CITY AUTHORITIES TO TAKE ACTION

Minors Must Be Barred From Pool Rooms Under Ordinance Complied With.

According to information furnished this week for publication by city authorities, there is a need for more stricter enforcement of city ordinances relative to minors frequenting pool rooms in the city of Carlisle. A statement from the representative of the City Council to the press is as follows:

"In order to suppress Juvenile Delinquency in Kentucky, the Governor has set up a board to make a study of the conditions and to make recommendations. The postwar menace in Carlisle as far as minors are concerned is bad. The City Council of the City has seen fit to take Police Court action and are publishing herewith a copy of the existing ordinance relative thereto. The City Council urges the cooperation of the Churches, the Schools, the Nicholas County Youth Center Organization, and above all the parents in helping to remove or eliminate this existing evil. Parents who take no action to control their children may be prosecuted for contributing to Juvenile Delinquency and minors who persist in acts of delinquency will be cited to the Juvenile Court.

It is not definitely known at this time who will succeed the Rev. Taylor as pastor of the Carlisle Christian church.

The resignation becomes effective in sixty days.

JAPANESE PRAY TO ANCESTORS

The Japanese people observed their national holiday, Kigensetsu Day, Sunday, February 11 by praying to their ancestors for victory and the Tokyo radio asserted that the nation would fight on to triumph, no matter what the cost.

Emperor Hirohito spent the day in offering prayers, receiving government officials, and making a report to his ancestors, the broadcast said.

Admitting that "at present the war situation has become grave and we are not absolutely in an advantageous position," the Tokyo radio said Japan was going to "win through to victory, no matter what happens."

"STOOPIES" BANNED IN NEW YORK STORES

"Stooping" customers reported your store clerk pal has been slipping to you from under counter when other customers were looking—got the gong in New York City.

Daniel P. Woolley, regional OPA administrator, announced after informal pow-wow with jobbers and wholesalers that starting "early this week," stores would put their cigarettes, if any in full view on counters—not under.

That doesn't mean everybody is going to get smokes, though. Woolley said only 60 to 70 per cent of the 1943 cigarette consumption would be available this year.

MILITA ISSUES CALL FOR MISPLACED EQUIPMENT

A recent check up shows that many articles of military equipment issued to the Carlisle Unit of the Kentucky Active Militia by the U. S. Army and the Commonwealth of Kentucky, have been lost from the Armory, says Capt. Harvey Gaunce. This situation has arisen because of the negligence of the men to whom it was issued who have taken it home for one reason or another and have failed to return it to the Armory. All families whose members have left the United States service and the Kentucky Active Militia since Pearl Harbor, should look carefully in their homes for various types of equipment and to assist in getting the items returned to the Armory. Since 1941 there have been almost 200 men associated with the Carlisle Unit and it is believed that many of these men who are now in the U. S. Service left home before making a thorough search for equipment they had taken home, which should have been returned to the Armory. It is urged that this equipment be found at once and those people finding same should see that it is delivered to the Armory or call Capt. Harvey Gaunce or Roger Mundstock.

Capt. Botts Killed

Capt. Seth Botts, 31, with the American Field Army, was killed in action January 26 in Belgium, according to information furnished his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mason H. Botts, and his wife, the former Mary Short, of Huntington, W. Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Mason H. Botts live at Shawsburg.

Besides his parents and wife, Capt. Botts is survived by a two-year-old son, one brother and six sisters. C. C. Ratliff, Carlisle, is an uncle to Capt. Botts.

Captain Botts, who had been with the First Army since arrival in France last June, saw active fighting both in France and Belgium, receiving the Purple Heart, the Bronze Star and the Silver Star citations. In his last letter home, dated Jan. 19, he told of some of his activities, including fighting on Christmas Day. Captain Botts received from a General in command the order of Leader of Aachen late in December.

Captain Botts entered active service Jan. 12, 1942, shortly after graduating from the University and in eight months gained his captaincy. He was assigned training at Fort Benning, maneuvered in Tennessee and was stationed at Camp Crowder, Mo., Fort Ord and Fort Bragg.

In civilian life, Captain Botts was a civil engineer with the C. and O. railroad, residing in Huntington. He was a member of the Methodist church.

LOCAL SOLDIER GUARDS STORM TROOPERS

Clarence Humphrey, 29, of Carlisle, was in a group in the Cincinnati Enquire which showed him holding two German storm troopers at bay near Liege in Belgium, Dec. 23, 1944, and was sent overseas on March 9, 1944. He received the Purple Heart in September. His wife received word that he was wounded in Belgium January 10, 1945. Another brother is serving overseas with the U. S. Army somewhere in France.

EGG COLORING

There is much difference in opinion regarding the color of chicken eggs. Some of the shells are nice orange or brown while others are quite white-shelled. I have always observed that a while hen lays a white egg and a yellow or speckled hen lays a brown or pink colored egg. The white egg has the pale colored yolk and the much deeper colored egg shell contains a darker colored yolk. Now you can throw any light on this subject?

DELINQUENCY

Parents, teachers, ministers, and law enforcement officials have become concerned over juvenile delinquency, not only in Carlisle, but throughout the nation in addition. There is an ever growing tendency on the part of some of the young people to be loitering in pool rooms and indulge in games of pool who are prohibited by statute. An effort is being made locally to curb this tendency and all good citizens are heartily in accord with the movement. One good thought has been advanced that the term is not only "juvenile" delinquency, but might be termed "adult" delinquency. Some parents might help by not being detained in their duty to their children.
