FARM LABOR NEEDED

The farm labor supply in Nicholas county is expected to be a major problem this season Mr. Clay Richey, farm labor assistant, will work in Nicholas and Robertson counties, effective May 8 to September 15, in an effort to locate and help supply his headquarters will be at the County Agent's office in Carlisle and Mt. Olivet.

In expectation of rushed farm work in tobacco setting and hay harvest, Mr. Richey will make a survey of available farm workers in Carlisle, Henryville, and other points in the county. Farm workers are asked to register now at the County Agent's office. This week high school boys of Carlisle have been interviewed through the cooperation of Professor F. E. Pfanstiel in an effort to find out the number available for farm work this summer. A meeting with all boys of the Carlisle high school will be held Friday.

The supply of farm labor is expected to be lower than last year, however, it appears that more boys will be available to do more farm work Individual farmers and farm machinery operators are urged to keep the machinery going and make their labor needs known early. The neighborhood "swap of work" idea has much merit and will relieve shortage to a great extent.

Last year extra farm help was brought in and placed on a number of Nicholas county farms. While this is a very difficult project to locate farm help at a time of scarcity, all possible efforts will be made to help farmers locate extra help needed.

Paratroopers Hit By Air Of Sickness In Dizzy Flight

Ride Across Mediterranean Tougher Than Conflict With Enemy.

BATTLE CREEK, MICH.—"The first plane loads of American paratroopers dumped on Sicily suffered more from air sickness during the rough ride across the Mediterranean than they did later at the hands of the enemy."

Parachutist Lieut. Anthony Pappas, 22 years old, Chicago, grinned when he made the statement to a reporter at the army's huge Percy Jones general hospital at Battle Creek, Mich. And the treatment he is undergoing, as one of the Illinois casualties recently brought back from the Mediterranean war theater, is not for air sickness, however.

"Talk about your high winds! he exclaimed. "The day we left Sicily for flying to Sicily put our big transport plane through more hair-raising aerobatic stunts than a Hollywood director ever thought up in a celluloid rodeo."

Greener and Greener.

"It bucked, and heaved, and reeled to stand still for minutes at a time. And then it would go straight down! I could feel myself getting greener and greener. One of the boys wanted to know if we were sure we had a pilot.

"Another said he hoped they'd shoot him quick and end his misery when he reached the ground if they spoke for all of us."

There were paralysis from adjoining beds.

"How about the jump itself, when you finally arrived?" asked Major Stanley Hoyles, the interviewer.

Major Smith, who was a military intelligence officer on the American general staff, was in Sicily for a time, as a fragment when German planes bombed American forces installations during a beachhead in the Sicilian invasion. He is a former engineer with the Chicago park board.

Lieutenant Pappas grinned.

"Whoosh! . . . That wind sure slapped us around when we stepped off the plane," he said. "The crowd must have been waiting for us. It was dark, but I could see shot or many tracer bullets at us it looked like the Fourth of July.

"Hitting the ground knocked me out. When I got my head up I was crawling on my stomach to find other members of our detachment. I must have crawled 200 yards before I met six of our men. One had a leg fractured. We dragged him along and then more men joined us. By this time it was daylight.

They Start Shooting.

"Ahead of us was a big barracks building. We started shooting at it and they blasted back at us. I was flat on my stomach when a burst of machine gun fire hit right in front of my face. I had sprayed dirt over my right eye. I plastered a bandage on it and aimed with my left eye.

"After two hours they surrendered. Then, for another hour we found out that another detachment of American paratroopers had been attacking the barracks at the same time from the southern side.

Lieut. Colonel O. Rire Jr. of Chicago, a concussion patient, asked if this is a very difficult operation.

"Well," Lieutenant Pappas replied, "they've been doing it since A German soldier ran out of the barracks with a white towel waving. One of the Americans threw a grenade beneath the train of gliders and the soldier came running boards waiting for it to explode. The German dived out a back door and was caught him and kidded him. Then he surrendered to us. He said the train hadn't exploded."

