PLEASANT VALLEY

Tom Payne is the corresponder.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Herndon went to Carlisle and I told them to get me a little memrandum book and I told him to go to Gerge Gaffen and get it and he went and I ast him what did it cost and he said nothen. He said that Gerge Gaffen sent it to me. That was nice in him and I sent him words what did he want me to put in the news down here for him and Henry Herndon said he said put any thing I wanted to. Well I have got nompen good, nothen bad. He has got a good plase of buisnen and doing well and a nice clane plase and he said he like's my news just fine and keep it up. I thank him.

Mr. and Mrs. Neazel Vanlandingham and family of near Ripley, Ohio spent Sunday with his pople and her pople near here.

Henry Herndon want to know how long would haft to rain to wet the ground for 3 feet deep?

Henry Hunt killed hoges Tuesday. Audrey Earlywine killed hoges Tuesday. Lloyd Evens killed hogs Tuesday. Thamas killed hoges together the same day.

Tom Payne and Joe Hunt help Henry Hunt and his truck Lack ta Ewing to have it fixed a gain. It was all out of fix. It has been run to long. The man his name who he got the truck from is Jim White was up to see Henry Hunt the other day.

Audrey Earlywine leves his truke seten up hhind Lloyd Evens store. The other day he went ta go to Buckhannon in it and he come to find out that some body had stolen all the gase out of it.

Gerge Gaffen has got a good father that live near Hedgeville ers and got a good brother that lives down some whare near Cynthiana, Ky.

Henry Hunt said that he had a hen and 7 chicken that wayed a bout one pounds and a hafe each and thay all went and he dont no whare thay went but thay went. He said thay rusted near the house and near the pike that thay ust to call it W. P. A. road It runs from Pleasant Valley to the Lower Lick.

Tom Payne and Henry Hunt and Joe Hunt run a hot race of stripen tobeco. Henry Hunt got 16 sticks striped and Joe Hunt got 18 sticks striped and Tom Payne got 15 sticks striped.

A while back preacher George Mitchell who lived at Popler Run has moved at Tunnel Hill in Charley Maxey house out on that old dorte road and Perry McCord who was Jaller of Fleming county has bought a plase at Popler Run that preacher George Mitchell lived at and Perry McCord bought has moved at the plase at Ponler Run and Mrs. who is jaller taken Perry McCord plase.

Earl Wade of Carlisle come to ste city and left ecle and went on to Henry Herndon and left nile nere and he left nile at Henry Hunt.

Tom Payne got a letter from one of his old frends that lives near Headquarties, Mr. Kenton Maffett, a hard luck man had lots of bad luck.

Henry Hunt who is stripen tobeco down at Jim Herndon barn taken Tom Payne and Joe Hunt and his self. He started his truck and he run a bout one hundard yeards from the house and went dead and we all had to walk a bout 2 miles. All 3 of us had a feet race. Henry Hunt and Joe Hunt come out 1st and Tom Payne run 3 just 4 minutes late. The 2 men are young and Tom Payne is 66 years old and past. That is close for Tom Payne. I drother worke all day then to walk that far. That is true.

Ramon Stout of Carlisle come to Lloyd Evens store and on his way back to Carlisle he stoped at Mary F. Campbell and bought most of her chicken and he payed her 8½ dollars for them. Mr. Stout is a nice man. Like to see him come to our city. She had to sell them for that the automobels was killing them. That is true.

Jim Herndon has got afel nice lot of winter wood cut down near his home. He is getten all set for the winter.

He horse that was hurt in a ware fence he thought was going to die has got well.

The 2 horses that Clay Dayton had got in to the barn and eate till was foundered are a bout well.

I under stand that Earl Spigle who lived on Dog Walk road in Thurman Gountce house has moved to Tom Osbey house at the end of the road and Mr. Fight lives in Gounce house on Dog Walk road. He is a good man.

Dan Campbell, Silas Campbell and Mrs. Hazel Biddle and children spent Sunday with Mrs. Mary F. Campbell.

Jack Humphries was near ore house Nov. 18 and H'ary Hunt and Joe Hunt was with him.

Mrs. Hellen Hunt who has been on the sick list is better and able to be out and every body are glad to see her out again.

Tom Payne taken a long tripe to get hicknuts for Mrs. Almer Hammonds who runes a resteren and a store at Cowan, Ky. Went over on Clarnce Price farm and got a bout a hafe of a bushell Seen Henry Hunt and Cecial Mitchell and some other man dident no lisen to the Fox hounds.

Mr. and Mrs. John Barton of Ewing, Ky. spent a little while a round to Mr. and Mrs. Hughes and Henry Letcher Sunday.

Ben Campbell spent Saturday night with Mrs. Mary F. Campbell and Silas Campbell and Tom Payne Nov. 17 and 18. He came on Saturday night and left on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Stone Parsons went down to Henry Herndon to see if he could buy some corn.

The bridge on W. P. A. road the plank is so loose that can here them rattle for all most a hafe mile when any thing run over it. I think the road scraper will haft to run over the road again soon.

The little larm clock that I had fixed is a bout to go to the bad. It got so wont run good.

Robert Hopkins of Tunnel Hill and Cecial Mitchell and Henry Hunt was up on the hill linsen at there dogs the other day and Henry Hunt lead the other dogs 3 hills a head of the others dogs. Cecial Mitchell dogs run 2 and Robert Hopkins' run 3.

The little larm clock wich would not run much Tom Payne found out what was the matter of it. Was run down and wound it up. It runs all o k.

Mr. and Mrs. Audrey Earlywine stop at the barn on there way home.

Henry Hunt sold a baby beafe cafe it wayed 460 pounds. They taken it to Flemingsburg Saturday Nov. 17.

Maxey Enrolled At University of Cincinnati

Gatch Nelson Maxey Jr., Carlisle, World War II veteran, has enrolled as a freshman in the College of Engineering and Commerce, University of Cincinnati, campus authorities reported.

Maxey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gatch N. Maxey Sr., of this city, is a graduate of the 1940 class of Carlisle high school. He is majoring in the co-operative course in chemical engineering at the university in Cincinnati.

University authorities describe the Cincinnati co-operative plan of technological education by which students spend alternating periods in campus classrooms and laboratories and in industry, as tailor-made for returning veterans. By the time their educational benefits under the GI Bill of Rights have expired, they will be earning enough to support themselves at the university. Other freshman classes will be accepted by the College of Engineering and Commerce Jan. 7.
