BIBLE THOUGHT THIS WEEK

Bless the Lord, O my Soul: O Lord my God, thou art very great; thou art clothed with honour and majesty. Psal. 104:1.

TIME OF TRIAL

War is a time when everyone is supposed to do more with less. It is a time of trial. After three years of war, those who have met the challenge most successfully are beginning to stand out—also those who have not done so well. Among the latter are the non-military activities of the Federal government. Boards, bureaus and agencies have grown by leaps and bounds.

A representative coal company recently compared the wartime record of the coal industry with that of the Federal government from the standpoint of doing more with less of the most precious resource the nation possesses—manpower. In 1918, there were 760,000 men employed in the coal mines. They produced 678,500,000 tons of coal. At the same time there were 1,000,000 government employes. In 1944 there were 479,000 miners employed and coal output was a staggering 684,500,000 tons. Government employes during this critical period rose to 2,250,000, with tens of thousands doing nothing more important than trying to unravel red tape.

WHOSE FAULT?

Going by remarks of the "real price" regulators, the road hunters are well-covered pirates. But behind these remarks there lies another side to the story. Time magazine reveals that "hog production in the Midwest is 59 to 40 percent less than a year ago."

The reason, the price of corn is fixed too high in relation to the fixed price of hogs." A similar situation exists in beef.

Time concluded that "the rigid restrictions and price controls on a sensitive market had knocked the whole meat system galley-west."

Dairy farmers can appreciate the predicament of meat producers. Unmerciful regulations have plagued them for years.

H. STANLEY BLAKE ENTERS RACE OR RE-ELECTION TO STATE SENATE, 39TH. DISTRICT OF KENTUCKY

In this announcement, let me first thank you again for the honors you have already given me. They shall always be cherished by me, especially giving me the largest majority in the history of the district and helping me to defeat, in relation, to child of old servant political machine and not the mandate of the people.

This is an occasion on which I would like to welcome to my home in Carlisle, Ky., every one of the voters in the District, even though your number would be considerably more than two times the population of this town. Such an attendance might tax our physical resources, it is true, but its importance to you and to me would be almost immeasurable. Your very numbers, your various occupations and interests, your educated ages, and the home and communities which you represent across Kentucky, would bring home to you with great force the character, the diversity, and the economic strength of the thousands of ordinary Kentuckians who make up and own the 30th District of Kentucky, "My Old Kentucky Home" And Your old Kentucky Home." We the representatives of the millions of other ordinary Americans who make up America. Today we in business or politics are truly responsible to the public interest, and we must continually make ourselves more aware of that fact. I have nothing to conceal and much which I am eager to report. I ask for re-election, solely upon the record I have made the past eight years as your State Senator.

I want to be your Senator when those fine girls and boys come home from all over the world from serving our flag. The RED, WHITE AND BLUE", we want to save them. I want to join in to each County and be there in person to greet and honor them with every one of you. It was my absentee ballot bill that gave them the opportunity to vote back home from all parts of the world. I want to help in the postwar rebuilding of Kentucky. Help to keep her financial standing sound. Help improve Kentucky year by year without a Sales Tax or without any increase in taxes.

SUGAR HAS GONE TO WAR

Sugar supplies are smaller this year than last. For this reason the Office of Price Administration has tightened the sugar-for-home-canning program for the year of 1945. The aim of this year's program is to insure a fair distribution of the sugar that is available to those housewives who actually need it for home canning.

The 1945 program provides 500,000 tons of sugar for home canning. This is about the same amount of sugar that was actually made available in 1944 for canning purposes. But last year, people bought more than a million tons of sugar with home canning stamps and coupons. Consequently, 500,000 tons more than was intended or actually needed for home canning purposes were applied for other home uses.

This year, sugar is too scarce to run the risk of overcanning again. That is the reason why the 1945 program makes sugar available only to people who apply at their local War Price and Rationing Boards for it and show a need for it, and limit the maximum allowance to 20 pounds per person, against last year's maximum of 25 pounds.

During the 1945 canning season, it is necessary to tighten the sugar program. Sugar stocks for the time of the year are the lowest since the war began Cuban production is down from last year. Military needs are higher. Ships that might otherwise be used to bring sugar into the United States are carrying supplies to the battlefronts. Both manufacturing machinery for the sugar refineries are scarce Production cannot be increased.