"A fact," verified Major Smith.

"No," said Lieutenant Pappas, "in his excitement the American forgot to release the grenade pin."

Cadet Blinded in Air Lands His Plane Safely

CHICO, CALIF.—Stricken blind suddenly while he was at the controls of a one-man training plane, Aviation Cadet D. D. Seale, 23, of Taft, Calif., landed the craft successfully yesterday under calm guidance from a radio control tower.

Lieut. Col. C. W. Thaxton, in the army field control tower, heard Seale radio that he had gone blind. Thaxton talked to him calmly, instilling confidence in Seale. Every move of the plane was directed by Thaxton to Seale over the radio, even to a sharp bank necessary to bring the plane to the ground safely.

Physicians at the army hospital said Seale's blindness was of a temporary nature.

Bandit Slain as Victim Acts to Save Draft Card

MILWAUKEE. — A holdup man was shot and killed by a store owner captured today because their intended victim objected to the grocer's draft card.

Sixteen Registrants Called For Induction

Sixteen registrants will go for pre-induction examination tomorrow, June 1, Selective Service officials announced today.

Those from Carlisle and Nicholas county who are called for examining Tuesday in Frankfort to proceed to the building of the Falmouth dam were Judge Walter Shepherd, William Conley, Bud Stanifer, Jack Linville, E. R. Sampson, Geo. Scott, Elva Kendall, Will Clark, and Henry Gaines.

The indictment followed an announcement earlier in the day by Governor Willis that he had issued a pardon to Patrolman Page, like-wise charged with murder in a warrant sworn to by Smith before Judge Hughes, of Pike Circuit Court.

The whole power of the Commonwealth will be used to maintain law and order and to support officers who are charged with the enforcement," Governor Willis said, "if such officers are unless it is the essential to the safety of the public and to sustain the law which state."

In recommending the pardon, Dummit told the Governor it also was approved by Colonel Roger Morris, Highway Patrol Director, Martin Wilson, Bell County attorney, and Judge Robert Vanbever of Pineville.

The double slaying followed by the suicide of Smith, occurred in the Eighth district. He was named representative at a special election June 4, 1938, to succeed Fred M. Vinson, who resigned, and has been re-elected for every term since then.

TWO ARE'INJURED; ONE SERIOUSLY IN CAR WRECK

Two young men were injured early Wednesday morning near Cynthiana when the car in which they were traveling was wrecked about 5:30 o'clock.

Wayne Shea, 17, son of the late Joe Shea, of the Maysville road, received concussion and is at the Cynthiana hospital where he is said in a serious condition. It was believed that young Shea has a wife, however, efforts to locate her were futile. He is not expected to survive, according to latest reports in the hospital. He is from Cincinnati, O.

Buddy Bradford, who gave his address as Cincinnati, was the less injured and was treated and released. Charles Dallas are shown in the picture group.

OBSERVATIONS

WE SEE AND HEAR
By Monty

TIMING THE PREACHER

Did you ever notice how folks in the congregation look at their watches when the preacher starts his sermon? No other performer is so closely watched unless it is the race horse. A person may sit in the movie on a political gathering and not look at his watch for the passing of time. But when the minister rises to preach it is a common habit to time him closely and if he exceed the allotted 20 or 30 minutes, folks will become impatient and restless. Why is it because preaching is boresome?

PERSONALITY

It has been said in times past, when a person is observed to possess a pleasing personality, that he was a "million dollar" smile. To-day, with all the troubles and heartaches of a distorted world and broken homes, it is more difficult to wear that daily "million dollar" smile, but it is still worth it, and more in these times.

