BIBLE THOUGHT

THIS WEEK

What are the Lord's to be glad and He shall strengthen us on the Lord—Nm. XXIII, 14

Leaving on Him, make with His own will.

And with strength from Him shall the utter weakness.

Life's task fulfill."

—John W. Whitier

THE WAR LOAN

During the next four weeks all through, energy, interest and alliveness is centered on one thing—to go on with the top bill of the 4th War Loan. Nicholas county's quota is $225,000. With 11 percent of the county's population and co-worker Betty Womack will have a tremendous task raising the campaign during the next four weeks. By dividing the amount up into weekly quotas, it represents $56,250 per week.

Nonpayment of these weekly quotas, and all other forms of adversity will center around the 4th

War Loan. It is the general policy of daily conversation. This means first of all, when you need of the fighting forces is to be the greatest in all history, of munitions. So if you have those surplus dollars, quarters, dimes or pennies, do not let them sit idle on your shelves, but make preparations are being completed for the invasion tank which will take her out of her own soil.
