BIILE THOUGH
 THE WILKS
 A good name is better to choose than great riches, and living fac-estly than silver and gold.
 Proverbs 22:1
THE RECOGNITION
 GAVEL
 After reading much of the available literature on the subject, the legislature to establish a Burous to investigate and report on annual fund of $100,000.00 to be used for the purpose of investigating, terminating, and subdividing and assessing municipalities, various utility districts, and other organizations, non-profit or limited, for the purpose of determining Federal identification Administrator, Mr. W. H. Harrison, Jr., has all that is being given to economy in Federal spending in the postwar years ahead.
 There certainly is no crying demand for public agencies to be sure telephone companies. These, the automobile industry and surfed roads have made farmers very dependent on telephones than ever before.
 There is every indication that the telephone is being promoted from sources more investment in the government-owned business than in partnership with private enterprise. The present program is a part of the farm is being used to the extent of the telephone from the electric utility industry and the telephone industry has been the whole of it.
 Fifteen gallons of bluestone lime will treat 100 feet of 12 feet wide. The first treatment should be made in the from seeding of the beds until the second treatment should be made when the plants are three to four inches high.
