"Good Ole American Soil..."

Now, to phone home!"

The South is honored. It has been chosen as the place where thousands of returning heroes will first set foot on their native soil.

You may see some of them kiss that soil. And you may see many more waiting hopefully to get a long distance call home.

How about all of us skipping some long distance calls? How about keeping the necessary ones brief? Let us gladly accept this inconvenience for those who have given so much for us.

NICHOLAS HERO CITED FOR VALOR POSTHUMOUSLY

Staff Sergeant Andrew B. Metcalfe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund G. Metcalfe, of Carlisle, has been awarded the Silver Star Medal posthumously for gallantry in action April 22 in Italy.

The letter received by his parents here from the War Department follows:

I have the honor to inform you that, by direction of the President, the Silver Star has been posthumously awarded to your son, Staff Sergeant Andrew B. Metcalfe, Infantry. The citation is as follows:

SILVER STAR

"For gallantry in action on 22 April 1945, in Italy. Sergeant Metcalfe displayed outstanding gallantry in attacking hostile positions on the crest of Box Hill. When Company 'E' approached the town of Centro, five machine guns opened scathing fire on the attacking platoon. Continuously advancing in the face of murderous fire Sergeant Metcalfe led his men in a furious assault on the German position, forcing the remaining enemy to withdraw. As he reorganized, a mortar shell charged the hostile strongpoint, he was struck by enemy fire and fatally wounded. His fearless action and courageous leadership were important factors in the destruction of the German force. This gallant deed has won the praise of his fellow soldiers and upholds the fighting traditions of the armed forces."

The decoration will be forwarded to the Commanding General, Fifth Service Command, Fort Hayes, Columbus, Ohio, who will select an officer to make the presentation. The officer selected will communicate with your widow in the matter.

May I again express my deepest sympathy to you in your bereavement.

Sincerely yours,
Edward F. Witsell
Major General
Acting The Adjutant General

R. M. Dreman has been appointed Headmaster of the Millersburg Military Institute and will begin his duties on August 15, at which time he and his wife will move to Millersburg, according to an announcement made by Col. W. R. Nelson, superintendent of M. M. I.

Mr. Drennan is formerly from East Prairie, Mo., after graduating from the high school there he attended the Western Kentucky Teachers College, Bowling Green, and graduated in 1934 with a B. S. Degree. He received his Master Degree from the University of Kentucky in 1940.

Guide Books Are Exhausted

Mrs. Dick Humphrey, president of the American Legion auxiliary, said Wednesday that the copies of the American Guide Book for Nicholas county have been exhausted. There have been requests for additional copies. If enough requests for the book are received to warrant another edition, this will be done, she said. Persons desiring copies should contact Mrs. Pumphrey.

Owings Named New Chief Of Police By City Council

Clyde Owings, who has been acting chief of police in Carlisle for several weeks, was elected to the office by entire consent of the city council here Monday night. He is to take the place of Orville Gantry, who submitted his resignation and who has been off duty for some time due to illness. The entire police force was retained under the motion which brought about the naming of Mr. Owings. W. F. Gaunce was awarded the city's gasoline business for the next year by the council.

The contract was awarded by Mayor Talbert and Councilmen Harper, Van Bever, Fisher, Shearer and Buntin. Mr. Scott was absent. Also present were Roger Womack, city attorney, and Arthur Mulkin, city clerk.

The line which carried which carried unanimously the Kentucky Utilities Company will be asked to erect a series of new lights on Main street in the business section of the town and around the courthouse area on adjoining streets. The lights, to be placed on ornamental standards, are more effective in producing needed illumination, it was stated. A motion to purchase materials to make necessary "taps" for sewers carried without dissent.

Blake Scores Big Majority

Senator Stanley Blake scored a substantial victory in his race for re-election to the state legislature by rolling up a majority in the home precincts of Nicholas of 1,281 votes over his opponent, H. C. Patterson, of Cynthiana. He also carried Brackens county by 520, Pendleton county by 681, and Grant county by 1,186.

Mr. Patterson carried his home county of Harrison by 1,186, but fell far off short of exact 3 by his majority in Pendleton. Patterson received Robertson county by 53 votes.

The total majority for Senator Blake was 2,428. Early in the count at the Nicholas county court house, he stated that he would carry his district by 2,500. In winning the election Senator Blake will become one of the third conservative terms as state senator of the 20th district.

Sheep Poisoned

Veach and Spencer Taylor report that they have lost several sheep due to the practice of unknown persons dumping small quantities of poison salt on land along the Butlerville fill. It is believed that the sheep lick the batteries and thereby become poisoned.

CHAPLAIN GIVES FAMILY DETAILS

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hamm, route 3, this county, have received a letter from Army Chaplain Paul J. Roetling, written July 12, expressing sympathy because of the death of their son, Cpl. Edgar Hamm, and giving details of the unfortunate occurance. Cpl. Hamm, the letter stated, was killed instantly while in the performance of duty when an excavation upon which he was at work caved in.

The chaplain stated that it was his privilege to give Cpl. Hamm a Christian burial and that he was laid to rest with full military honors in a beautiful American cemetery in Northern Italy. Mr. and Mrs. Ham received the following about their son:

"The men of this Company mourn the loss of Cpl. Edgar

CPL. EDGAR L. HAMM

Hamm, a member of this organization since its activation. He was killed in action July 3, 1945. It was with great sorrow this morning news was received of his passing. He was a true friend. He was always willing and happy to help out and was called 'a regular guy' in this army. Heads bowed with a prayer in our hearts for him, we extend our sympathy to Corporal Hamm."

