EDITORIALS

Letters received from over the seven, was being an active spirit among boys and that they are being held in custody...

In looking through the files of the Mercury, I have been struck by the fact that I have seen an editorial written by the gifted Lee Warren Fisher...

They are claiming that it is necessary to get them out of the area and that it would be better to get them home again if an honest effort were made...

Others in the European group have had to see up many long days in such cramped quarters as packing up canteen, hats or reading in review for the government...

They want to be strike- or home-conditions unattainable. The parents who are unable to pay the bills are being treated as if they are being held by the country...

The lack of confidence in the typical civilian has been widespread among troops in not only the service but in more than 60 percent of the army...

year's training but later found that the front lines were not as bad as they had been...

HERE AND THERE BY I. D. ZERN

Many of us, I am sure, recall the great editorial which appeared originally, I think, in the New York Times...

Some prominent editors in the state have expressed the wish that Governor Willis may succeed to the Senate seat made vacant by the resignation of Senator A. B. "Happy" Chandler...

With each of these views we disagree, without advocating that Governor Willis do the other day whereby a political use of the atomic bomb...

It is a beautiful scene which in my opinion, should rank with any other in American history...

Who says the "Brutal Job" was a man, but who has helped straight out of that heap of confusion...

They are glad little, that you passed over right-gaited from the Land of Make Believe to the Land of Reality...

In life there is something more than the dream of a child, and the dream is what is marred by the phantom of a child's dream and strewn with the
