.

Relatives and friends who know that the personnel in the armed services to whom they plan to send gifts are at far distant points overseas should not wait until the opening day—September 15—in the mailing period. Last year the mailings, causing concentration of great numbers of packages in the final days of the mailing period, threatened to defeat the program. It is stressed that success can be assured, with the limited personnel and facilities available, only if the public gives full co-operation through prompt mailing of the overseas gift parcels from the opening of the mailing period.