Cpl. Hamm was twenty-three years of age and attended Carlisle high school and was a member of the Carlisle Christian church.

Cpl. Hamm was with the 338th Engineer General Service Regt. He has been overseas two years, and besides his parents, is survived by two brothers. Pfc. Tommy Waugh, stationed in England, and Pfc. Raymond Hamm, stationed in Germany.

Tick Buried In Child's Head Is Cause Of Illness

Relatives here said Wednesday that little Ruth Bain Wilson, four year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wilson, of Moorefield, who was taken to a Louisville hospital several days ago when it was feared she had developed infantile paralysis, was found this week to be suffering from a nervous disorder because of a tick which had become embedded in her head.

The discovery was made while she was having her hair combed and an irritated place in her scalp revealed. Although it is reported that her condition has not been too hopeful, it is believed that the removal of the tick will bring about a rapid improvement.

PLANNING POLL SHOWS FIGURES

Dr. G. T. Cowan, chairman of the post-war planning committee here, and Judge Parker Ross, in charge of the committee's information service, said Wednesday that there have been about 17 per cent of the completed questionnaires returned by veterans to citizens here, have been tabulated. This represents a total of 254 cards of the 1,770 turned in so far by workers in the survey. It is believed that most of the cards be completed and turned in so that the work of ascertaining information will not be interrupted.

Of the questionnaires already indexed the following statistics have been given out: Of the total 148 residents of the county plan to remodel homes after the war; 126 plan the buying of new equipment; 38 plan new electrical equipment; 44 hope to install water in homes and acquire bath rooms; 126 set out the needs for additional employers and 66 need farm hands; there will be some 34,000 rods of fencing built.

The information already filed shows that of those who have received hospitalization during the last five years, 78 per cent were hospitalized outside the county.

Dr. Cowan stated that he has been informed that a national broadcast beginning August 12 and extending for 52 weeks on Sunday afternoons at 7 o'clock will be conducted over the ABC national network devoted to economic development.

Pfc. Waugh Is Awarded Honor

A Certificate of Merit has been awarded Pfc. James T. Waugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Waugh, Carlisle, Route 1, in recognition of his prowess as a commoner and "conspicuously meritorious and outstanding performance of military duty" in European campaigns of the army.

Pfc. Waugh is with the 338th Engineer General Service Regt. He has been overseas two years, and besides his parents, is survived by two brothers. Pfc. Tommy Waugh, stationed in England, and Pfc. Raymond Hamm, stationed in Germany.

LAMBS REACH NEW HIGH ON LOCAL MARKET

Lambs, fast becoming a feature of the local stock sales, with the addition of the new subsidy, effective August 6, reached a new high on the Carlisle market bringing a top price of $16.65. PRESENT OFFICIALS BUT ONE TO RETAIN OFFICES RESULT OF PRIMARY SATURDAY

Shepherd, Anderson, Sugg, Womack, Hazelrigg, Owings Are Winners; Blake, Prichard and Barker Are Returned To Office In Hard Fought Races

All former officials of Nicholas county in offices contested in the Democratic primary election here Saturday were re-elected with the exception of one, that being in the race for county attorney in which Roger Womack, the challenger, defeated his opponent by a narrow margin to win the office.

Incumbent officials in state and district offices also turned back challenging candidates and emerged as victors in the contests for State Senator, State Representative and Commonwealth's Attorney.

Judge Walter Shepherd, candidate for re-election as county judge, defeated his opponent Lacy Barnett, present circuit clerk by a majority of 508 votes. Miss Sugg, present county clerk, was re-elected to that office over Grimes Caywood, former editor of the Mercury, by the substantial majority of 833 votes. This lead was computed, however, when W. S. Owings, present jailer, piled up a margin of 1,753 votes over Veach Taylor, which placed him at the head of the ticket.

John Anderson, present county sheriff, defeated his opponent, L. B. Barton, by a majority of 829 votes. Walter Hazelrigg, present tax commissioner, was re-elected in a three-cornered race over Ben Alexander and Harry T. Burgess, the latter being in the order named. Hazelrigg received 663 votes more than Alexander, his nearest opponent.

After a see-saw count which was only settled in the last precincts, Roger Womack held a slight lead he established late in the count over Army Major William H. Conley, the incumbent, who is now away in the Pacific war, and crossed the wire a bare 56 votes ahead of the service man.

A total of 2,587 votes were cast in the primary in this county, which exceeded by less than a hundred ballots, the estimate of County Clerk Sugg, made before the election.

In the magisterial races, Leonard Alexander defeated Jesse Ockerman in the second district by 31 votes. In the fifth district, A. K. Hostetler was over his opponent, Ray S. Hamilton, by a majority of 71 votes.

H. Stanley Blake, present state senator and campaigner par excellence, was successful in his third consecutive bid for the office for this district composed of Nicholas, Harrison, Robertson, Bracken, Grant and Pendleton counties, receiving his popularity as a public official by a whopping majority in the district, to gain what was given a lead of 1,281 votes in his home county of Nicholas.

Edward F. Prichard, Sr., incumbent Representative of the Nicholas-Bourbon district, and winner of his race, was outrun in Nicholas county by C. T. Gatewood, who led the three-candidate field here by a margin of 274 votes. Gatewood received 1,011 Nicholas county votes, Prichard, 737, and J. M. Alverson finished third with 389 votes.

In the race for Commonwealth's Attorney of the district composed of Nicholas, Robertson, Harrison and Pendleton counties, Albert H. Barker, the incumbent, received 1,107 votes in Nicholas county, giving him a valuable lead here of 213 votes over his opponent, G. L. Tucker. Barker won by a slight majority in the district, the official returns not being available here at this time.