NO DESTINATION

Some folks seem to be in about the same plight as the calf that was taged and shipped to a certain destination. When the colored porter was asked where the calf was to be shipped, he replied, "I don't know, but he is shewed up his destination." It is a hopeless plight when an individual has no definite plans and purposes in life other than to aimlessly drift along. The one who helps to keep progress moving is the person with a purpose, a definite destination in mind and who has not shewed up his destination.

POTATO BUGS

The best plan to rid your potato patch of the potato bug pest is to get at the job early and kill all the large "shell back" bugs and destroy the cluster of yellow eggs found on the under side of the plant leaf. If this plan is followed two or three times while the plants are young, much of the worry of the potato bug evil will be eliminated. This suggestion comes from good authority on growing potatoes. Try it on your patch.

GRACE EWELL WINS $2,732.00 IN SUIT

Court Makes Award To Defendant In James H. Martin Estate Decision

A $2,732.00 verdict in favor of the defendants was handed down last Thursday afternoon in Circuit court here. The verdict was rendered after a two-day session of the court with Judge Dedman, of Cynthiana, presiding.

George Noland, administrator of the estate of James H. Martin, deceased, was the plaintiff in the case. The plaintiff had made a plea through the court that the defendant, Grace Ewell, file with her answer a copy of her claim of $2,600 for services as housekeeper and nurse for James H. Martin, who died two years prior to his death.

At the conclusion of the trial, the jury, composed of Ernest Henry, Robert Shannon, Homer Cassell, Jr., Ben Hicks, Malcolm Gaunce, Harrin McClanahan, W. B. Hedges, Robert Templeman, Elbert Ockerman, E. R. Miller, Silas Fee, back, and Henry Reid, returned a verdict awarding Grace Ewell $2,500 for services as housekeeper and nurse and $232 for funeral sum ed at auction by the administrator of George A. Noland.

The case attracted widespread interest. Attorneys were Conley & Conley, Cynthiana, and W. B. VanDeering, Cynthiana, for the plaintiff, and Albert Barker, Cynthiana, and Roger Womack, Carlisle, for the defendants.

PICTURE OF COURT HOUSE

Mrs. J. N. Kenton exhibited this week at the Mercury office an old picture of the Nicholas county court house, built in 1893. Shown in the picture are Jim Hillock, county treasurer; Joe P. Kenton, county judge; W. J. Kenton, magistrate. Mr. Kenton was first elected to fill the vacancy caused by the illness of Jim Laughlin. Other magistrates were Bill Smith, Pinelille, and Charlie Wise. Ben Robinson was county attorney and John A. Campbell, county clerk. A Mr. Hyron was the constable at the time he sold Charles Dallas are shown in the picture group.

WILLIS PARDONS HWAY PATROLMAN

Grand Jury Indicts Arthur Smith At Pineville As Aftermath of Double Slaying.

Arthur Smith, Pineville, was charged with the murder of Jeffrey Houston Green, state highway patrolman in an indictment returned by the Bell county grand jury, as an aftermath of a gun battle near the court house in Pineville last Thursday.

The grand jury report a was contained a request that "no bond" be fixed for the defendant pending his trial in Bell Circuit Court before the grand jury investigation. Bond was fixed at $5,000.

Green was one of two men killed in the shooting affray. There were more than thirty years. Judge Ross would have presided, had he not been seriously ill at his home. In turn, Dr. Cowan asked his daughter, Miss Jane Ross, to represent her father. Miss Ross gave a brief address to the "Basement," which was much enjoyed.

Mrs. Shearer rendered one of her choice solos with Mrs. Fightsmith as accompanist.

Mrs. Goulding then directed a one-act play, using the men of the party as characters. "The Gathering of the Nuts," which was well received.

Miss Talbert, in a charming manner, presented Mr. Pfanstiel with a brief case, a gift from the faculty in appreciation of his services, and Pfanstiel, in turn, presented Mr. Feeback with a summer hat, also from the faculty. Fightsmith, in behalf of friendship and expressing their regret in losing from the faculty.

