

The Washington Panopama

Washington (CPB) - Democrat in the National Capital are too busy about the New Deal decision to support Henry Wallace for the vice-presidential nomination on the fourth ticket. It is suspected that the Palace Guard influenced President Roosevelt to re-nominate the late Mr. Wallace re-nominate. The late Mr. Wallace was accepted against the wishes of the rank and file in 1940 and they have no desire to accept the unrealistic and political light-weight Henry again. This sponsorship of Wallace by Mr. Roosevelt might increase the intensity of Southern and other Jeffersonian Democrats revolt against the fourth-term desire of President Roosevelt. It would increase the intensity of the New Deal fourth-termers. If Messrs. Roosevelt and Wallace re-nominate a president, they will divide the party or take some other action to make their opposition to a fourth-term effort possible. The reason is very short and early. People in the business are prepared for inevitable "early" when crops are damaged by drought. It is really too early to begin to plan for the next year. There can be no real national emergency in the next year. The only recent year of promising boom, the whole war effort would be finished in the next year. Many observers, however, are sure that the government's very inflated food rationing program will be a serious war-time problem on sugar. A deficit of two or three million tons of sugar is expected for the year. The effort to raise the United States price for sugar is expected to be the first step in this year.