Because of the circumstances cited here, housewives must live within their home canning sugar budgets. Even by living within these budgets, the total amount of sugar to be rationed will allow for as much home canning as was actually done last year—if only those who need it get sugar.

The following rules should be followed by all housewives who are entitled to sugar for canning and who spend sugar-for-home-canning coupons.

1. Get a copy of OPA Form R-341. This is the 1945 Application for Home Canning Sugar. Remember You can get your copy from your local War Price and Rationing Board. Or, if you prefer, you may send in your request by postal card but be sure to sign your name and address.

2. When you get your copy of this application, read it carefully. Then fill it in Be sure to print or write plainly.

3. Fill out the front page (a) Be sure to write your full name, address, and telephone number (if you have a telephone).

(b) Be sure to write in the names of all persons in your family for whom you are applying. Where it says, "Applicant must list names below," write your name first. Then write in the names of other members of your family.

(c) Be sure to write in the "Total pounds applied for." You will have to fill in the back page before you can do this. Also write in the total number of persons in your "Family unit."

(d) Be sure to sign your name on the application where it says, "Sign here."

4. Answer all the questions on the back page. Be as accurate as you can. If you can't remember how many quarts of canning you canned with sugar in 1944,

SOUND OF GRASS

All the power
Of the day, the light, the sun,
Is in this grass
That the wind has run—
And our feet are loud
In our passing by—
The feel of mankind, a far
Ground,
A thunder and then a distant
way,
A failing hiss, a sigh . . !

Is it the air,
Or is it earth's tongue?
These long blades over the field
Uttering everywhere
Tumult of passing things.
The old and the young,
The deep, the careless, the pitiful.
The heart that sings.
Even shade of crow or gull
All process the grass
And its slow whisperings
Like a soft and inland sea
That knows not you or me

The American Way

LET'S REPAIR THE AMERICAN WAY

By George Ellsworth

GOVERNOR SHOLTZ ASKS U. S. BE FIRM

Former Governor David Sholtz of Florida, Commander in Chief of the Military Order of World Wars," sent the following telegram May 1st to the Hon. Edward R. Stettinius, and the members of the American Delegation at the San Francisco Security Conference:

"Who has the only two ocean navy in the world, a magnificent army and the finest air force; the greatest merchant marine, the greatest production plants turned up to wartime necessity, and the finest democratic spirit desiring peace and freedom? In view of the only answer that can be given, as Commander-in-Chief of the Military Order of the World Wars, I respectfully urge that the same unconquerable spirit shown by our armed forces be exhibited by our delegation at the San Francisco Conference. On behalf of thousands of officers who have been privileged to serve the Armed Forces of the United States, we urge a realistic and big stick view of our position. It is now or never long record in the fight for right and justice, no nation can question the sincerity of our position. As soon as the other nations are convinced that we mean business and our right and our justice, the peace will be established without the desired peace. You must let no poker players bluff the United States at the conference. Too many Americans have sacrificed in the last war and this war. Having faith in Divine Guidance, I respectfully believe the American delegation should not be here called on to fight aggressor nations.

"At the conclusion of World War I," continued the Governor, "we failed to assert ourselves and by this failure contributed to the making of World War II. Conciliation of certain of our War I Allies, failed to make for an enduring peace. Appeasement of any of our present Allies, contrary to what this nation believes to be just and right, will simply mean that we will be fighting World War III in another 20 to 25 years, and the next time against another line-up of nations.

"By insisting on what we know is right and just—NOW—we will have the backing of most of the nations of the world and we have the added might to back up our convictions. That looks to me as the only realistic approach to insuring a lasting peace—that is why I telegraphed Mr. Stettinius firmly to exhibit the same INDOMITABLE FORTITUDE BRING SHOWN BY OUR ARMED FORCES."

This columnist is in complete agreement with Governor Sholtz. It is our duty to ourselves and to the world at large to exercise the leadership which has been thrust upon us and really guide the world into an era of enduring peace and freedom for all its peoples. By the time this article will have appeared in print, it is quite possible that the deliberations at San Francisco will have ended. It is hoped in that event, that a real foundation for lasting peace will have been laid. It is also greatly to be feared that does not simply temporize to placate certain nations in order to avoid present minor differences of opinions and leave the major issues to be settled later when this nation will be disarmed and no longer in a position to insist upon and secure a peace which is just and right for all the peoples of the earth.