Tribute was also paid to Mrs. Womack, Mrs. Higbey, and Mr. Fightmaster, who will be greatly missed in coming years, as they will not be present to look at the school, patrons and pupils alike.

Undulant Fever Causes Decided

(By County Health Department)

Recently there has been a great deal of interest manifested locally in the disease, Undulant Fever, particularly in the areas immediately surrounding Malta Feaver, Goat Fever, Brucellosis, Bang's Disease and Mediterranean Fever.

The disease occurs in humans in two forms: (1) Acute Undulant Fever, (2) Chronic or Insipid Type.

The disease is caused by an organism or bacteria of the Brucella group which have been divided into 3 main groups. (1) Brucella Melitensis, occurring principally in goats, (2) Brucella Abortus, which cause are primarily in swine. All of these bacteria are capable of infecting both humans and cows and hogs.

The disease develops in humans from 16 to 25 days after exposure. The disease is rapidly increasing in this country. In 1925 there were 2,000 reported while in 1937 there were 2,497 cases in the United States.

The disease is characterized chiefly by one symptom; namely by the irregularity of the fever. The patient runs a low grade undulating temperature; he feels listless, has no energy, wants to rest all the time. Almost all cases are indigestion and uncertain in their onset; headaches, chilliness, loss of appetite and a general aching of the body are frequently the first symptoms noted.

The disease is practically always transmitted to humans through the drinking of milk from infected cows; this is also true of the Bovine form of Tuberculosis which is so prevalent in the British Isles. Eating the meat of an infected cow is not dangerous. It is for these reasons that the Health Department advocates the Bang's Test for all milk cows, and why! In order to prevent the public, that the Federal government and the Kentucky State Board of Health requires the testing of cattle brought in to this state from another for resale in public markets.

No farmer should purchase a cow for dairy purposes unless that animal is certified after laboratory testing by proper authorities, to be free of Undulant Fever or Bang's Disease.

$370.94 NEEDED TO FINISH RED CROSS WAR FUND

Since the second call was made recently for a continued drive to complete Nicholas county's quota in the Red Cross War Fund Drive $479.06 has been raised. This is $70.94 short of the $1,050.00 required to reach the county's quota.

Amounts given toward the quotas are set out below:

	Quota	Am't. Col.
Carlisle	$300	$432.30
Headquarters	125	23.50
Bartonville	75	19.20
Moorefield	200	2.00
Myers	75	2.00
East Union	100	.00
Parks	100	.00
Ellisville	75	.00

County committees, who appear to be lagging behind in their quotas for the Red Cross, are urged to attend at the time of their church or Sunday school meetings. This procedure seems necessary due to the fact that the school terms have ended and it is now impossible for the teachers to get their regular volunteer workers organization to solicit funds. County chairmen say the committees must respond to the call.

FIFTH WAR LOAN DRIVE ON JUNE 12

Nicholas County's Quota Is $270,000. County Organization To Be Set Up At Once.

The Fifth War Loan Drive to raise $270,000 in this county will get under way June 12. I. B. Ross and Roger Womack will be the County Chairmen. A worker's organization is to be set up ready for action on the day the drive opens.

The sale quota for the nation is $16,000,000,000 of which $6,000,000,000 must be raised from individuals. A large volume of sponsored newspaper advertising is absolutely vital to the success of the campaign and the U. S. Treasury Dept. has asked Mercury to do its part.

Your co-operation is urgently requested when you are asked to join with others in the sponsoring of six weeks advertising campaign.

The quota for Nicholas county in the Fourth War Loan Drive was $225,000 and this was reached with an added quota of $45,000 more it will require some real organization and sacrificial effort on the part of every citizen of Nicholas county.

The boys on the beach-head and on the invasion fronts must be supported in this vital drive and those of us who remain at home must not afford to let them down. The quota for Nicholas county must be and will be made. Make up your mind now to contribute in every way you are called upon to this the most crucial hour in American history.
