Dramatic Class Plays Postponed

The Dramatic Class will provide an evening of entertainment on Tuesday night, Feb. 29, when they present 3 one-act plays in the City School Auditorium. The program originally scheduled and advertised to be given Friday night, Feb. 25th, has been changed to Tuesday night, Feb. 29th in order not to conflict with the county-wide Red Cross meeting to be held on the same night. This could not be presented on a subsequent Friday night because of basket-ball tournaments.

The class is under the direction of Miss Jane Ross and the casts are made up of members from the class. Each member of the class will appear on the stage in one of the 3 plays. The student directors of the plays are the members of the National Thespian Dramatic Honor Society. The plays will begin promptly at 7:30.

The first play is "Merry Molly Malone," a comedy which tells of the experiences of the pretty and vivacious Irish lass Molly Malone, played by Vivian Rose. Other members of the cast include: Winebell Barrentine, of the super classes; Jimmie Wrench; Nella Ingalsbe, the snobbish wife of Lester Swinford; Ika Barrington, the equally snobbish daughter, Helen Bishop Stenbenson. Sara Beard Barrington, their democratic son. Pool Ockerman, Bridget Flynn, Mrs. Barrington's housekeeper, Roberta Bachus, Ireland's most wealthy young man, Jake Earlywine. The action takes place in the living room of the Barrington's house in New York. The cast for the second play, "Spring Wrench: Nella Ingalsbe, Winebell Barrentine, of the super classes; Ika
